P. J. Mohr has his father and mother visiting him on his homestead.

Mrs. Ralph Davies and children left for The Dalles last week for a short visit.

Men are at work near the headquarters of the Middle Fork Irrigating Ditch.

Mr. Simmons is cleaning away a place in the woods preparatory to building a log cabin.

Mrs. George Dinmick and children of Hood River, who have been visiting with J. T. Thompson and family, returned home Sunday.

Valley Crest school closed Wednesday, May 22, and on Thursday the Mt. Hood school pupils joined them in a picnic. The forepart of the day was most perfect, but in the afternoon a heavy thunder storm came up.

OAK GROVE

Mrs. G. A. McCurdy left Saturday for Collins Springs.

Miss Jennie Hall spent Sunday at Mt. Pleasant ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allen are spending a few days in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Dungan of Indianapolis spent Sunday at the McCrea ranch.

Miss Abene Albright left last Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. J. W. Church of Walla Walla.

The West Side Tennis Club will give its next informal dance at Hellbronner hall next Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Klog and Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ravlin were in the party that made the trip to Canas Prairie and Trout Lake last week, and report having a very nice trip.

A. K. McLaren was in Albany last week on business. He was accompanied by his brother, Fred McLaren.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dyer came up from Portland Wednesday. Mr. Dyer will remain during berry season, but Mrs. Dyer expects to be here for the summer.

Miss Gertrude Irwin attended the Junior Prom given by the students of the Allen Preparatory school in Portland last Thursday night. She returned Sunday.

The bids handed in by the contractors for the new Oak Grove school were opened last week, but were rejected on account of being too high. However, the plans have been altered somewhat and it is expected new bids will be in this week.

PINE GROVE

Henry Lago spent several days in Portland attending to business last week.

Mrs. G. H. Riddell is again in Pine Grove visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Lange.

Miss Gertrude Johnson was home for the Leap Year party given Friday evening.

Miss and Mr. Corey of White Salmon were week end visitors at the Clark home.

Miss Clara Absher, who has attended school at Pine Grove this year, returned to her home at Fir Thursday.

Mrs. Gove went to Mosier last Thursday evening to attend the closing exercises of the school at that place.

Miss Anna Godbersen, who has taught the eighth grade work for the past year, returned to her home at Mosier Thursday.

Miss Zena Miller, who has been visiting friends and relatives at Vancouver and Portland for the past two weeks, returned home Monday.

The Misses Grace and Evelyn Turney, intermediate and primary teachers of our school, left Monday for Portland to spend their vacation with relatives.

Mr. Weatherford, the janitor of the school, entertained the children with a candy pull last Monday afternoon. A merry time was had by the youngsters.

Mrs. Gove and Miss Godbersen entertained their pupils at the home of the former last Friday afternoon while the Misses Turney gave theirs a merry time at the home of Percy Laraway.

The Sunflower Sunday School class held its weekly meeting on Monday evening so the members could attend the entertainment given by the young ladies of the Sunday School at Odell Tuesday evening.

Choir practice Friday evening at the church. All members are urged to be present.

Next Sunday being the first Sunday of the month, there will be preaching services both morning and evening. Children's Day will be observed the third Sunday of June.

The following teachers have been re-elected to fill their respective positions for the coming year: Miss Anna Godbersen, Miss Grace Turney and Miss Evelyn Turney. Mrs. Gove resigned to accept a position in Hood River. The principal has not as yet been elected.

The play, "The Time of His Life," which was to have been given Tuesday evening, was postponed until tomorrow (Thursday) evening. The play scored a distinct success when given in Hood River. It is staged by members of the graduating class of the Hood River High School.

The closing exercises of Pine Grove school were held Wednesday at the Pine Grove Grange Hall after several selections of music. Rev. Harris of Hood River gave an address. Rev. Carson presented the following with diplomas: Tenth grade, Jessie Stockwell and Alfred Thompson; eighth grade, Stella Perry and Earl Robertson. After the program ice cream and cake was served in the dining hall.

Friday evening witnessed one of the most successful social events of the year when the young ladies gave a Leap Year party at the Pine Grove Grange Hall. The hall was decorated with cedar, bridal wreath and yellow roses, while the dining room in red and white had for its decorations snowballs and red peonies. Fifty-two couples took part in the Grand March led by Mr. and Mrs. Lago to the strains of a lively tune by Vogel's Orchestra, which gave excellent music during the evening. Everyone seemed to have a time worthy of the occasion, especially when partaking of the appetizing lunch. Much credit is due those who had the evening in charge i. e. Mrs. Forrest Kingdon and Misses Minnie Pansch and Grace Perry.
