

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Mrs. Mabel Carter visited friends in The Dalles the last of the week.

Mrs. Melvina Woodburn visited friends at Mosler the last of the week.

Mrs. F. G. Hutchinson went to Portland for a short visit the last of the week.

Mrs. O. L. Warden went to Portland the last of the week to undergo medical treatment.

Miss Lydia Johnson and Miss Viola Fisher went to Portland last week to see the Chocolate Soldier.

Dr. F. D. Wilson left the last of the week to spend the summer on his ranch near Washougal, Wash.

Miss Lois Friedley and Mrs. Wm. Kemp went to Portland the last of the week to spend a few days.

W. R. Bradley, having disposed of his holdings here, has gone to Kingston, where he has purchased a ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. House have been receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter on Wednesday.

Rows of electric lights have been attached to the exterior of the Hotel Oregon and make an attractive illumination.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moe expect to leave the last of the week for Southern California, where they will spend a couple of weeks.

Mrs. W. H. Staats visited her daughter, Mrs. Chas. N. Clarke, here the last of the week while enroute from Portland to her home in Maupin, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Courtright of Sandwith, Ill., who are spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. A. G. Wing, left Friday to spend a few days visiting friends in Albany.

E. R. Claxton went to Portland the last of the week to see Mrs. Claxton, who has been undergoing medical treatment there, and with a view to bringing her back, as she is making a nice recovery.

The steamer J. N. Teal will resume its run probably between the fifteenth and twentieth of this month. The Tahomo will then be transferred back to the run between Cascade Locks and The Dalles.

Colonel W. F. Tucker is recovering from a severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Reid left Monday for a short visit in Portland.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ries at Parkdale Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Palmer is seriously ill at her home in the Oak Grove district.

Samuel Raymond has returned to Granddalls, his mother being much better.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. DeWitt have taken apartments in the Mt. Hood hotel annex.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Isenberg at the local hospital Sunday evening.

J. Gunnling of White Salmon underwent an operation at the Cottage hospital Sunday morning.

L. S. Atsworth left yesterday on a trip to Lake county. He expects to be gone about ten days.

Drs. Bronson and Waugh performed an operation on Mrs. W. J. Reckors the last of the week.

Phillip Curroil returned the last of the week from Corvallis, where he has been taking the short course in horticulture.

The dancing club recently organized by the young married people enjoyed another hop at Heilbronner's hall Friday evening.

Alex Clark Rae of Portland, who owns an orchard in the Upper Valley, was a guest at the Hotel Oregon the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Page are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son at the Cottage hospital Monday morning.

Earl Clark, who underwent a serious operation at the hospital three weeks ago, has returned to his home in Pine Grove to complete his recuperation.

D. J. Cooper of The Dalles has announced his candidacy for state senator from Wasco and Hood River counties, and seeks the Republican endorsement at the April primary election. He says he is a progressive who believes in the primary law and statement number one, the initiative, referendum and recall.

David Currier, Jr., was a visitor in Portland the last of the week.

Mrs. E. R. Pooley spent the week end with her parents in Portland.

W. H. Eccles of Baker City visited in this city and at Dee the last of the week.

William Tharston has returned from the East, where he spent the winter.

John Leland Henderson of Tillamook was a business visitor in the city Thursday.

Mrs. Arthur Clarke was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hadley at The Dalles last week.

The Early Hour Dancing Club held an enjoyable dance at Heilbronner's hall Saturday evening.

J. W. Wiedrick of Portland was here between trains Friday, with his daughter, Mrs. C. D. Hinrichs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer of Parkdale went to The Dalles the last of the week for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stark went to Mosler the last of the week to visit their daughter, Mrs. William Akers.

J. W. Simmons of Portland, who owns a ranch here, was in the city a couple of days the latter part of the week.

A. P. Slade, who underwent a serious operation at the hospital Saturday evening, is making a nice recovery.

C. L. Wheeler, who is associated with B. E. Duncan and Company, will spend the next few weeks in Portland.

Mrs. J. J. Knapp returned to the Portland Sanatorium Saturday for further treatment. Mr. Knapp accompanied her.

Dr. E. L. House of Spokane gave a series of four very scholarly and interesting addresses at the Congregational church last week.

By a slip of the pen, C. F. Gilbert was given credit last week with having a better half. Mr. Gilbert says he is still single even if it is leap year.

Friends of County Judge Culbertson are urging him to become a candidate for the legislature and have been doing some work in different sections of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hinrichs received a telegram Saturday announcing the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Janke of Tacoma, Wash. Mrs. Janke was formerly Miss Wiedrick.

Mrs. Isaac Jeffries and Mrs. W. F. Andrews left Thursday for a visit in Spokane. Mrs. Andrews will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ham, who is a well-known vocalist of the inland city.

At the meeting of the county court last week the Hydro Electric Company submitted a bid to light the court house for $2 a month. A bid of $1.50 was submitted by the Hood River Gas & Electric Company.

J. M. Culbertson, Sherman Frank and A. Whitehead were among the visitors in Portland the last of the week. While there Mr. Culbertson visited the new Multnomah hotel and describes it as the most elegantly furnished and attractive that he has ever seen.

Citizens who have not registered this year are not entitled to sign candidates' nomination petitions, according to a letter just received by County Clerk Hanson from District Attorney Wilson. Those who have not registered since 1910 are not entitled to sign such petitions.

Word received here from Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wallace is to the effect that they are now in Cologne, Germany, where they are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Harold Koenemann. They state that they greatly enjoyed the journey to Cologne and expect to remain there until spring, when they will return here.

County Assessor Wickham went to Salem yesterday to attend a meeting of the state assessors and the state tax commission. Matters of importance relating to the assessment of property for the year 1912 will be considered as well as proposed legislation. It will be followed by a meeting of the Assessors' Association.

According to the Mosler Bulletin, C. H. Leiton, who has charge of the construction work of the Pacific Power & Light Co., moved his gang of workmen from Rowena into Mosler last week. Mr. Leiton stated that the wires would be strung into town within a week and that the company would then be ready to furnish electricity to those whose buildings are wired.

Reymund Early was home from the University of Oregon visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Early, over the week end.

Mrs. L. F. Henderson and daughter, Miss Constance, entertained the West Side Bridge Club very pleasantly Saturday afternoon.

Robert R. Carter is moving into the house formerly occupied by W. T. Sheldon adjoining the McCann property on the west side.

Dr. Locke, the Portland surgeon, came up Saturday evening and performed three operations at the hospital, returning Sunday afternoon.

Seven-room house for sale on Eighth street. Lot 100x90. Nice home. Quick sale at $1300, one-half or less cash. Reed & Henderson Inc.*

Asa and Frank Cutler, accompanied by their sister, Miss Lucy, returned the last of the week from Portland, where they spent part of the winter.

Misses Margaret Nickelsen and Ruth Klissel, who are convalescing from appendicitis, were able to return to their homes from the hospital Saturday.

St. Mark's Guild will give a silver tea tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. D. Gould from 3 to 5 p. m. The ladies will welcome all of their friends.

Rev. H. O. Perry of Sunnyside, Wash., was in the city this week in connection with his duties as district superintendent of The Dalles district of the M. E. church.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kimball returned Monday from Corvallis, where they attended the short course. Fordham Kimball will return the last of the week.

R. B. Collis, representing the Hardie Manufacturing Company, was in the city the first of the week demonstrating the spraying machine for the Gilbert Implement Company.

D. J. Cooper of The Dalles, who has announced that he is a candidate for the nomination for state senator, was in the city the first of the week meeting old friends and making new ones.

Mrs. George Wissinger arrived last week to visit her sister, Mrs. Charles A. Bell, at the Mt. Hood hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bower of Portland and their daughter Stella are visiting at the home of their son, Virgil Bower.

S. Adler, who came out from New York to take charge of the eighth grade, has resigned his position and left for the East Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Starrett and Mr. and Mrs. William R. Davidson were in town from Van Horn Friday evening to attend the dance.

W. A. Barrett, Alfred C. Schmitt and O. A. Archibald, business men of Albany, were here the last of the week looking over the valley.

Charles Lage, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, was in a critical condition the last of the week, but danger is now past and he is reported on the road to recovery.

J. C. Skinner, formerly secretary of the local Commercial Club, has returned from a four months' trip through the East and in Southern California in the interests of the Palmer Bucket Company and the Davidson Fruit Company.

Among those from here registered at Portland hotels the last of the week were the following: Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Davidson, Fred W. Wasson and Arthur McCreery at the Portland; C. K. Marshall at the Portland and W. B. Dickson at the Seward.

Secretary Kauffman of the Commercial Club has received word from Randall R. Howard of Portland saying that he has been commissioned to write an article for the Sunset-Pacific Monthly which will describe Mt. Hood from the standpoint of the tourist and the Mt. Hood trip. A number of photographs and descriptive literature were sent to Mr. Howard.

Olives, Sweet Pickles

Sour Pickles, Dill Pickles

Chow-Chow

Sweet Relish Mince Meat

Sauer Kraut

Dates Dried Peaches

Dried Apricots, Dried Apples

Fresh Eastern Oysters

All new and fresh at...

THE STAR GROCERY

"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"

PERIGO & SON

Mrs. George Wissinger arrived last week to visit her sister, Mrs. Charles A. Bell, at the Mt. Hood hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bower of Portland and their daughter Stella are visiting at the home of their son, Virgil Bower.

S. Adler, who came out from New York to take charge of the eighth grade, has resigned his position and left for the East Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Starrett and Mr. and Mrs. William R. Davidson were in town from Van Horn Friday evening to attend the dance.

W. A. Barrett, Alfred C. Schmitt and O. A. Archibald, business men of Albany, were here the last of the week looking over the valley.

Charles Lage, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, was in a critical condition the last of the week, but danger is now past and he is reported on the road to recovery.

J. C. Skinner, formerly secretary of the local Commercial Club, has returned from a four months' trip through the East and in Southern California in the interests of the Palmer Bucket Company and the Davidson Fruit Company.

Among those from here registered at Portland hotels the last of the week were the following: Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Davidson, Fred W. Wasson and Arthur McCreery at the Portland; C. K. Marshall at the Portland and W. B. Dickson at the Seward.

Secretary Kauffman of the Commercial Club has received word from Randall R. Howard of Portland saying that he has been commissioned to write an article for the Sunset-Pacific Monthly which will describe Mt. Hood from the standpoint of the tourist and the Mt. Hood trip. A number of photographs and descriptive literature were sent to Mr. Howard.

Olives, Sweet Pickles

Sour Pickles, Dill Pickles

Chow-Chow

Sweet Relish Mince Meat

Sauer Kraut

Dates Dried Peaches

Dried Apricots, Dried Apples

Fresh Eastern Oysters

All new and fresh at...

THE STAR GROCERY

"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"

PERIGO & SON

PIERIAN CLASS TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENT FEB. 23

An entertainment under the auspices of the Pierian Class will be given on Friday evening, Feb. 23, at the Methodist church. The program is in the hands of Mrs. Louise Boyden, who is well known in Hood River as a finished elocutionist and whose programs are always much enjoyed. Mrs. Boyden will render several choice selections and will be assisted by a few of her pupils, Mrs. A. L. Carmichael, humorous, Miss Alberta Staten, piano, Miss Gretchen Calkins and the little humorist, Alice Taylor. Miss Jennie Edgington and Miss Terinda Cooper will assist with the music, as will also the popular baritone, August Jensen. The program will be altogether a very pleasing one.

For quantity, any bread will do. For quality, only Log Cabin Bread. For sale at A. C. Staten Grocery and Bragg Mercantile Co.*

ROBERT T. NEWHALL OPENS AN OFFICE DOWNTOWN

Robt. T. Newhall has taken desk room with G. Y. Edwards & Co. in the Hotel Oregon building and plans to carry on his nursery business on a larger scale than heretofore, especially along the line of ornamental trees and shrubs. Leo M. Thelen will handle that side of the business, having had considerable practice as a landscape gardener in the east. He has found his services considerably in demand, both in Hood River and at White Salmon, where he proved himself a practical worker and adviser in the beautifying of home grounds for permanent effects.

Chest pains and a dry, hacking cough should be treated with Ballard's Horehound Syrup taken internally, and a Herrick's Red Pepper Porous Plaster applied to the chest. Buy the dollar size Horehound Syrup; you get a porous plaster free with each bottle. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.*

DO YOU KNOW

That it is unsanitary and dangerous to have your washing and ironing done in a closed room in which there has been sleeping or cooking. All the foul odors or germs are attracted to the clothes when in a heated condition.

Our plant is free from these conditions, being large, light and airy and we use nothing but soap and pure soft water for cleansing, returning your clothes to you in a clean and sweet condition. Try us once and be a customer forever. Phone 123

HOOD RIVER LAUNDRY CO.

ELECTRIC RADIANT TOASTERS

Only $4.50

Come and see us before you buy Heating and Cooking Utensils elsewhere. You can save money...

Electric Wiring & Supply Co.

A. L. DAY, President J. M. GEIGER, Vice Pres. and Manager

Under First National Bank Building PHONE 3

ONE UNIT COSTS $500

You may pay cash. The easiest terms are $50 down and $10 per month. You can surely save that much. You are guaranteed 5 per cent from the start. When all the orchard is bearing the dividends will be several times the guarantee. Find out about

The Hood River Unit Orchard

CENTRAL ORCHARD CO. - Phone 161-M. - Oak & 3rd Sts.

White Galatea 15c Yard

Last Week of WHITE SALE

White Crepe 15c Yard

This has been a Real White Sale Ask your neighbor about it. Come before the week is out

All White Goods at Sale Prices Now

New Goods

Our 1912 Spring Lines are coming in every day now, the new designs are certainly beautiful, and the prices will help cut down the High Cost of Living.

We take pleasure in showing

New Spring Coats and Suits Strictly Tailored, and Right in Style and Price

New Spring Suitings

Beautiful Pastel shades in soft wool Suitings, double Faced Cloths, Cream Serges and Worsteds :: ::

New Silks and Mercerized Goods

New Zephyrs, Gingham and Galateas

Ask to see the new French Challis at 45c

Advertised in Portland stores for 65 cents

Bragg Mercantile Co.

True-To-Name Nursery

Wishes to announce that they have only a few thousand of those guaranteed trees left. Better order now before it's too late. Address, TRUE-TO-NAME NURSERY, Phone 2002-K Hood River, Ore.

Clarence the bowels and strengthen the liver by using Herbine. It is a fine liver stimulant and bowel regulator. Price 50c. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.*

SPECIAL MISSION FURNITURE

We are prepared to make to order almost anything in specially designed Mission Furniture and solicit your order for anything you want made in that line. To keep our men and machines busy we will make special low prices for February and March. We also make Finishing Lumber for your house.

J. M. WRIGHT & CO.

Phone 306-X Hood River, Oregon

