RESULT OF ELECTION GIVES SATISFACTION

For Councilmen, 2-year term—
 E. S. Mayes ..... 220
 A. C. Staten ..... 213
 J. E. Robertson ..... 199
 J. H. Gill ..... 175
 C. A. Plath ..... 147
 For Councilman, 1-year term—
 James Stranahan ..... 162
 J. L. Hershner ..... 156

For Treasurer, 1-year term—
 L. A. Henderson ..... 247
 For Recorder, 1-year term—
 H. L. Howe ..... 166
 G. W. Dimick ..... 165
 Messrs. Mayes, Robertson and Staten for councilmen for 2 years—
 Jas. Stranahan for 1 year; Henderson for treasurer and H. L. Howe for recorder—such was the result of the municipal election. Howe won by a single vote.

The total number of votes deposited when the polls closed at 7 o'clock was 357, which is a heavy vote considering that it was only a city election with no great issues at stake, and also in view of the almost constant drizzle of rain throughout the hours the polls were open.

A large proportion of the vote was cast late in the day. In fact there had been but 150 votes cast at 2 p. m., so that over 200 were cast in the five hours from 2 to 7.

One of the peculiar phases of the situation, created by the resignation of Mayor Hartwig, is the fact that the new council will not have the selection of his successor, with whom they will have to work for the next year.

There is very little talk as yet as to who may be selected for mayor, but it is believed quite probable that one of the retiring councilmen may be selected for the place by his fellow members.

Under the law, the present council will have the choosing of a successor to the retiring mayor. The resignation has not yet been accepted by the council, but undoubtedly will be acted upon at the next meeting of the city fathers, next Monday evening. As the old council holds office until the first Monday in January, it will have the selection of a mayor for the unexpired term of Mayor Hartwig, which lasts for a year.
