PARKDALE

Alvah Anderson has been offered and has accepted the management of the ribbon and notion department of the Parkdale store, vice Mr. Brown, resigned. He will be pleased to exhibit for your inspection all the latest importations in the ribbon and notion line.

Having Congress on his hands, President Taft finds it impossible to attend the dedication of the new building of the Ingram Mercantile Company. However, other notables have promised to be in attendance among whom will be the former vice-president of the Progressive Association, William Henry Rodenhelser.

The Progressive Association held an enthusiastic meeting on Saturday at Parkdale. G. M. Uptegrove, vice-president, presided, and from the number that turned out to attend this meeting, and from the reports that were submitted by the several committees, it is evident that this association is very much alive and its committees are on their respective jobs.

The Robley Male Quartet will be the next attraction presented by the Progressive Association at McIsaac's hall, Parkdale, on Monday evening, February 5th. This quartet has a national reputation and will present a program of classical and popular songs and solos that will be sure to please all lovers of good music. They will also give a one-act sketch entitled "The Trials of a College Poet." The members of the quartet are: Paul W. Price, 1st tenor; Bayard F. Robley, 2nd tenor; Richard R. Robley, 1st bass; Ralph W. Bons, 2nd bass.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Cruise, Mr. and Mrs. Redfield, Mr. Sylvester and Mr. Parker were entertained at cards Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fuller.

Friday night sixteen of the young people gathered at the home of W. D. Allen to surprise Lechl and Charley Allen. All thoroughly enjoyed the evening, although, on account of the rain, they were compelled to stay later than they intended.

Saturday afternoon while returning from Odell, C. Mackenzie met with a serious accident. When crossing the bridge in front of Henderson's and Mac Kay's, where he is staying, one of the horses shied at something in the water and crowded the other horse off the bridge and it died the next morning from internal injuries, the result of the accident.

To help pay for the encyclopaedia that our school has bought, a Valentine pie social is announced to be held at the schoolhouse Feb. 14. In addition to the pie social, many novelties can be expected, one of which is a large valentine box. Through this department one can send valentines of any nature. A program will be rendered by the young people.

FRANKTON

Little Merln Cahoon entertained a few of his friends at dinner Sunday, the occasion being his seventh birthday.

The snow has been cleaned from the tramways in the Stanley-Smith lumber yards at Ruthton and work was resumed in the yards last week.

A birthday party was much enjoyed by the young friends of Elma Gray Saturday afternoon. Light refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Frankton friends extend congratulations to Earl Noble who was united in the holy bonds of matrimony last Wednesday to Miss Emma Stone. Mr. and Mrs. Noble will make their future home in Portland.

A social dance was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. La Mar at Ruthton last Saturday night. A large crowd of neighbors and friends were present and enjoyed the occasion. A delightful lunch was served at midnight.

WASCO

A bouncing boy has arrived at the home of H. Hill.

Those joining the "Antlered Herd" at The Dalles recently were: E. E. Kaseberg, Tom Striker, M. D. Beer, Lyndon Lucas, E. L. Weld and Dr. Morgan.

We are in receipt of an inquiry for 200 head of unbroken horses weighing not less than 1200 pounds each. Anyone having such stock for sale can notify The Dalles Business Men's Association.

A new stock yard for Wasco is assured, and operations will be commenced on it as soon as conditions will permit. This city has long needed a yard and the railroad company have been very generous to give us this long-needed necessity.

W. C. Bryant was in town recently looking after school matters. An innovation in teaching geography is under way that will, we think, be a great success as soon as Mr. Bryant perfects his plans. Stereoscopic views will be taken of different parts of the state and reflected on a screen, and in this manner it will give the pupils an interesting description which they will remember.

WHITE SALMON

R. C. Bruce is enjoying a visit from his father from Minneapolis.

Miss Gertrude Morris, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. August Lauterbach, has gone to Seattle, where her parents are located.

Friends of D. W. Coate, who was suffering from abscess of the stomach and not expected to live, and was taken to Portland where an operation was performed, will be glad to know that he is recovering.

More damage was done to young trees than was anticipated. Orchardists who have not been busy digging out and repairing have made a mistake. Because of the many good winters several let their one and two-year-old trees go without staking. It certainly pays to stake.

Millions of young salmon are said to be in danger in the White Salmon river on account of lack of food. They are about three inches long at this time, and the hatchery people find that unless something unusual is done at once many will perish, not only on the White Salmon but at other points. A subscription has been started among the fishermen to provide food.

To Give Piano Recital

The first piano recital by the pupils of Miss Maude Carlisle will take place on Saturday, Feb. 10, at 3 p. m. at her studio on Prospect avenue. Much interest is being manifested in this, which is the first of a series of musicals to be given at different intervals during the year.

The Oregonian says: A. M. Sherwood of New York, who recently purchased an orchard at Hood River, is a guest at the Portland.

Professor Ernest F. Ayres, high-way engineer at the O. A. C., has accepted an invitation extended by the local Commercial Club to deliver an address on good roads at the public meeting to be held Monday evening, February 12. There will also be numbers appropriate to the day—Lincoln's birthday.

Hood River apples taste good to Pennsylvanians. J. H. Fredrick, who recently shipped a crate of Spitzenburgs and Ortleys to his brother-in-law in that state, has received a newspaper containing very complimentary mention of the fruit, with particular reference to the delicious flavor of the Spitzenburgs.

DECISION RENDERED IS FAVORABLE TO MR. SUTTON

A decision favorable to Albert Sutton, who is engaged in litigation with his former wife over possession of their two children, was rendered by Judge Bradshaw the latter part of the week. Judge Bradshaw holds that even though the court of California might have had jurisdiction to modify the original decree, which gave Mr. Sutton exclusive custody of the children, yet the court of Oregon has the right to determine anew who is a proper person to have custody of the children. Mrs. Sutton is trying to regain custody of the children.

STATE'S RAILWAY MILEAGE HAS REMARKABLE GROWTH

Railroad mileage in Oregon has increased at a remarkable rate during the past few years and the outlook for 1912 is most encouraging. According to the report of the State Railroad Commission, there were 2382 miles of railways in Oregon at the end of June, 1910. By the end of December, 1911, this had grown to 2883 miles.

FATHER FINED $200 FOR WHIPPING SCHOOLTEACHER

Marion Wing of Klamath county was fined $200 and costs in the superior court at Goldendale for assaulting Mr. Strout, one of the rural district teachers. Strout had trouble with the children of Wing, which resulted in the farmer giving the teacher a dressing down before the whole school.

Apple Storage Bill

Representative Henry D. Flood of Virginia declared that he will shortly introduce in congress a bill requiring all cold storage firms to make monthly reports to the department of agriculture of the number of barrels in storage, and have the secretary of agriculture consolidate this information and send it to fruit growers and associations.

Our Country Is the Most Lawless Among Civilized Nations By Senator WILLIAM E. BORAH of Idaho I AM in full sympathy with those who are at war with present conditions. I am not one of those who believe that our present institutions are not vulnerable to the same sapping and destructive influences which have undermined and destroyed other republics. But I believe we are yet TOO YOUNG TO DIE and ought to be TOO YOUNG TO BE DISCOURAGED. There are thousands and thousands of people, with the number daily increasing, who would like to feel safe in their persons, safe in their workshops and homes, who would like to feel that JUSTICE CAN BE ADMINISTERED ALIKE TO THE RICH AND THE POOR and that we have not one government for the honest business man trying to be right and another for those who are ruthlessly preying upon the rights of others and of the public. I DO NOT EXAGGERATE AND I DO NOT MISSTATE OR OVERSTATE WHEN I DECLARE THAT WE ARE EVEN NOW IN OUR YOUTH THE MOST LAWLESS OF ANY OF THE GREAT CIVILIZED NATIONS. THERE IS NO COUNTRY OF FIRST IMPORTANCE WHERE THERE IS SO LITTLE RESPECT FOR THE LAW AS HERE IN OUR OWN REPUBLIC.
