Barrett, East Barrett and Oak Grove, expects to arrange for another good live meeting for May, so keep an eye open for notices.

Miss Nell Shelley will give a recital, consisting of readings, monologues, vocal and instrumental music, at the Oak Grove hall Friday evening, April 12, at 8 o'clock.

George Gladen is installing a new water system by which he expects to furnish water for his own and the English ranches.

The electric light poles are to be installed west from the store to J. L. Miller's and the line put up in the near future.

W. E. King has extended his attractive rustic fence further along the road and it looks fine.

The special Easter services at the Oak Grove church were enjoyed by all of the overflowing attendance.

WINANS CITY

April weather finds all the apple ranchers busy in their orchards, while the young folks have already begun to visit the Devil's Punch Bowl, near Winans' summer resort.

W. H. Brown has been one of the busiest men improving the "Hebrew Land," better known as Thos. J. Collins' old orchard. Mr. Brown is an expert orchardist and deserves credit for the pruning and the change he has made in the old orchard. He has also set out several hundred young trees.

Mr. Vanderlip and his father-in-law, Mr. Nickelsen, are busy slashing and getting ready for clearing their new ranch.

Mr. Charles, under the instruction of Mr. Wilson, is getting the Littlefield ranch in good cultivation.

Mr. Rountree, below the Orchard City Ranch, is one of the busy ones.

Mr. Westberg, foreman of the Hood River Fruit Growing Co., is busy on his orchard, plowing, pruning and spraying.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornhillson are preparing to move from the "Hebrew Synagogue" to Dec, where he will be employed by the Oregon Lumber Co.

Great improvements have been made on the Fred S. Holsten ranch, now called the Orchard City Ranch, by the manager, G. N. Wilson of Burlington, Iowa. He has treated the house to a new coat of paint and improved the premises until Mr. Holsten won't know his own place when he arrives in May. Mr. Wilson is now busy clearing 20 acres for young trees.

J. Blaine Gordon, the contractor, will break up camp and leave for Portland next week.

Winans City and vicinity in the near future will be the garden spot of Hood River Valley. The April sunshine now seems to smile most favorably upon it.

CENTRAL VALE

A supper will be given at the schoolhouse Saturday night, April 13. The proceeds will be added to the Encyclopedia fund. A good supper will be served beginning at 6:30 and continuing until all are served. Every one may come from their work, be served immediately, meet their neighbors and have a good social time. A bonfire will be on the school grounds and after supper all may indulge in games either indoors or outdoors.

Miss Gertrude Hansen, who is in Eugene, is very ill with scarlet fever. Her mother is with her but expects to return as soon as she can leave Gertrude.

Many of Mrs. Waterbury's friends here will be sorry to hear of her death. She died at Estacada where they were living.

Walter Mehans spent the week end with friends at Pine Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McCaulay have returned to their home in Central Vale. Mr. McCaulay's brother came to spend the summer here.

Mrs. George Scarlett entertained the Embroidery Club last week.

F. M. McKittrick expects his sister from Portland this week to make them a visit.

Edward Cherry has left for Idaho

ODELL

Geo. Atkinson of Washington, formerly of Odell, was here for a short visit during the week. He returned home Sunday accompanied by his sister, Miss Hattie, who has been attending school here.

The Easter services held here Sunday were largely attended and a very good program was rendered.

C. R. Martz arrived from Woodburn Saturday. He expects to work here during the summer.

Next Friday evening Mrs. Ferguson's Sunday School class will meet at Mrs. Ferguson's home. The meeting will consist of the regular business meeting and a reception to the 21 new members of the class.

G. G. Hagey has sold his team to Mont Mapes and has bought a heavier team from G. F. Purdy and L. D. Boyd.

A. L. McCaulay has moved his family from Eugene, where they have been for the winter, to his home near Odell.

James Trunkey commenced work Monday morning for Purdy & Chapman as a deliveryman.

On Tuesday, April 23, the bachelors of Odell are to give an entertainment. They expect to make it clear to the general public why there are so many bachelors hereabouts.

Last Friday night a number of the young people met at the home of J. E. Ferguson and officially organized the Epworth League. They elected the following officers: Pres., Mrs. J. E. Ferguson; 1st vice-pres., H. Sylvester; 2nd vice-pres., Ruth Clark; 3d vice-pres., Thomas Cameron; 4th vice-pres., Mary Shepperd; sec., Donald Black; treas., Mrs. C. C. Chapman.

VALLEY CREST

George Blodgett has returned home after spending the winter in the lower valley.

Elmer P. Adams and daughters left Tuesday for Long Beach, Wash., where they will spend the summer with relatives.

Messrs. Stone and Marshall of Trout Creek were callers in this vicinity Sunday.

Mrs. Pierronett returned to her ranch Wednesday after spending the winter in Portland.

Walter Green, who has returned from the East, is preparing to begin work on his ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thompson were callers in Hood River last week.

George Dimblek of Hood River and A. B. Combs of Portland were calling in the neighborhood Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wood of Portland have been visiting at the Homer Roger's home the past week. Mr. Wood is Professor of Social Ethics in the Reed College.

WHITE SALMON

George and Fred Purser have bought the Advance Lumber Co. mill of Walter Freedland and will start operations shortly.

B. E. Duncan of Hood River took a party of prospectors to Camas valley this week on a land prospecting trip. It was the first through auto trip of the season.

A. B. Olson of Lyle, Minnesota, has purchased 20 acres of the I. N. Williams place. Not only that, but he became so well pleased with the country and its prospects that he says he will buy 20 acres more and has sent to Minnesota for his wife.

The old house on the Geo. Smith place three miles up the valley was burned to the ground last Sunday noon. While G. W. Murphy, the renter, was at the spring fire broke in the upper part of the house and had gained so much headway by the time he returned that all he could save of the contents was the clothing and a trunk.

Site No. 3 is now being prospected by the Northwestern for its proposed dam on the White Salmon. First the Narrows was selected and a lot of money spent trying to locate bed-rock on the east side of the river. Not finding ideal conditions they moved up to the old bridge back of the Cameron farm and have done considerable sluicing, besides drilling the bed of the river for its formation. In the past few days they have moved up about 1500 feet to "The Jaws," a rock canyon measuring about 70 feet at its base.

CASCADE LOCKS

One of the long-needed improvements to our village is at last to become a reality. A new sidewalk is to be built from the hall to the depot and the funds for the purpose are to be raised at once. Mrs. H. C. Levy is at the head of the movement.

A new porch and coat of paint makes the front of Tom Badder's store look very much better and adds to the appearance of our business section.

Miss Edith Waterman, a deaconess evangelist, was at the Methodist church for a few days conducting a series of evangelistic services.

The Easter sale conducted on Saturday afternoon by the Ladies' Aid Society was a financial success and was largely patronized by townspeople.

Many new faces are seen on our streets as the result of the starting up of the mill.

Easter Sunday was observed in an appropriate manner at the Methodist church. A notable feature of the day was the session of the Sabbath school, which was largely attended and a very liberal offering made by the scholars.

What might have been an exceedingly serious conflagration occurred in the store of Tom Badder last week. The fire is thought to have been caused by a cigarette which was thrown in a box of sawdust and smoldered all night. As it was, no great damage was done other than burning a hole in the floor and badly charring a part of the counter.

Mrs. Alice Hewitt has returned from Lexington, where she has been spending some time with her brother, who has been seriously ill.

Chas. Wickland spent several days in Portland the past week.
