WOULD TAFT BE A GRACEFUL LOSER?

His Friends Believe He Could Meet Defeat and Still Smile.

How does President Taft view his own chances for re-election? If the fortunes of the campaign should go against him, would he be a good loser? Can he stand the gaff without his future being embittered? These are questions being asked by Americans, who love the National game of politics and take interest in it. Nothing is more uncertain than this same game and if the tide should go against the republicans and land a democrat in office, would the big fellow in the White House still smile? President Taft's supporters do not expect anything of that sort to happen, but they believe he is a good loser, basing this opinion on his past actions and what he has said whenever the subject has been brought up. He must realize that, holding as he does, the biggest job on the Western Hemisphere, many others have their eyes fixed on the same high place and the interests, which always seek to control the government, are ceaseless in their efforts to place a man favorable to them in the presidential chair. Knowing then the uncertainty of politics and the traditional ingratitude of republics, President Taft has spoken of just such a contingency. He spoke directly to the point on this matter when he said: "I am very grateful for the honors the people have given me. I do not affect to deny the satisfaction I should feel, if, after casting up the totals, pro and con, and striking a balance, they should decide that my first term had been fruitful enough of good to warrant their giving me another. Any man would be proud of such a verdict, but I have not been willing, nor shall I be, to purchase it at a sacrifice of my freedom to do my duty as I see it. My happiness is not dependent upon any office and I shall go back to private life with no heartburnings, if the people, after an unprejudiced review of my administration, conclude that someone else can serve them to their greater advantage. "The truth is that political considerations have not weighed heavily with me. I have tried to do in each case what seemed to me the wisest thing, regardless of its effect upon my future. Indeed, in more than one case I have been perfectly conscious whose bad blood would be stirred by some act of mine, or some refusal to act. The circumstance that some persons who hail me after one application of equal justice, as a far seeing, conservative patriot, denounce me after the next, as an unreasoning radical, does not greatly disturb my equality. I set that down as all in the day's work."

PRESIDENT TAFT

TAFT MONEY OFFERED Bet Makes Big President Odds-On Favorite. The wager recently offered in New York of $5000 to $4000, that the president will be re-elected if nominated, seems to show that somebody has considerable confidence in the return of the president's administration to power. Somebody with $5000 believes that Bill Taft can come back. Money talks and some of the enthusiastic backers of Mr. La Follette, Colonel Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson ought to come to the front and take the short end of this bet. As a sporting proposition, this is a good bet, even if he loses, but the fact that there are no takers as yet speaks eloquently. The east, which necessarily gets a clearer view of the president and a more intimate knowledge of his work, from being closer to him, is evidently pretty well satisfied with President Taft and believes he will be re-elected. The bet will be allowed to stand for some time, it is reported, waiting for some courageous enemy of the administration to come to the front with his $4000.
