

WITH CHARITY TO ALL AND MALICE TOWARD NONE

The Up-to-Date Store

Stands for Everything that is Reliable and Progressive

A STORE with modern methods both in buying and selling. A store where you pay reasonable prices for honest goods, but you don't pay for anyone's bills but your own, owing to our cash system of selling. A store where Quality counts for most--where you get more for your money than you expect, but never less than we represent. A store that has grown with Hood River, where we expect to remain during our business career, playing the game according to the best methods we know, always with the aim of pleasing our customers. Of course we won't be able to please everyone, our Savior himself was not able to do that; but any real or fancied wrong can always be adjusted if it is only brought to our notice, for surely it is both a pleasure and good business to have harmony prevail in the transaction of business. We are now ready with a fine new stock of spring Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, etc., and we stand ready to "show you" whether you are ready to buy or just looking.....

Hood River's Agency for
Holeproof Hosiery

FRANK A. CRAM

Agents for Florsheim Shoes
For the Man Who Cares

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Bronson spent Thursday and Friday in Portland.

O. P. Hoff, state labor commissioner, paid Hood River a visit on Friday.

Mrs. E. A. Roberts has arrived from Vancouver, B. C., to visit at her home here.

Mrs. Amos Root and Mrs. James Cherry of Mosier have been recent visitors here.

Mrs. Hendley of Colorado arrived the last of the week to be the guest of Mrs. C. Bird.

Judge P. J. McCrory of Devil's Lake, N. D., has been spending a few days in town.

James Waggener, Jr., left the last of the week to spend a few days at Vancouver, Wash.

E. H. Roper of Portland has come to Hood River to spend the summer with Mrs. Alma Howe.

Miss Josie Eskelson of Portland has been a recent guest at the home of Mrs. W. M. Stauffer.

Mrs. E. H. Shepard spent the week end in Portland.

Mrs. G. L. Emry spent the week end with friends at Mosier.

Mrs. Flora E. Hartley went to Portland Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Hammack.

Charles Hellbroner of Spokane visited his brother, J. H. Hellbroner, here the last of the week.

James T. Barbee, manager of the Champ Clark campaign in Oregon, spent the last of the week here.

Perceval L. Adams left Saturday to accept a position with the Portland Electric Light & Power Company.

A. T. Allen, who has removed to Hartland, Wash., came to Hood River Thursday to spend a few days.

C. L. Rogers, formerly of this city and now of Canby, has been among the recent guests at the Mt. Hood hotel.

T. T. Geer, former governor of Oregon, was here a couple of days ago in the interests of the campaign for Selling.

Money in hay land. B. E. Duncan & Co.

We still have left a few more of the birds-eye view maps of Hood River Valley. Hood River News Co.*

Mrs. E. E. Calkins went to Portland Saturday, called there by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. O. L. Warden.

H. O. Davidson, formerly of this city and now of Portland, was among the visitors in the city the last of the week.

Bailey's new Farm and Garden Rule Book and all books embraced in the Rural Science series for sale at Piper's Book Store.*

Mr. and Mrs. Livingstone and son, Hugh, came from Portland the last of the week to spend a few days at their ranch in the Odell district.

Adam Shortgen of Salem and Harry Beal of Wyeth were here the last of the week making final arrangements preparatory to establishing the convict camp at Shell Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wanser and Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Beale of Tama, Iowa, arrived the last of the week and have been looking over the valley with a view to locating, being very favorably impressed.

City Recorder Howe is indexing the city records, a task which has never before been undertaken and which is now rendered necessary by the constantly increasing volume of the city's business.

W. S. Chapman of Portland, who is interested in the tract north of the O. W. R. & N. tracts, was here recently looking over the land with a view to making some contemplated improvements.

L. E. Bellis of Estacada was here the last of the week in the interests of Clackamas county residents who are agitating for division of that county. They hope to get the proposition on the ballot this fall.

Ex-Congressman Ellis was among the political aspirants who were campaigning here the last of the week, spending two or three days, with headquarters at the Hotel Oregon.

Clyde Paton and Guy Neeley, two 19-year-old youths who say they are going to walk to New York before October 1, were in the city Thursday. They started from Rochester, Wash., on April 1 and are advertising the Seattle-Portland enroute. They walked from Portland here in two days.

O. H. Baker spent Monday in Portland.

Mrs. John Zolls is recovering from a critical illness.

A. I. Mason left on a trip to Pendleton Saturday.

Mrs. E. C. Hansberry of Seaside, Oregon, is making an extended visit with friends here.

Miss Eva Christie of Portland arrived Saturday to spend a couple of days as guest at the home of Newton Clark.

Hood River apples will form part of the menu on the tables of the hotels in Portland when the Elks gather in convention in July. An order has been placed with the Davidson Fruit Company of this city for the fruit, and the finest Red Cheek Pippins grown in the valley have been saved for the occasion.

Frank S. Fields, at present county clerk of Multnomah county and a candidate for nomination on the Republican ticket as Secretary of State, was in the city the last of the week. Mr. Fields has done faithful and efficient work for Multnomah county and will no doubt receive strong support in his candidacy for the higher office.

Hood River students at the University of Oregon who are home for their Easter vacation, which began Friday, include Raymond Early, Georgia Prather, Roger Moe, Florence Avery, Burleigh Cash, Clyde Pattee, Will Cass and Chester Huggins. Mr. Huggins competed in the Columbia meet held Saturday in Portland. Owing to the amount of work to be done at this time on the "Oregonian," of which Karl Onthank is editor, he was unable to spend his vacation here.

New Waists At Half Price

Our FRENCH DRY CLEANING service really costs you less than half of what a new waist would amount to. It's a real economy.

Spaulding & Gessling
Cleaning and Pressing
Basement of Broadway Bldg. Phone 153

Money in hay land. B. E. Duncan & Co.

A 9½ pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Fewell at Powderdale Monday morning.

Dr. E. L. House will occupy the pulpit of the Ashbury M. E. church Sunday morning.

The Mt. Hood Hotel serves a very tasty merchant's lunch every noon for thirty-five cents.*

Alfred T. Allen left for Canon City, Col., Sunday called there by the critical illness of his mother.

Mrs. John C. Spencer arrived from Portland Monday to visit her daughter, Mrs. O. T. Wedemeyer.

L. E. Faust and family, who have been spending the winter in Knoxville, Tenn., returned Sunday.

V. Winchell and daughter, Miss Arline, left Saturday to join friends at The Dalles for a fishing trip up the Deschutes river.

Attorney and Mrs. A. P. Reed expect to leave today to attend the Henderson Caulfield nuptials to be celebrated at Oregon City tomorrow.

Mrs. A. R. Middleton and Mrs. A. M. Klein arrived from Portland last week to visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. C. R. Bone, for some time.

Mrs. T. Ogawa, who lives on the Dwinell ranch, underwent a serious operation at the hospital Saturday evening. She is making a nice recovery.

Cecil McCrory, whose eye was severely injured by a discharge of dynamite, is recovering his sight in the eye, which it was at first feared had been destroyed.

J. H. Moores and Dr. J. E. Anderson, both of The Dalles and both candidates for the nomination as representative, spent part of Friday and Saturday in the city.

V. Winchell is just completing the planting of eleven acres to pears. This will constitute one of the largest blocks of D'Anjou's in the valley. This variety forms the bulk of the planting, with some Patrick Berry pears and enough Bartlett's to act as pollinizers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Coffin entertained a few friends at their home on the East Side Sunday. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. Stanton Allen, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ireland, Mr. and Mrs. Cutler, Miss Cutler and the Messrs. Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dickerson and Miss Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Root, Miss Root and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Deems.

Mrs. Edward Mitchell of Union, Ore., was the guest of J. E. Yowell Sunday.

Enjoy your downtown diners. Get them at the Mt. Hood hotel, 35 cents.*

A baby incubator has been installed in the maternity ward of the hospital this week.

Miss Irene Fewell, who has been ill at the hospital, was able to return home the last of the week.

Mrs. Wilson Fike and Miss Zoe Newman returned the last of the week from a few days' stay in Portland.

Superintendent Frank Wells of the Umatilla county schools will speak at the gathering of county school teachers to be held at Pine Grove on May 1. Superintendent Alderman will also be present.

Lawrence M. Gerdes of this city, who is a student at the O. A. C., has contributed an able article to the April number of the "Commerce-Pharmacy Journal," a magazine published by that institution.

Rev. E. A. Harris is attending the Portland Association of Congregational churches and ministers at Laurelwood church in Portland this week. His part on the program is the discussion of the "Men and Religion" problem.

Representatives of the local Rebbees lodges left yesterday morning to attend the district convention at Dufur. Mrs. William Ganger and Mrs. S. W. Arnold represent Laurel Lodge and Mrs. W. S. Gribble of Mt. Hood Oregon Grape Lodge of that place.

Secretary Scott of the Commercial Club has received from Attorney E. E. Covert of Portland an acceptance in behalf of himself and S. Benson of the invitation to be the guests of honor one day during the blossom festival. They will be in Hood River on Saturday, May 4, which is the day on which the Portland Commercial Club will send a delegation to the city. As Mr. Benson is donor of the $10,000 for the Portland-Hood River road, he will listen to some speeches of appreciation in the evening and probably will himself respond.

The liver loses its activity at times and needs help. Herbine is an effective liver stimulant. It also purifies the bowels, strengthens digestion and restores strength, vigor and cheerful spirits. Price 50c. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.*

LOUIS A. HENDERSON TO JOIN BENEDICTS

Louis A. Henderson left yesterday for Oregon City, where his marriage to Miss Edna Jane Caulfield of that city will occur tomorrow evening. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Caulfield, after which Mr. and Mrs. Henderson will leave for two weeks' wedding trip. They will be at home after May 5 at 721 Cascade avenue, the former home of Ralph Laraway, which Mr. Henderson recently purchased.

The wedding will be the culmination of a romance which had its beginning when Mr. Henderson and his fiancée became classmates at the University of Oregon in 1903. She is an accomplished musician and a young woman of charming personality. Mr. Henderson is a successful business man of this city and has a host of friends who will extend congratulations and wish both himself and bride many years of happiness.

MARRIED

MOHR-COCHRAN

Two popular young people of the valley were united in matrimony yesterday morning when the nuptials of Alphonse Aloysius Mohr and Miss Margaret A. Cochran were celebrated at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. There was a large attendance of friends at the church and Father Pius celebrated the nuptial high mass. After the ceremony the wedding party adjourned to the groom's home, where an elaborate wedding dinner was served and many wishes for happiness and prosperity were showered upon the happy couple.

If you want anything in the bee line, ask W. W. Dakin; phone 107X.* 15-tfc

For Hungry Business Men

The Mt. Hood hotel caters to hungry business men by serving delicious lunches at noon, 35 cents. Try one, then come every day.*

If you eat something which doesn't agree with you, don't let it work its own way through. It's a slow process and makes you feel bad. Get rid of it quickly by taking Herbine. It drives out impurities in the stomach and bowels, and you feel better immediately. Price 50c. For sale by Chas. N. Clarke.*

CASH GROCERY

Our stock is complete and quality the BEST. You can save money by buying your Groceries from us. We quote no prices this week, but have specials every day. Ask our prices

L. H. Huggins