

$3.95 --New Florsheim Oxfords-- $3.95

"For the Man Who Cares"

The cold, backward spring forces us to break an established price of $5.00 & $6.00 which has been maintained for years on FLORSHEIM Shoes

*While They Last -- Every Oxford
Cans, Russets, Gun Metals and Patent Leathers*

Let your shoes speak for you

Half your message is delivered before you speak a word.

Appearances amount for just that much nowadays.

The Florsheim SHOE

The Alamo

Most styles $5.00

indicates a particular taste, a judge of worth and up-to-date ideas.

ALL REDUCED TO

$3.95

See our windows. We will fit your feet.

FRANK A. GRAM

"Grace in Every Line"

is the way one good dresser describes the Ludgate—one of the new Oxfords

The illustration doesn't do it justice—neither can words. You must see it to appreciate how classy and distinctive it is.

Tan or Black

Your size is here—get it now

Most styles $5.00

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Money in hay land. B. E. Duncan & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Copple spent the last of the week in Portland.

Mrs. F. H. Isenberg of Astoria visited friends here the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Butler were visitors in Portland over the week end.

S. G. Campbell went to Newberg Friday to spend a couple of days with his mother.

Mrs. S. F. Wallace of Newberg, Ore., visited her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Stums, last week.

Mrs. Walton A. Greene and little son have arrived from Boston to join Mr. Greene here.

Dr. Belle C. Ferguson and daughter, Ruth, spent several days last week with friends at The Dalles.

J. H. Hellbronner was a visitor in Portland the last of the week.

Mrs. C. P. Ross and daughter Catherine were week-end visitors in Portland.

Mrs. F. W. Rockhold, who owns a ranch here, arrived from San Francisco Thursday.

Spring delivery wagon for sale cheap, just the thing to haul berries in. See The Star Grocery. 20

Roger Sands of Seattle was the guest at the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Suthoff the last of the week.

Mrs. Ben Johnson and little daughter of Wyeth visited her mother, Mrs. W. E. Shay, the last of the week.

Horace W. Day and Kenneth H. Day, two New York fruitmen, were visiting the Babson brothers last week.

President Stanley of the First National Bank was here from Portland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Early were in Portland the last of the week to see "The Girl in Pink."

Miss Clara Caulfield of Oregon City was the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. A. Henderson, the last of the week.

Mrs. Weber and her daughter, Miss Florence Holmes, of Underwood visited friends here the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reed of Portland arrived Friday to spend a few days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Dieck.

The West Side Tennis Club is issuing invitations for an informal dance to be given at Hellbronner's hall Friday evening.

Probably the first roses to be picked here this year were grown by Mrs. H. E. Davidson and were in full bloom early last week.

Will Huggins went to Eugene the last of the week to spend the Junior Week End with his brother Chester at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Clarke are spending the month at their summer home at Rockaway, Ore. They expect to be back the first part of June.

J. C. Hostetler and wife of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Olney Funk of Walla Walla, Wash., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Butler Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Carlton and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rosenkrans were up from Portland Friday in order to take the trip by auto through the valley.

In Portland recently occurred the marriage of Roy G. Flebaugh of Portland and Miss Agnes G. Phillips of Mosier. The young newlyweds will spend the summer at Ortley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cahalan of North Yakima, who have been enjoying an auto trip, stopped at Hood River Friday while enroute to Portland and took a spin through the valley.

C. S. Helox of Pittsburgh, Pa., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Pooley several days last week. Mr. Helox is a member of the firm which manufactures the well-known '57 varieties."

County Judge George D. Culbertson has acquired the Madras hotel, corner of Twelfth and Washington streets, Portland, and has recently mailed announcements to that effect to his friends here.

Maurice Jayne was a week-end visitor from Portland.

On Friday a 9½ pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Salling.

F. S. Forest, an official of the North Bank road, was here Sunday.

Dr. E. A. Colby and son Ernest have been spending several days in Portland.

The Mt. Hood Hotel serves a very tasty merchant's lunch every noon for thirty-five cents.*

A. F. Adams entered the hospital the last of the week to undergo treatment.

Mrs. George R. Wilbur entertained a few friends at luncheon Thursday afternoon.

Leonard Brewster Jones of Deadwood, S. D., was the week-end guest of Mrs. P. B. Hurlchs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Mills are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter on Wednesday.

Miss T. A. Benson of Kansas City, Kan., has arrived to take a position with the Stanley-Smith Lumber Co.

Miss Zenia Seabrook submitted to an operation at the hospital Saturday and is making a good recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bailey of Portland have arrived to spend the summer with their son, Harry H. Bailey, Jr.

Mrs. Fred Schear, who recently submitted to an operation at the hospital, is reported to be recovering nicely.

Miss Beth Edgington, who is attending St. Mary's Academy at The Dalles, spent the week end with her parents here.

Mrs. Doletha Mortimer of Walla Walla spent Sunday and Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Carter, and son, Banks Mortimer.

Col. and Mrs. John McCracken who have been visiting their son, James McCracken, at White Salmon, were taken for an auto trip over the Hood River Valley the last of the week and were much delighted.

Mrs. Myrtle Morris, proprietress of the lodging house adjoining the Mt. Hood Hotel, and William F. Lewis were married Wednesday evening by N. T. Chapman, an elder in the church of the Latter Day Saints.

N. J. Dolan, construction foreman for the Hood River Gas & Electric Company, has established a camp near Odell and work on the electric line to Mt. Hood was started this week. A large gang of men is being employed.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Putnam went to Portland Saturday to spend a couple of weeks.

Arthur Lotts, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lotts, is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Melville Matthews, son and mother, of The Dalles were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cram last week.

S. H. Hardacer of Portland came up Saturday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Allen at Central Vale.

Miss Madeline Esh of Portland came to Hood River Sunday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sutton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gay, who live on State street, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a 10½ pound son, born Friday.

Rev. Edmund Trew Simpson of St. Mark's Episcopal church is attending the convention of the Episcopal churches of the diocese of Eastern Oregon being held at La Grande this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Mason and Mr. and Mrs. John Mohr left Saturday afternoon for Roseburg to attend the meeting of the state grange, which opened yesterday and will continue through the week.

Mrs. C. D. Hurlchs entertained at whist Wednesday afternoon. Four tables were played and prizes were taken by Mrs. Joe McKee and Mrs. S. W. Howard. Mrs. R. R. Bartlett took the consolation prize.

Mrs. Henry Hewitt of Tacoma arrived Friday evening to visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Sutton. Mrs. Captain Charles Clancy of Portland and Miss Clancy of Tacoma also came to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Sutton.

L. Goodenberger went to Portland for a short visit Monday.

Mrs. R. D. Gould has been very ill for several days with a high fever.

Attorney George R. Wilbur made a trip to Portland and Salem the first of the week on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Blunt and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Marden of The Dalles were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanson, and were taken for an automobile trip through the valley.

Mrs. Mary E. Sudbemer of Salt Lake City, Utah, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Emma C. Willis. Mrs. Sudbemer is state president of the Rebekah State Assembly of Utah, and leaves in a few days to attend the Rebekah State Assembly of Oregon at Pendleton.

F. J. Patterson, who has extensive property interests in the valley, has moved here from Portland with his family and will occupy the Pineo house, corner Tenth and Cascade streets, during the summer. He is making his business headquarters with Reed & Henderson.

Marshal Lewis has begun his annual canvass for dog tax. Hood River's dog licenses are $3 for males and $5 for females. The officer declares that he will impound and put to death all dogs on which no licenses are paid. He collected $900 from the owners of dogs last year, and put to death 47 canines.

It has transpired that a lady bootlegger was in attendance at the circus which was here recently. She was selling cold tea at $1 per pint. On approaching a prospective customer she would give him the wink and tell how many officers were watching her, also the risk, and made a number of sales. It was real tea and cost about a cent a bottle to make it.

Mrs. Alma Howe is entertaining quite a large party of Portland people at her home. Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence, Sr., and the Misses Sophie and Mabel Lawrence are spending this week. Mr. and Mrs. Honeyman are here for a week or so. William Bittle Wells and family spent Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Nitchy are here for a few days. Miss Morris, daughter of the late Bishop Morris, is also at Mrs. Howe's, accompanied by Miss Ewald of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Endre Cedarburg are guests for a couple of weeks. Mr. Cedarburg is Norwegian consul at Portland.

R. W. Kelly spent the first of the week in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Reed, Mrs. Amble and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Henderson visited friends in Underwood Sunday.

Dr. M. F. Shaw returned yesterday from a trip to Klamath Falls for the benefit of his health. The doctor is not feeling well and is confined to his bed.

The United Brethren Ladies' Aid will hold its regular Kennington at the home of Mrs. S. E. Bartness on next Friday afternoon. All are invited.

John Dingle and W. R. Barnes of Palouse City, Wash., have been looking over Hood River for several days with a view to locating here. Mr. Dingle has for many years been engaged in the hardware business in Washington and Mr. Barnes is connected with the Potlatch Lumber Company of that state.

We are after you if you are particular about your Flour

Gold Medal Flour, you know, is made of Minnesota hard wheat and is the best in the world. It costs more and is worth it.

Olympic Flour is the best made on the Pacific coast and is not bleached. It's white enough without it.

We sell both kinds THE STAR GROCERY "GOOD THINGS TO EAT" PERIGO & SON

STRAWBERRY GROWERS

Just a word to REMIND you that the Strawberry Season is close at hand and that you are soon going to need a supply of

Pickers' and Packers' Tickets

We are prepared to fill your order promptly and reasonably. By placing it now you will insure PROMPT DELIVERY.

Place Your Order TO-DAY

Hood River News Company

Ladies' Suits Can Be Kept Like New

By our FRENCH DRY CLEANING department. Learn by a trial just what this service will do. Phone us and we will call promptly.

Spaulding & Gessling Cleaning and Pressing

Basement of Broadway Bldg. Phone 193X