OAK GROVE

Miss Jennie Hall spent Sunday at the ranch of her brother, J. E. Hall.

Chas. Rathbun has been out on his ranch the past week doing his spring pruning. He was accompanied by his wife.

J. W. Church of Walla Walla spent Sunday at the ranch of Chas. Albright, his father-in-law. His two children Donald and Dorothy, who came with him, will remain for some time.

Don't forget the meeting which will be held in the Oak Grove Hall next Tuesday afternoon when the organization of the new improvement club will be discussed. G. I. Sargent will give a talk on "Pruning."

The patriotic program given by the pupils of the Oak Grove school Tuesday evening was very good indeed and the large crowd felt well repaid. Supt. Thompson, who was present, was unostentatious in his praise.

FRANKTON

Miss Lena Baker and Miss Alma Absten visited at the home of F. M. Slavin in Hood River Sunday.

Dan Malaer had a tumor removed from his ear Saturday. His ear has been troubling him for nearly two years.

Mrs. George Stokoe and daughter Vivian of Wyeth have been guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Noble, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCustian entertained a few of their friends Friday evening. Light refreshments were served and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

The Washington's Birthday program rendered by the Frankton school Friday afternoon was splendid. The Columbia School County Superintendent Thompson and a large number of the parents were present to hear the program.

CENTRAL VALE

Miss Ruth Clark of Odell spent Sunday with Miss Mary Sheppard.

Mrs. Kingwell of Eugene visited with Paul Hansen's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen entertained the Card Club Saturday night.

Miss Laura Turner and friend of Hood River visited in Central Vale Sunday.

Miss Bessie Johnson visited with Mrs. Joe Vannier of Pine Grove last week.

Last Sunday Miss Gertrude Hansen left for Eugene, where she will make an extended visit.

W. A. Durham's father, a stock dealer of eastern Oregon, is making an extended visit in Central Vale.

A few of the young people gave a farewell party to Miss Gertrude Hansen at the Sheppard home Saturday night.

Last Sunday a crowd of prospective buyers were out looking over the B. Wuth place now owned by W. E. Vaughn, editor of The Pacific Christian Advocate.

W. D. Lasley and family left for their home in Portland so as to be near friends and medical attention for their small son who was first thought to have typhoid fever, but which later proved not to be. Mr. Lasley came to Central Vale last fall for the health of his children.

PARKDALE

M. Kajikawa, a local Japanese contractor, has a team of horses that possesses the characteristics of another known steed, and that is straying from home. Recently they strayed and the Jap started off in search of them, and running breathlessly up to Deacon Goodlander he exclaimed, "You see 'em, you see 'em?" Goodlander thought at first the

The PARIS FAIR THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY

Jap had been indulging in too much Oriental red ink and consequently was "seeing things," but it finally dawned upon him what the Jap was driving at. "Oh! yes," said Goodlander.

"Go up to the Jap's corner, then go east to Hay and Weisel's, then south to Babson's, then east and you will come to the U. C. M. ranch." During the past season extensive additions have been made to the winter prison, although there have been fewer inmates retained than ever before, a fact that would cause one to believe the world was growing better; but not so the warden, who declares the reason is because so many went east and to California for the winter.

The entertainment committee of the Progressive Association on Saturday evening, March 2, in Gribble's hall, Mt. Hood, will Pitt Parker against all other crayon artists as a laugh extractor. They claim his color effects and landscapes are not only works of art, but invariably arouse great enthusiasm because of rapidity, novelty and accuracy in expression. The artistic colored paintings by Mr. Parker are unquestionably superior to any made by other platform artists, and because of his absolute lack of the so-called artistic temperament, the audience is never bored by the process.

O. A. C. UNDERTAKES TO PREVENT THE FRUIT SPOT

Oregon Agricultural College.—Two experts of the Oregon Agricultural College, F. G. Bailey of the plant pathology department and F. C. Bradford of the division of horticulture, went to Salem Friday to begin preliminary investigation work on the apple fruit spot problem, which they will study thoroughly from the viewpoint of both horticulturist and pathologist.

EXPERIMENT LEAGUE IS STUDYING THE BUD MOTH

Oregon Agricultural College.—The members of the Oregon Agricultural Experiment League are studying the bud moth, to discover the most satisfactory methods of spraying for the pest. The custom among orchard men is to spray in the spring for this pest, but satisfactory results are not always obtained.
