UNDERWOOD

Mrs. Lowden has been in Portland for several weeks.

Donald Lowden is a student at the Portland Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hussey recently spent a week in Portland.

Mrs. Packard was a passenger for Portland on the local last Wednesday.

A Good Roads Association was organized on the flat, with Henry K. Love president and P. I. Packard secretary and treasurer.

Our new road supervisor, W. F. Cash, has had a force of men busy repairing the roads and is putting in a new 50-foot bridge on the Larsen road.

The Underwood livery barn has been purchased by Bruce Ariss and Herman Freidrich, who took charge March 1. Fred Luthey, Frank Johnson and P. Sorenson will remain with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, with Miss Brooks, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cooper while their handsome new bungalow overlooking the Columbia river is being completed.

CASCADE LOCKS

Garden planting is now the order of the day.

Mrs. Dittbrandt has returned from Portland, where she has been on business.

Mrs. Chas. Olin was in Hood River last week having some dental work done.

Allen O. Adams, Jr., spent last week with his brother at Underwood, Wash.

Mrs. Chas Swanson and infant daughter have returned from a ten days' visit at Tacoma, Wash.

H. S. Adams and daughter, Hazel, of Underwood, Wash., spent last Sunday with his parents here.

Birthday parties are popular just now. About a dozen ladies surprised Mrs. L. S. Collins on the occasion of her anniversary recently.

The pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. H. C. Clark, and wife spent last Sunday in Carson, Wash., it being the regular date for services at that place.

It is reported that the Wind River Lumber Company will start the mill running about March 15th. The planer, which has been in operation for several weeks, shut down this week until the mill resumes its regular running schedule.

Randall W. States of Stevenson, Wash., made a flying trip here on business one day this week. His many friends here are glad to note that he has recovered so remarkably from the severe accident which he sustained last fall.

The birthday of the principal of the public school was very pleasantly observed by the pupils of the school on Friday last, the scholars taking part in an impromptu program. Prof. Myers responded to the ovation by reciting several dialect stories.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. A. O. Adams on Thursday afternoon and was well attended, thirty-two ladies being present. A delightful musical program was rendered by Mrs. Will Ash and Miss Esther Coke, after which refreshments were served.

PINE GROVE

Miss Zena Miller spent the week end at Pine Grove.

We are glad to report that Mr. Slade is improving rapidly.

Miss Abbie Mills was a visitor at the Lage home over Sunday.

Mr. Scott of the west side was a guest at the Mason home the first of the week.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Dragseth Friday afternoon of this week.

A number of Pine Groveites attended the Shriners' ball in Hood River Friday evening.

Miss Bertha Godbersson of The Dalles spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Miss Anna.

Wm. Starrett was taken seriously ill with gall stone trouble in Hood River Friday night, but is very much better and was able to be brought home Tuesday.

Mr. Austin and family, who have been living on the Dickerson and Peck place for some time past, left for Underwood last week.

Special Hosiery Week

This Special Sale Will Start Friday Morning, Mar. 8, and Continue One Week

We have recently placed in stock a New Line of Hosiery, and in order to introduce them and also to close out some broken lines that we have on hand, we are going to make a special cut for one week on each and every pair of Hose we have in the store for men, women and children. This will mean a saving in the line of Hosiery from 10 to 50% Be on hand and supply yourself with what Hose you will need for the summer. (THE NEW SPRING STOCK IS INCLUDED AT THESE SPECIAL PRICES.) We carry a very extensive line of Hosiery and sell them at most moderate prices regularly, as our old customers can testify, as we do not mark our goods "up" and then "down" to make it appear as though the reduction was greater. You can depend upon the Quality being the best you ever had for the money. Read the following descriptions and you will get some idea of what we are doing. Then be sure and come in and you will realize that everything that we say in this ad is a fact.

WUNDER HOSE

This is the only line of Hose in our entire stock that is not offered you at a reduction. These being contract goods we cannot cut the price. HART SCHAFFNER & MARX SUITS for spring now on display. They are surely all right.

The funeral of Charles Frederick Lage was held at the Pine Grove church Saturday at 11 a. m. The church was filled to overflowing with his many sorrowing friends. A quartet composed of Mrs. Deem, Miss Hunt and Messrs. Waugh and Peter Mohr sang "It Is Well With My Soul," "Looking Beyond" and "Nearer, Still Nearer." Mrs. Deem sang the solo, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." Rev. Hershner, assisted by Rev. C. M. Carson, officiated. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The pall bearers were Walter Vannier, Alphonse Mohr, Willie Clark, Carl Johnson, Frank Dethman and Forrest Kingdon. Charley was born and raised in Pine Grove and will be very much missed by the old as well as young people.

Miss Clara Abshere entertained Miss Madie Jones and her schoolmates the evening before the latter left Pine Grove to make her home in Underwood.

Miss Nina Redfield spent the past week visiting with her many friends in Pide Grove. The Redfields expect to move from Willow Flat to Centralia the last of this month.

The two Myers boys of the west side have taken up their residence for the present in Pine Grove. They will be a welcome addition to the young people here.

Mrs. Riddell and grandson, Riddell Lage, who have been visiting at the home of Dr. C. H. Jenkins in Hood River, returned to the home of E. E. Lage Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Henderson of Bingen, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Koberg and daughter Lena and many friends from Hood River and other parts of the valley attended the Lage funeral Saturday.

The revival meetings at the Pine Grove church will continue throughout the entire week. Mr. Carson is very ably assisted by Miss Edith Waterman of Massachusetts. An evangelistic singer is expected this week to assist with the music. To those who have not heard Miss Waterman it can be said that they cannot afford to miss a single one of her talks, for they are educational, inspiring and uplifting. No one can hear her and not be bettered.

OAK GROVE

F. B. Cram and family have moved into their new log bungalow.

Everet Hall and family were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hall.

Dr. Stanton Allen of the east side was present at the meeting last Tuesday.

Miss Jennie Kennedy of Rrookeville, Pa., is visiting her nephew, John Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. King came up from Portland to spend Saturday at their ranch and Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ravelin.

Si Perkins was very painfully injured last week by being severely kicked by one of his horses. Si is now hobbling around on crutches.

There will be a vote taken on March 11th to decide on the location of the new schoolhouse and disposal of the old building. The bonds for $20,000 for the new schoolhouse have been sold and Mr. Sutton elected architect.

It was the sentiment of the Improvement Club that the mail man be retained by all means and it is up to those who haven't helped pay him to "come through." Mr. Sargent has charge of the work and remittances should be made to him.

Chas. Albright celebrated one of his leap year birthdays last Thursday evening, when he claimed he was only 14. Some of the neighbors were his guests and a very enjoyable evening was spent. H. Way Irwin made a most efficient toastmaster.

At a very enthusiastic meeting of the ranchers of the Oak Grove, Barrett and Frankton districts, held at the Oak Grove hall last Friday afternoon, the new West Side Improvement Club was organized, its purpose being to meet the first Tuesday of each month to hear talks on subjects of interest and to discuss same. R. H. Wallace was elected president; Geo. I. Sargent, vice-president; Geo. C. Gladen, secretary and treasurer; C. W. Hooker, chairman of the program committee; Albert Sutton, chairman of the improvement committee; special membership committee, Messrs. McCurdy, Knight and Smith. A very interesting paper on "Pruning" was then read by Mr. Sargent, following which was a good discussion on the subject. About 60 ranchers were present.

Secure your reserved seats to the big minstrels at Heilbronner hall. Seats on sale at Clarke's drug store.

Don't fail to see the new Spring hats on display at Gibson Sisters. When in need of printing remember the News.

☐ We are also prepared to make special detailed Mouldings—any quantity.

☐ Veniered Brackets and Band Saw Work.

☐ We make House Finishing a specialty—including Mouldings of any detail.

☐ We have just received a car load of A No. 1 kiln dried Yellow Fir Lumber from which the most beautiful grain can be selected for furniture building and house finishing.

☐ We have undertaken to establish a Sash and Door Mill in Hood River, which will be of great benefit to the town and valley as well as to furnish employment to a number of men. If we can get the patronage we can make it go—if we can't, it will be a failure of course. We are not asking the town and the people to subscribe stock or to donate funds to establish our business, as has been suggested for other lines of manufacturing. We simply ask for the business (in our line) that you are going elsewhere for; and we will make a success of our business and thereby be of some benefit to the town and valley.
