

Spring House Cleaning Days

Call for NEW CURTAIN MATERIALS, DRAPERIES, BED SPREADS, BEDDING, Etc.; We Have Just Received a Big Lot Embracing Marshall Field & Co.'s Newest Ideas

Wm Anderson Topham
MADE IN SCOTLAND

is well known to women in every part of the Globe because for generations it has been the WORLD'S STANDARD wash fabric sold by high class dry-goods stores everywhere.

We have just received direct from the looms at Glasgow, Scotland, a fascinating assortment of these goods and are showing them at

This Book Free

25c to 35c a yard

This is a little picture of the new Book of Fashions just published by William Anderson & Co. It contains 29 large drawings (5 in colors) of the best and latest styles for wash costumes for women, misses and children, especially designed for William Anderson & Co. by the greatest fashion authority in America.

We will be pleased to give one of these books to any lady asking for it at our Wash Goods Counter

Curtain Swiss, - 15c to 50c
Fancy Drapery, - 12½c to 75c
Plain Nets, - - 25c to 75c

Bed Spreads, - 75c to $4.90
Blankets - - 50c to $12.00
Comforts - - 95c to $4.90

Clothes May Not Make The Man, but it Would Take a Pretty Keen Fellow to Be a Success Without Them

You have to dress well. You have to wear good clothes, well cut and skilfully tailored. You expect to pay a fair price, but you expect service and style and there's where we shine. Every suit in our store carries a fair price and guarantees you full satisfaction. PRICED $15 to $25.

We Ask You to See Our Suits for 1912

BRANDEGEE KINCAID & CO.
CLOTHES.

FRANK A. CRAM

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Roy Firebaugh of Portland visited here Friday.

Miss Blanche Main left Friday for a trip to Denver, Colo.

George T. Prather took a trip to Portland the last of the week.

Mrs. L. F. Henderson spent a couple of days the last of the week in Portland.

C. L. Callerate of Portland was here the last of the week inspecting his ranch.

Miss Anna Heath went to Portland Friday to spend the Easter season with friends.

Hance Doll left Friday for Crisfield, Kan., called there by the serious illness of his father.

Mrs. J. T. Thompson and little son Teddy spent the week end with friends in Portland.

V. C. Waggener of Vancouver, Wash., visited his father, James Waggener, Jr., here last week.

We still have left a few more of the birds-eye view maps of Hood River Valley. Hood River News Co.*

F. J. Patterson came from Portland the last of the week to inspect his ranch.

Mrs. W. G. Parmelee returned from her winter's stay in the East the last of the week.

Robert Livingstone of Portland was inspecting his ranch here the last of the week.

E. H. Wheeler of Portland came to the valley Sunday to inspect his ranch at Summit.

The Sans Souci Club will meet with Mrs. Robert Perigo tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon.

L. F. Morris returned Sunday from Southern California where he has been on a three-weeks' trip.

Mrs. A. I. Mason and son, Floyd, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wiley at The Dalles.

George F. Coe, one of the old residents of the city, is seriously ill at his home on Sherman Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fleurnoy arrived from Los Angeles Monday to visit at the home of Julian P. Scott.

Miss Bella Steele of Mt. Hood has returned from college at Forest Grove to spend her Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Archibald and Miss Mabel E. Billings of Portland were weekend guests of L. H. Goodenberger.

Mrs. W. B. McCrory, who has been undergoing treatment at the local hospital, was able to return to her home Sunday.

I. C. Sanford and O. M. Scott were among the Portlanders interested in apple lands here who attended the meeting Saturday.

Miss Helen Davidson came from Portland, where she is attending school, the last of the week to spend Easter with her parents.

Mrs. P. M. Morse and two children, who have been visiting relatives in Eugene and Portland for several weeks, returned Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe E. Miller of the Odell district are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter Sunday morning.

E. F. Heath, a former resident, was here from Grants Pass the last of the week to inspect his ranch south of Tucker's bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Winter are having plans prepared for a unique bungalow. They are planning to build on Columbia street.

The annual meeting of St. Mark's Guild will be held on Friday, April 12, at the residence of Mrs. Gould. At this meeting the annual election of officers will take place and a large attendance is urged.

At the meeting of the county court last week bids for the construction of a wooden bridge over the west fork of Hood River were rejected, it being the opinion of the court that they were too high.

Mr. and Mrs. John Van Dellen came from The Dalles the last of the week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Huggins. Mr. Van Dellen took a business trip to Portland Monday, leaving Mrs. Van Dellen here for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carpenter entertained a number of Portland young people at a house party over Easter, the guests of honor being Miss Frances Jeffery of Portland and Wendell S. Poisson of Lyle, whose wedding will take place on April 21. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Jeffery, Dr. and Mrs. M. Holbrook, Miss Lola Lind and Ed Jeffery, all of Portland.

Money in hayland. B. E. Duncan.*

Bailey's new Farm and Garden Rule Book and all books embraced in the Rural Science series for sale at Pifer's Book Store.*

The final dance in the series given by the young married people will be held Friday evening. Masks will be worn the first part of the evening.

Mrs. C. Wagner and Miss Meta Eilers returned to Portland Saturday, after having been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Draggeth for a few days.

James and Leo Cram of Primeville visited Frank Cram the last of the week while on their way home after having delivered a carload of stock at Portland.

Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mrs. Duryea of Vancouver, B. C., and Miss Gertrude Dillon were here from Mitchell's Point as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Epping the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Connor have returned from Stanfield, Ore., to spend the summer. Mr. Connor will continue his contract of constructing the sidewalks on the Heights.

Father Plus of the Church of the Immaculate Conception reports that he was much pleased with the devotion shown by his parishioners during the Lenten season and especially during Holy Week.

The annual meeting of St. Mark's Guild will be held on Friday, April 12, at the residence of Mrs. Gould. At this meeting the annual election of officers will take place and a large attendance is urged.

At the meeting of the county court last week bids for the construction of a wooden bridge over the west fork of Hood River were rejected, it being the opinion of the court that they were too high.

Mr. and Mrs. John Van Dellen came from The Dalles the last of the week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Huggins. Mr. Van Dellen took a business trip to Portland Monday, leaving Mrs. Van Dellen here for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carpenter entertained a number of Portland young people at a house party over Easter, the guests of honor being Miss Frances Jeffery of Portland and Wendell S. Poisson of Lyle, whose wedding will take place on April 21. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Jeffery, Dr. and Mrs. M. Holbrook, Miss Lola Lind and Ed Jeffery, all of Portland.

Money in hayland. B. E. Duncan.*

If you want anything in the bee line, ask W. W. Dakin; phone 197X.* 15-16

Thomas W. Wickens, who has been pruning at Menominee, accompanied by R. W. Bellamy, spent Sunday at the beach.

A. S. Kelley and wife, former residents of the valley, were visitors in town from Hugum, Wash., the last of the week.

C. H. Stranahan, who is a candidate for the nomination as representative on the Republican ticket, left yesterday morning on a campaigning trip through Wasco and Crook counties.

The Davidson Fruit Company shipped the last of their apples the last of the week. Stocks in the East are said to be decreasing rapidly, on account of rapid consumption, and prospects are bright for a receptive market and good prices for Hood River apples this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Slade and daughter of Hugum, Wash., who have friends here, are spending several weeks in Southern California as guests of Charles Mears of Pasadena. Word received from them is to the effect that they have greatly enjoyed motor trips to the beach resorts and other points of interest to tourists.

R. J. McIsaac has completed the construction of an attractive new warehouse at Mt. Hood, the increased storage facilities being made necessary by Mr. McIsaac's growing business. The building is designed with a view to pleasing the eye and is ornamental as well as useful.

Mrs. A. L. Davies, corner of Ninth and Columbia streets, reports that she has a flock of 51 R. I. Reds which distinguished themselves during the month of March, laying 1243 eggs or an average of nearly 25 apiece. She also reports that during the month she set several of the hens, thus withdrawing them from the laying force.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peugh and daughter, Miss Nettie, who have been spending the winter at Long Beach, Cal., returned the last of the week. They report having spent a delightful winter in the sunny south. While in Long Beach they met a number of former Hood River residents, including Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hamblet, who have a ten-acre place, and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cuning, who have been making an extended stay there. Arthur Maguire, whose brothers are in business here, is also making his home in Long Beach with his family.

Mrs. George Friday is recovering from a badly infected arm.

Tyler Carman returned home Friday from a four months' visit in Middleboro, Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dimmick left yesterday morning to spend several weeks in Fossil, Ore.

J. E. Inglis, a capitalist of Inglis, Ore., was here as the guest of W. H. Eccles the last of the week.

C. Gardener of Alaska, who has extensive property interests in this vicinity, spent several days in the city the last of the week.

During the month of April Rev. J. B. Parsons will deliver a series of sermons at the Frankton schoolhouse and next Sunday his subject will be "Forgotten Facts."

We print our paper MONDAYS and TUESDAYS. Copy required Monday

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Murphy of Portland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bell at the Mt. Hood hotel Sunday.

We are offering as Saturday specials Cudahy Rex hams, 18 cents; Cudahy Diamond C hams, 20 cents; Our Best lard, 5 pounds 70 cents; 10 pounds $1.40. We handle nothing but U. S. Inspected steer beef. Pork and mutton cost you no more than you pay for cow beef elsewhere. McGuire Bros' Market. Phone 4.*

If you eat something which doesn't agree with you, don't let it work its own way through. It's a slow process and makes you feel bad. Get rid of it quickly by taking Herbine. It drives out impurities in the stomach and bowels, and you feel better immediately. Price 50c. For sale by Chas. N. Clarke.*

Announcement...

I desire to announce that I have resumed my Grocery business at the...

Handy Corner Grocery

I have installed a complete line of new goods, all strictly fresh, and will be pleased to meet my old customers as well as to greet new ones, to all of which satisfaction is guaranteed. Give us a trial and we will endeavor to please you.

Hubbard Taylor

Twelfth and Belmont Sts. Hood River, Oregon

GO TO

J. H. HEILBRONNER & CO.

For Real Estate Bargains in Town and Valley

Heilbronner Building

Hood River, Oregon

Something New

We now have a full line of....

Chick Food Oyster Shells
Ground Bone Scratch Food
Rolled Barley Cracked Corn
Wheat Bran & Shorts

And always a complete line of GROCERIES

Smith & Imbler

Free Delivery

Phone 282-L