

THE HOOD RIVER NEWS PUBLISHED WEDNESDAY MORNING BY HOOD RIVER NEWS COMPANY, INC. HOOD RIVER, OREGON

The Mayor's Message Mayor Wright's message to the council, as published in full on another page, is plain and to the point. In it are given the facts about the city's business in which every citizen has an interest.

WILSON WILL NOT BE A CANDIDATE District Attorney Wilson announces that he will not be a candidate for re-election. He says: "Since it is but a short time until the announcement of candidates for various offices at the coming primaries will have to be made, and knowing that the candidacy of some parties for the office of district attorney depends upon whether or not I should again desire to be a candidate, I deem it but fair to such applicants and any others to definitely announce that I will not be a candidate for nomination at the coming primaries."

WICKHAM KNOWS VALUES, STATE BOARD DISCOVERS That County Assessor Wickham is "onto his job" is evidenced by a comparative statement of changes made in assessments by the state board of equalization this year. This has just been received by County Clerk Hanson and shows that Wasco county's assessed valuation was raised by the state board from $12,343,120 to $15,459,801.

Lots Worse Than Overall An exchange remarks that some of the city papers have been having a lot of fun with the susceptible young farmer who found a note in a pair of overalls which he bought, written by the girl in the factory who finished them, and proposed to the girl, being repulsed with the courteous suggestion that when she married she would pick somebody who could afford something better than 48-cent overalls.

"ORCHARD MANAGEMENT" TITLE OF NEW BULLETIN An important bulletin entitled "Orchard Management," of which Professor C. I. Lewis, of the horticultural department, is author, has just been issued by the Oregon Agricultural College. The bulletin, which is 96 pages in length, thoroughly treats the problems of orchard management as they are met with in all the different parts of the Northwest.

SNOW DEPRIVES BIRDS OF THEIR HABITUAL FOOD Oregon birds cannot find their habitual food when snow covers the ground. Thousands of them perish during every great storm. This is not a mere sentimental loss. The birds are valuable helpers to the agriculturist and their destruction imperils the crops.

Fish Is Attractive only when fresh,—stale fish is abominable. Our rule is to handle none but the freshest—whether from river, lake or ocean. In all seasons we pride ourselves upon the freshness and flavor of our Fish, and we carry only that which is in season. Our supplies reach us daily, so the freshness can be guaranteed. The prices are as pleasing as the fish itself.

GENERAL MEAT MARKET P. C. YOUNG, Prop. If there's anybody in Hood River county who isn't an optimist, it's a safe bet that he's a dyspeptic.
