

APPLE BLOSSOM WEEK!

Calls for New Togs--In fact, its Springtime and any further delay in getting together your outfit is not good business. We are judged by our appearance and we have noticed that some of the best appearing people supply their needs here. Our reputation for having the right goods at the right price has never been questioned, and we are not expecting to ever allow our excellent standing to be in doubt for a moment. We are ready for Blossom Week and suggest, if you are needing any item in wearing apparel, to come and see our lines

Ladies' Suits
$10 to $30

Ladies' Cloaks
$5.90 to $25
"Get in the game"

New Blazer Coats
The novelty of the hour
$5.90 to $7.90

Straw Hat Day
NEXT WEDNESDAY
The first of May Come out right
$1.00 to $5.00

Men's Suits
$15 to $25
Boys' Suits
$2.50 to $12
"Here with the goods"

Apple Blossom Days Will Be Next Friday, Saturday and Sunday

FRANK A. CRAM

The Scoop

The Time Has Come

when you need a new pair of shoes. Our showing of is now complete, and we would appreciate a call. No trouble to display our styles—that's what we are here for.

Most Styles $5.00

J. E. Tilt Shoes

$3.50 and $4

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Money in hay land. B. E. Duncan & Co.

A son was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. T. Mickel on State street.

If you want anything in the bee line, ask W. W. Dakin; phone 197X. 15-16

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Fording were visitors in Portland the last of the week.

Dr. M. F. Shaw, who has been ill for several days, is reported as recovering.

W. S. Nichol and family, accompanied by Mrs. Coons, spent the week end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Kilne were made happy on Saturday by the arrival of a fine boy.

Drs. J. F. Beaumont and J. F. Worcester of Portland were here over the week end.

Mrs. C. A. Bell, who has been poorly for several days, left Monday on a short trip to Portland.

J. F. Niedermeyer of Portland came up the last of the week to visit E. F. Dresser at Parkdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Root entertained a few friends last week at a duplicate auction bridge party.

Miss Emma Klosterman of Portland arrived Saturday to spend a few days with Mrs. Edwin R. Pooley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Temple, who have a ranch on the east side, were here from Portland the last of the week.

Enjoy your downtown dinners. Get them at the Mt. Hood hotel, 35 cents.*

Thomas F. Alderman, a logger employed at Dee, was brought to the hospital the last of the week with a broken leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rand are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son, born last week at Wauquiquin.

Mrs. G. S. Woodworth returned from Los Angeles Friday evening. Miss Woodworth will return from the South in June.

Captain J. H. Duker underwent an operation at the hospital Monday evening. Dr. J. K. Locke having been called from Portland in consultation.

Abe Fischer, a prominent Portland capitalist, arrived Monday with his daughter, Mrs. Lyon, to be a guest at the home of Mrs. Alma Howe.

All the meat markets of the city have entered into an agreement whereby they will close their shops at nine o'clock sharp every Saturday evening.

Henri de Reding sustained a serious injury Friday when a pony which he was riding fell dislocating his knee and rendering him unconscious for a short time.

Bailey & Colby, the electricians, are engaged in wiring several of the business blocks, which are to be decorated with colored lights for the Blossom Festival.

A. Welch of Portland, one of the largest independent light and power operators in the Northwest, was in town Sunday for a visit and took a ride over the valley.

Mrs. J. H. Oakes of Boise, Idaho, sister of Mrs. J. P. Lucas, arrived Saturday, called here by the illness of her husband, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lucas.

Mrs. Ogawa, one of the well-known Japanese residents of the valley, who has been seriously ill at the hospital, has recovered sufficiently so that she will return home this week.

The Mt. Hood Hotel serves a very tasty merchant's lunch every noon for thirty five cents.*

Money in hay land. B. E. Duncan & Co.

Joe D. Thomson spent Sunday in Portland.

Mrs. Leroy Armstrong spent several days last week in Portland.

The Misses Marlon and Edith Sprout spent Friday in Portland.

Dr. Allen Bonebrake of Goldendale, Wash., visited friends here last week.

Rev. E. A. Harris was in Heppner the last of the week to deliver an address.

Miss Bess Albright returned to Portland Saturday, after visiting her parents here for a few days.

W. C. Michael of the Gibson Fruit Company of Chicago arrived the last of the week on a business visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Hellbronner, accompanied by his mother, left Friday to spend the week end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carpenter were in Portland the last of the week to attend the Poulson-Jeffery wedding.

Mrs. P. L. Cherry of Portland and Mrs. E. M. Cherry of Astoria were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Epping.

E. L. House, who has been spending a couple of weeks on his ranch here, returned to Spokane the last of the week.

Don't let any of your friends miss the Blossom Festival this week. It is still not too late to extend them an invitation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Detwiller of Underwood were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Baker at the Hotel Oregon.

Mrs. C. R. Schmekel, who has been spending the winter at Cleveland, O., returned the last of the week to her home near Odell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence, Sr., accompanied by Miss Lawrence, have been spending a week at their ranch on Avalon Way.

Brooks Haworth came to Hood River the last of the week to visit his aunt, Mrs. Etta Bancroft. His parents are on a trip East.

A feature of the festival this week will be a dance to be given at Hellbronner Hall, Saturday evening. Music will be furnished by Vogel's orchestra and all are invited.

C. E. Larson, formerly clerk at the Mt. Hood Hotel, was elected a member of the board of governors of the Oregon State Hotel Clerks' Association at a meeting of that association held in Portland the last of the week.

Guy Y. Edwards has been confined to his home by illness for several days.

C. H. Vaughan and family expect to leave Saturday for a month's trip East.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Henderson returned yesterday morning from their honeymoon.

Mrs. S. M. Marden has been here visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Hanson, this week.

Enjoy a delicious chicken dinner at the Bell Building Saturday. The ladies of the U. B. church will serve the dinner and supper also.*

C. C. Stover of Minneapolis, L. J. Rowell of Tipton, Iowa, J. C. Schroeder of Sanborn, Iowa, prospective buyers, were here last week and returned this week after looking over other fruit sections.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Williams and daughter, Miss Florence, of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Dunn of Seattle were entertained and taken for a trip through the valley by Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Cram the last of the week.

Mrs. Theodore Wygant and daughter, Miss Lonnie, of Portland, have been recent guests at the home of Mrs. Alma Howe. Bishop Paddock and his secretary, Miss Kulight, also Mrs. Mesick of Portland have been with Mrs. Howe recently.

H. Peugh celebrated his 86th birthday Thursday evening at his home, 505 State street. A few friends were invited, a delicious supper was enjoyed and the evening was pleasantly passed. Mr. Peugh was the recipient of many congratulations.

Miss M. E. McLaughlin of Rock Island, Ill., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Butler last week. In leaving Miss McLaughlin declared that the Hood River Valley is one of the most magnificent pieces of country she has ever seen, and she has traveled extensively.

The guild of St. Mark's Episcopal Church gave a very pleasant social Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Bone on Oak street. Rt. Rev. Robert L. Paddock, bishop of Eastern Oregon, was present. Among the musical features was a duet by Messrs. Charles and Arthur Clarke.

Look up the offer of the True-to-Name Nursery elsewhere in this issue if interested in getting some good trees cheap. They have been in the business for 15 years and know what good trees are.*

Don't miss the chicken dinner to be served by the U. B. Ladies' Aid Society next Saturday at the Bell Building. Supper will be served also.*

Mr. and Mrs. E. Culbertson of Washington, Penn., have been among the recent arrivals in the Upper Valley, where their son, Todd B. Culbertson, is engaged in the sawmill business.

In order that Saturday may be devoted entirely to the festival, the weekly luncheon given under the auspices of the University Club and the Commercial Club will not be held this week, but will be resumed next week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lafferty left yesterday for Bitter Root Valley, Mont., where Mr. Lafferty has accepted a position in the horticultural department of the Bitter Root Valley Irrigation Company.

Joseph N. Teal of Portland, brother of Miss Helen Teal of this city, has received a signal honor in having been appointed vice-president of the recently organized National Chamber of Commerce. A Chicago man was named president and the scope of the new organization will include that of all the publicity bodies in the country.

Dr. Wilbur M. Mackenzie of Spokane, Wash., who has a ranch here, was in the city the last of the week, accompanied by his father, George Mackenzie of Wellsville, N. Y. Dr. Mackenzie did not feel that his father would be seeing the best of the West if he missed Hood River and made the trip here especially to show him the valley. Needless to state, Mr. Mackenzie, Sr., was delighted with what he saw.

Gilbert Morse, who lost four fingers from his left hand in the Belmont planer on March 27, has filed suit in the Circuit Court against the Stanley-Smith Lumber Company, asking $15,000 damages. He asserts that the knives should have been covered and that a pile of rubbish over which he tripped constituted negligence on the part of the company. Ernest C. Smith is his attorney.

When George Ertle returned from Portland the last of the week the word was spread that he had taken a bride in the Rose City. A number of friends assembled with tin pans and other instruments of torture and charivariated him. It then transpired that it was a false alarm and Mr. Ertle has traced it back to a traveling salesman, whose return he is now expectantly awaiting.

The kind that mother used to cook. Chicken dinner at the Bell Building Saturday. Come to dinner and supper too. Ladies of the U. B. church.*

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Oliver spent the week end at the home of Gay Yowell. Mr. Oliver is traveling salesman for the George Lawrence Company, wholesale saddlers and harness manufacturers of Portland.

Recorder Howe received word from railroad headquarters in Portland yesterday to the effect that the filters for the upper water system passed through Omaha, Neb., on April 26, which looks favorable for their prompt arrival here.

Miss Ethel Matt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Matt, is recovering from painful injuries received when she stumbled and fell into a barbed wire fence a few days ago. The barbs lacerated her throat, but fortunately did not sever an artery.

Employees of the Electric Wiring and Supply Company are busy putting up the overhead decorations on Oak street, which is to be transformed into a scene of beauty by means of vari-colored lights festooned across the street. The company is also illuminating several business blocks.

H. M. Wolfe has been employed as superintendent of construction by the Hood River Gas & Electric Company and will supervise changes in the city system, which will be made to conform to city ordinances. J. M. Dolan is superintending construction of the line to Mt. Hood. An aluminum cable is to be used and the cost will be $8000.

At the meeting of the city council Monday evening Mayor E. O. Blanchard announced his appointment of the library commission, in accordance with the city ordinance just passed, as follows: Councilman L. H. Huggins, J. P. Lucas, J. O. McLaughlin, Dr. F. C. Brodus, Mrs. William Stewart and Miss McLaren.

C. F. SUMNER

Opposite the Post Office
Home Phone 20

Spray and Garden Hose Plumbing

I MAKE and REPAIR HARNESS

Don't neglect them until too late--waiting until tomorrow may cause an accident today. When I Repair Harness you can feel Safe with them in driving. Harness Repairing does not mean simply patching and stitching. It must be done right, and that means Experience and Skill. I look after every job myself, and when I am through you can feel safe with the old Harness.

V. E. Fosberg & Co.

PHONE 21 :: HOOD RIVER, OREGON

Ladies' Suits Can Be Kept Like New

By our FRENCH DRY CLEANING department. Learn by a trial just what this service will do. Phone us and we will call promptly.

Spaulding & Gessling
Cleaning and Pressing
Basement of Bessie Bldg. Phone 123