

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Mrs. Marlon MacRae has returned from the East.

James Stranahan was a week end visitor in Portland.

W. B. Dickerson returned from Corvallis the latter part of the week.

John Leland Henderson of Tillamook was a business visitor in the city recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hollister of Rockford, Ill., have been recent visitors in the city.

W. H. Rhodenbliser and G. W. Ingram were among the visitors from the Upper Valley who have been down recently.

Irwin D. Parkins, who has been spending a vacation in Southern California, has returned.

Earl Clark of Pine Grove submitted to a successful operation at the hospital on Friday evening.

H. W. Caulier of Troutdale visited his brother, W. E. Caulier, in this city, the last of the week.

Mrs. Frank E. Lytle of Dee, who has been undergoing treatment at the hospital, is convalescing.

Mrs. Mary E. Savage and son Ralph left Thursday for their new home in Brush Prairie, Wash.

Hiram E. Booth, one of the owners of the Salt Lake Herald Republican, spent a couple of days in the city last week.

Mrs. W. B. Dyer, who has been undergoing treatment at the hospital, was able to leave that institution the latter part of the week.

C. F. Gilbert and E. A. Franz were among the local hardware men who attended the state convention held in Portland the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Laura Simonton left the last of the week for Los Angeles, where she will join her husband. They will return to Hood River, probably in the spring.

Mrs. G. R. Wilbur and Mrs. McLain were among those from here who went to Portland last week to see the grand opera, "The Girl of the Golden West."

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Culbertson and the Misses Sprout were among those from here who went to Portland to see "The Girl of the Golden West," the grand opera which scored such a success in the Rose City last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Volgare of Buffalo, N. Y., visited A. W. Stone in the Upper Valley the latter part of the week. They were on their way to Southern California, but desired to get a glimpse of the famous Hood River valley before proceeding south.

J. B. Current remains seriously ill from typhoid.

Mrs. S. E. Bowers left last week for Eagle Grove, Iowa.

Mayor Wright spent the last of the week in Portland on business.

W. R. McCreedy left the latter part of the week on a trip to Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. Bronson spent two days in Portland the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Palmer and Miss Florence F. Beck left the latter part of the week for Chicago.

Mrs. Hattie Campbell and daughter, Miss Pearl of McMinnville were week-end visitors with Mrs. J. L. Hershner.

Mrs. Holcomb of Springfield, O., was here the latter part of the week with a view to locating.

Mrs. A. C. Hallam of Portland returned to her home Friday after spending several days visiting here.

J. E. Kennedy and Mrs. J. D. Fletcher have been added to those who are eligible for the Oregon Minnesota Society.

Mrs. C. R. Donohoe of Portland left Saturday after having been the guest of her mother, Mrs. C. A. Reed for the week.

C. Phillip Beebe, who has recently returned from a trip to Boston, is now spending the remainder of the winter in San Francisco.

C. L. Leavitt, who is in this country from the Philippines, was the guest several days last week of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Duncan.

C. H. Sprout, manager of the Apple Growers' Union, reports that the demand for the smaller grade of apples has improved of late and quite a number of shipments have been made.

The first of a series of dances by members of the younger married set was held at Heilbronner hall Friday evening. About thirty couples were present. Vogel's orchestra furnished music, punch was served and an informal good time was had.

Extension of the county tax rolls has just been completed and Sheriff Johnson will mail out notices the last of the week notifying all property owners in the county what their assessments are. Books will then be opened for the payment of the taxes.

A. A. Jayne, who returned a few days ago after an extended trip through the southern states, left the latter part of the week for Portland, where he expects to spend several months recuperating from his recent illness.

Harold Hershner spent Sunday in Portland.

Regular services will be held by the Christian Science church next Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Plath went to Portland yesterday to spend a couple of days.

Mrs. P. S. Davidson went to Portland yesterday to spend a few days visiting friends.

Mrs. Mary Caldwell of North Platte, Neb., who has been visiting at the home of O. P. Dabney, left yesterday for her home.

W. H. Lawrence, county fruit expert, has arranged to address the fruit growers of the Upper Valley and will go to Parkdale tomorrow for that purpose.

W. J. Baker's office rooms, recently vacated by the Davenport Harness Company, have been rented as offices for the city recorder and the city water department.

The plate glass show window in Bragg's Mercantile store, which was accidentally broken Monday of last week, was replaced on Thursday by the Guy Y. Edwards Company, through which it had been insured.

Frank Caddy, who recently sold his ranch here, is this week moving his household effects to Gresham, where he has purchased a ranch in the Mt. Hood district. Mr. Caddy is severing his connection with Hood River after having lived here twenty-two years.

C. L. Wheeler came up from Portland Monday. He has just opened a real estate office in the Spalding building and will be associated with O. J. Tilson in conducting a general real estate business. Mr. Wheeler will spend a part of his time there and part in this city.

A recent market report in the Oregonian says: Apple supplies in the country are being fast taken out of growers' hands and only a few small lots here and there remain unsold. Storage stocks at all points are firmly held. The local demand is good and the market is in very satisfactory shape.

The Hydro-Electric Company, contending that it has complied with the court's orders in the matter of changing some of its wires, has applied to the federal court asking that the injunction restraining it from turning on its juice be dissolved. Judge Wolferton will probably give them a hearing today.

On the petition of business men, work on the improvement of the east side grade will be started at once. At the council meeting Monday the matter was brought up and City Engineer Morse was instructed to start at once making the necessary surveys for a double track roadway from the bridge to the county road.

Superintendent Early of the Mt. Hood Railroad has received from J. Wesley Ladd, president of the Portland Snowshoe Club, three handsome photographs, giving enlarged views of winter scenes taken on the mountain during the recent visit of the club. Mr. Early will have the pictures framed.

F. L. Brant of Minneapolis points out another instance of fraud at the expense of Hood River. In Minneapolis he thought he was buying Hood River apples at 75 cents a peck. When he got down into the box of Jonathans he found that the ends of the box had been reversed, the apples coming from some point in Kansas and inferior in size and flavor.

Professor Lawrence delivered a second lecture before the apple growers at the Portland Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening. Mr. Lawrence spoke at one of the orchardists' meeting a few weeks ago and his address was so well received that it was determined to secure him again. "The First Year in An Apple Orchard" was the subject of his address. Mr. Lawrence has just completed his series of lectures at the Oregon Agricultural college.

At the council meeting last week the street committee reported on the east side grade, recommending that Mayor Wright's suggestion that it be improved should be acted upon so far as the city finances will permit. The judiciary committee, to which was referred the matter of revising the city charter, recommended that the judiciary committee, together with the mayor, recorder, city attorney and such citizens as may be desired, should constitute a committee to make the revision.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm. Wadling, Kinnam & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

F. F. McCreedy left the last of the week for Indianapolis.

Mrs. Marlon MacRae left Saturday to spend some time in San Francisco.

Miss Nellie Coad left Saturday to take a position in the schools at The Dalles.

Chas. T. Early and Judge Derby were among visitors in Portland the latter part of the week.

Earl Clark of Pine Grove, who was operated on at the hospital Friday evening, is making a fine recovery.

Miss Margaret Nickelsen was operated on for appendicitis at the hospital Monday evening. She is doing nicely.

Henri de Redding and Roy W. Kelly attended a dance given by The Dalles Bachelors' Club Friday evening.

Mrs. E. A. Franz, who has been undergoing treatment at the hospital was able to return to her home Monday.

Wm. R. Warner, 3rd, who has a ranch in Duke's Valley has returned from Philadelphia and was accompanied by his sister Miss Alberta H. Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bradley, who have been visiting at the home of C. M. Hurlburt, returned to Portland Saturday.

Mrs. Frank B. Howard left Monday for a five-weeks trip on which she will visit friends in Portland and Vancouver.

Miss Catherine Wilkins, matron at the hospital, underwent a serious operation Friday evening. Her condition yesterday was favorable.

Mrs. A. N. Jacobs of Portland, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. Stevenson, for two weeks, returned to the Rose City Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Metzger of Los Angeles have been here for several days with a view to locating. They have been guests at the Mount Hood Hotel.

Mrs. E. W. Dark and her niece, Miss Alda McClain of McMinnville, left yesterday for Prineville, called there by the illness of their niece and sister, Mrs. E. R. French.

Sherman J. Frank has bought of Eleanor LaFrance the lot fronting seventy-five feet on Oak street, just east of Kinnaird & Kinsey's store. Consideration $7,100.

Dr. C. H. Jenkins and family, who have been enjoying an extended trip which included Philadelphia and Long Beach, Cal., are expected home the first of the month.

Sollicitors who have been employed by the Pacific Power & Light Company in making contracts with customers report that thirty-six per cent of the citizens have signed up. This number, they state, includes fifty per cent of the business houses.

S. I. Well of San Francisco and O. H. Gilbert of Portland, electrical engineers, are registered at the Hotel Oregon and will superintend the placing of the telephone connections with White Salmon in a cable under the river. At present the wires are suspended above the river and give occasional trouble.

The News is in receipt of an interesting letter from H. C. Coe, a former well-known resident of this city and now residing at Manhattan, Cal. Mr. Coe writes at length upon the dock proposition here, in which he is much interested. He had received the mistaken conception that the plan was to build the dock west of the Hood River. This was not the case, however, it being proposed to build it east of Hood River. The proposition is now held up by the decision of the supreme court in the Jackson county case.

Preparations have been completed by members of the Portland Snowshoe Club to leave that city next Friday afternoon at four o'clock by rail for Hood River, where a special train will carry the party to Parkdale, the first night's stop. Saturday morning a sleigh will take the men to McRush's place. From there the snowshoes will be put on and the last six miles made on them. Many trips on snowshoes are planned for the next two days and the return will not be made until Wednesday, February 7. The following will make the trip: J. Wesley Ladd, Elliott R. Corbett, Rodney L. Gleson, Dr. H. S. Nichols, Horace Mecklen, David T. Honeyman, Brandt Wickersham, Mark Weygandt and W. H. Edlek.

Eat Log Cabin Bread, the best bread, baked in the cleanest bakery. For sale at A. C. Staten Grocery and Bragg Mercantile Co.*

True-To-Name Nursery

Wishes to announce that they have only a few thousand of those guaranteed trees left. Better order now before it's too late. Address, TRUE-TO-NAME NURSERY, Phone 2002-K Hood River, Ore.

J. C. Franz of The Dalles visited friends here Saturday.

Ed Harris has bought two lots in Deschutes addition to Bend.

W. L. Upson, who has been seriously ill with appendicitis, is now recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Starrett of Van Horn spent several days in Portland last week.

N. C. Evans, president of the Hydro Electric Company, was in Portland the last of the week.

L. S. Fritz, game warden, of The Dalles spent a couple of days here this week on official business.

W. L. Cornell, Mrs. C. W. Holmes and Mrs. M. L. Mason were in town from the Upper Valley Saturday.

As the result of a runaway Leonard Miller walked in from the Odell district in the wee small hours Saturday morning.

Dr. Beaumont of Portland was in the city Saturday to attend the meeting of orchardists and also to inspect his ranch.

Mrs. Kate Kemp has been visiting with her sister and brothers, Mrs. James Cherry, Charles and John Davenport, at The Dalles.

If you have eggs for setting or poultry stock for sale, advertise it in the News. Do not allow business of this kind to go out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Clarke, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. O. Hadley, at The Dalles for several weeks, returned Friday.

Rev. J. A. Bennett of the Valley Christian church, who recently moved here from Webster Grove, Mo., has received his shipment of furniture and is moving it to his new home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Upper Sandusky, O., who have been spending some time at Santa Barbara, Cal., arrived in this city the last of the week for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stewart on Prospect street.

The basket ball team of the local high school will meet the team representing the Stevenson high school in a game to be played here Friday evening. The local second team will play a preliminary game with the Mosier team and two fast contests are expected. The first game begins at 7:45 sharp.

Twelve hundred dollars was the missionary offering at the Christian Missionary Alliance Chapel Sunday, after an appeal made by Rev. G. N. Eldridge of Pasadena, Cal., field missionary for the church. Rev. and Mrs. Eldridge left for Portland Monday after having spent eight days of successful missionary work here.

Medicines that aid nature are always most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allays the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. Sold by all dealers.*

CHICHESTER SPILLS

DIAMOND BRAND

Refuse all Substitutes.

Ask your Druggist for CHICHESTER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS in RED and GOLD metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. TAKE NO OTHER. Buy of your Druggist and ask for CHICHESTER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS for twenty-five years regarded as Best, Safest, Always Reliable.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS

TIME EVERYWHERE WORTH TRYING

ROY GILLAM DIES WHILE IN SANITARIUM AT SALEM

Roy Gillam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillam who live in the Barrett district, died last week while a patient in a sanitarium at Salem. His parents and sister, Miss Phoebe Gillam, left here the last of the week to attend the funeral, which was held at Salem Friday.

Roy Gillam came here with his parents two years ago. About a year ago he became ill with tuberculosis which undermined his health.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillam and daughter are now visiting the former's son, D. P. Gillam, in Portland. They have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

When buying a cough medicine for children bear in mind that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is most effective for colds, croup and whooping cough and that it contains no harmful drug. For sale by all dealers.*

WOMAN'S CLUB MEMBERS TO ENTERTAIN HUSBANDS

On the evening of February 7th the members of the Woman's Club will entertain their husbands at their regular place of meeting in the Commercial Club rooms.

"The Love Letters of a Musician," by Myrtle Reed, will be read by Mrs. Floy Campbell, each letter to be followed by a musical illustration rendered by the Schubert Trio. Refreshments and a social good time will be in order at the close of the program.

The committee hopes that all the gentlemen who receive invitations will make a special effort to be present, and also that the audience may be seated in time to allow the program to begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. J. A. Epping went to Astoria Monday to see her two daughters, the Misses Dorothy and Betty, who are staying with their aunt and attending school there.

DO YOU KNOW

WHAT Hood River has as large an up-to-date Steam Laundry as any town of its size in the United States. That it is equipped with the most modern machinery money can buy. That it employs white help only of the most efficient character. Our work is the last word in Quality. Our service is Prompt. Our prices are moderate. A single trial will make you a regular customer.

Hood River Steam Laundry

Phone 123

ELECTRIC RADIANT TOASTERS

Only $4.50

Come and see us before you buy Heating and Cooking Utensils elsewhere. You can save money...

Electric Wiring & Supply Co.

A. L. DAY, President J. M. GEIGER, Vice Pres. and Manager

Under First National Bank Building PHONE 3

Hood River Unit Orchard Bonds

Will increase in value each year. Guarantee Five Per Cent Every Year. Will pay more as trees grow older. Have you an acquaintance who can not live here or who has not enough capital for an orchard of his own, who would like to share in Hood River Apple Profits? Let us tell you and him how our Unit Bond will give him a portion of the profits.

Central Orchard Co. = Phone 161-M Oak & 3rd St.

OUR ANNUAL WHITE SALE

OPENS

Monday, Feb. 5

ALL WHITE GOODS

except spool cotton will be offered at GREAT REDUCTION during this sale--including all the dainty new goods that have just arrived

AS FOLLOWS:

Laces	Linens	Gloves
Embroideries	Lawns	Underwear
Trimnings	Sheetings	Hose
Ribbons	Muslins	Corsets

A beautiful line of New Undermuslins

BRAGG MERCANTILE COMPANY

SPECIAL MISSION FURNITURE

We are prepared to make to order almost anything in specially designed Mission Furniture and solicit your order for anything you want made in that line. To keep our men and machines busy we will make special low prices for February and March. We also make Finishing Lumber for your house.

J. M. WRIGHT & CO.

Phone 306-X Hood River, Oregon

