

Boys' Suits

NOW
$1.50, $2.50, $5.00

REGULAR VALUES
WERE
$3.75, $5.90, $10.00

SIZES 4 TO 18 YEARS

HARVEST SALE

Men's Suits

NOW
$5.00, $8.00, $12.00

REGULAR VALUES
WERE
$10.00, $16.50, $25.00

ALL SIZES, ALL WEIGHTS

Odd Lines in Every Department at Prices to Move Briskly

Ladies' Embroidered Collars
Regular 25c now 3 for 25c

Ladies' Mercerized Vests
Regular 35c Values 2 for 35c

25c Sunbonnets
All Colors—Each 10c

Regular 35c Children's Underwear
Now 19c

Kai Kai Dresses
For Misses—$2.90 Values $1.63

Children's Waists
35c Values Now 19c

Ladies' Wool Sweaters
Worth up to $4.90
Harvest Sale Price
$1.00

House Dresses
Dark and Medium
Values up to $2.90
95c Harvest Sale 95c

Strawberry Packers
Black Satteen
Aprons
39c 65c values 39c

Heather Bloom Petticoats
in colors, values up to $3.95
Harvest Sale Price
95c

Kid Gloves
$1.25 Values 50c
Silk Gloves
75c Values 39c

Ladies' Hose Supporters of every kind
and color to close.
Values up to 75c—Now 10c

Strawberry Picking
Straw Hats 13c

Best Standard Calicoes
All Colors—Now 5c

Galitea Cloth
Best Grade—Now 14c

Fay Hosiery 35c
Regular to Close 19c

Infants' Mill Bonnets
Values up to 75c—Now 10c

Ladies' White Waists
Values up to $2.50 95c

Hundreds of Other Items. Our HARVEST SALE PRICES will Make You Dizzy

Boys' 25c and 35c
Light Underwear
Now 19c

STORE CLOSED ALL DAY DECORATION DAY

Frank A. Cram

Florsheim Oxfords
$5.00 and $6.00 Values
$3.95

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Money in hay land. B. E. Duncan & Co.

Dr. M. F. Shaw spent most of last week in Portland.

Mrs. F. Wieden arrived the last of the week from Portland to join her family here for the summer.

The registration books will open again next Tuesday, June 4, and will then remain open until October 20.

Mrs. Anna E. Spencer of Portland, formerly of this city, was in town a couple of days the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Keller of Niagara Falls, N. Y., arrived Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Willis Van Horn.

W. W. Remington of Minneapolis is a recent arrival in the valley, which he is looking over with a view to locating.

The second dance in the series being given by the West Side Tennis Club will be held at Hellbronner Hall Friday evening.

Mrs. S. T. Ricketts of Parkdale is expecting her mother and sister from San Jose, Calif., this week to spend the summer here.

Z. W. Dabney of Canon City, Colo., arrived Friday to visit his brother, O. P. Dabney. He is an old soldier and is in his 79th year.

Money in hay land. B. E. Duncan & Co.

Miss Alice Bennett of England is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Noah Bone.

Mrs. R. L. Melendy of Parkdale was visiting friends here a couple of days the last of the week.

Send in your orders for berry packers' and pickers' tickets. Do it now before you are right in the rush of the work.

E. R. Claxton brought in the first box of ripe cherries on Friday. It was not a large box, but Mr. Claxton says it was enough to entitle him to first honors.

The Very Reverend Chrysostome Theobald, O. F. M., general visitor for the Franciscan Order, arrived Friday to pay a visit to fathers here. He is from Cincinnati, O.

Miss Eva Brock gave a dinner party Thursday evening in honor of Miss Bertha Masters of Portland, who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Thompson.

Secretary Ray E. Scott of the Commercial Club spent Friday in Portland arranging for the trip to be made to the Rose City today under the auspices of the local club.

If you want anything in the bee line, ask W. W. Dakin; phone 107X. 15-16c

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Grice have been recent visitors at Vancouver, Wash.

George T. Prather of San Diego, formerly of this city, arrived Saturday for a visit.

Rue Lender arrived Saturday to spend a few days as the guest of his brother, A. C. Lender.

E. B. DuVal of San Francisco arrived the last of the week to visit his brother, G. DuVal, Jr., in the Upper Valley.

Mrs. J. L. Hutches, who submitted to a serious operation at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland Saturday, is reported as improving.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goff spent a couple of days visiting here the last of the week. Mr. Goff was formerly manager of the Hood River Electric Light, Power & Water Company.

Architect R. R. Bartlett is preparing plans for a store building to be constructed for J. K. McGregor of Mosier. It will include one story and basement and will have room for two stores on the main floor.

Clarence McCarthy, who has been employed by the Transfer and Livery Company for about two years, left the last of the week for Detroit, Mich., where he will take a position as overseer on an experiment farm.

Miss Polly Canby of St. Paul is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Pooley, A. W. Peters gave an informal party at his home Friday evening in honor of Miss Canby and of the Misses VanHorn and Florence Morrison of New York.

For Sale—Four-room house located at 505 Sherman Avenue. Lot 50x100. Price $1000. Easy terms. Mrs. M. Fernald. Phone 25-M. 22-16c

Miss M. H. Nutting, a nurse at the Cottage hospital, expects to leave Saturday on a three months' leave of absence, which she will spend in New York City.

Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Locke of Portland, accompanied by their daughter Beatrice and son Edward, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Bronson over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mills of Portland have come here to spend the summer and are guests at the Mt. Hood hotel. Mr. Mills is connected with the Allen-Lewis Company of that city.

A representative of the Oregon Road Oiling Company was here from Portland Saturday. This company secured the contract for oiling the city streets and started work this week. State street is to be oiled to Ninth and the other parallel streets to Fifth. All the cross streets are also to be treated.

Joseph Copeland spent Sunday in Portland.

John Franz was down from The Dalles Sunday visiting friends.

Rev. E. L. House of Spokane was a visitor here the last of the week.

R. J. Melsane of Parkdale made a trip to Portland the last of the week.

Frank McFarland of Portland was here Sunday inspecting his ranch on the East Side.

A daughter was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Welty, who reside on Thirteenth street.

The stork brought a son last week to Mr. and Mrs. T. Sate, who live on the Belmont road.

The Tire Shop guarantees all tire repairs to hold and give satisfaction, 413 Oak street (in Style Shop).

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hall at Mt. Pleasant Ranch in the Oak Grove district last week.

Mrs. Ella Waters came from The Dalles Friday to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Robert McMcIntosh.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Huggins left Sunday on a trip to Salem, Eugene and Lebanon. They expect to be gone about a week.

Mrs. L. A. Henderson went to Oregon City Sunday to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Clara Caulfield, which will occur Saturday.

For Sale—Four-room house located at 505 Sherman Avenue. Lot 50x100. Price $1000. Easy terms. Mrs. M. Fernald. Phone 25-M. 22-16c

Miss M. H. Nutting, a nurse at the Cottage hospital, expects to leave Saturday on a three months' leave of absence, which she will spend in New York City.

Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Locke of Portland, accompanied by their daughter Beatrice and son Edward, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Bronson over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mills of Portland have come here to spend the summer and are guests at the Mt. Hood hotel. Mr. Mills is connected with the Allen-Lewis Company of that city.

A representative of the Oregon Road Oiling Company was here from Portland Saturday. This company secured the contract for oiling the city streets and started work this week. State street is to be oiled to Ninth and the other parallel streets to Fifth. All the cross streets are also to be treated.

Mrs. F. R. Howard is visiting at Trout Lake, Wash.

Renew the life of your tires. The Tire Shop, 413 Oak St.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. D. Grimm last Tuesday.

The Tire Shop, located in the Style Shop, 413 Oak St., makes a specialty of the repairing.

Mrs. J. E. Henkle of Philomath, Ore., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl K. Bartmess last week.

A twelve-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McKittrick at Central Vale Friday.

Mrs. Alice Moline, who was operated on at the local hospital Friday, is making a nice recovery.

Miss Florence Brosius has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roe in the Upper Valley, where she is breaking a horse to the saddle for use during the summer.

Earl Connoway, who has been employed at the mill at Dee, was injured Friday by being caught between a load of planks and a stack of lumber. He was brought to the hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. William Seufert of The Dalles spent the week end as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Jackson and Mrs. Anna McDonald. Mrs. McDonald returned with them to The Dalles for a visit.

Pupils of the high school, including Lawrence Schetky, Eugene Austin, Miss Mitchell and Leon Noble, will take part in the morning services at the U. B. church next Sunday by giving their temperance essays written under the direction of the W. C. T. U. of this city.

By winning the tournament at The Dalles Friday, the Hood River high school tennis teams, of both girls and boys, win the championship of the mid-Columbia district. The teams playing were composed of Misses Ella McDonald and Esther Husbands, and Glenn Shoemaker and Horace Skinner. They won in both doubles and singles.

Robert E. Foley surprised his local friends last week by becoming a benedict. His marriage with Miss Mary Gerard of Portland was celebrated in that city at the First Baptist church. Rev. W. B. Hinson read the service. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Foley left on a wedding trip to Los Angeles, Cal. They will probably return here to live, Mr. Foley having made his home here for the past twenty years.

A daughter was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Marr.

A marriage license was issued Monday to Thos. E. Vercoe and Miss Lois E. Friedley.

Spring delivery wagon for sale cheap, just the thing to haul berries in. See The Star Grocery. * 20

Misses Grace and Evelyn Turney and Miss Jessie Stockton left Monday to spend a few weeks in Portland.

Miss Louise Morris and Miss Nellie Ewald, who have been spending some time at Mrs. Alma Howe's returned to Portland Friday.

J. M. Wood, secretary of the Merchants' Association, announces that all the stores will be closed tomorrow, it being Decoration Day.

C. P. Sonnehsen, who was formerly an owner of the News, leaves today for Hillsboro, where he will take a position on the Independent.

W. C. Barbour, superintendent of installation for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, and E. D. Jelly, of the same company, were here Saturday and Sunday.

A "round robin" at tennis will be played tomorrow on the Oak street courts and sixteen players will take part. Playing will begin at eight a. m. and continue all day.

Rev. W. B. Young of the Methodist church united Joseph F. Goff of Portland and Miss Ollie Irene Smith of this city in marriage Monday. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage.

Lester Boggs, who has been employed by County Surveyor Kay, left the last of the week for Portland, where he will be employed on one of the steamship lines between that city and Astoria.

Dr. W. S. Nichol, W. S. Farris and W. M. Stewart left Saturday by automobile for Bend to enjoy a fishing trip. S. E. Bartmess, who was also in the party, writes that they made the 200-mile trip in one day.

C. N. Clarke is renovating the interior of his fine home on the Heights and is having constructed a colonial staircase, which will be in harmony with the rest of the house, which is in the colonial style of architecture.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinney of Greenwood, B. C., were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Mabel Carter. Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mrs. Lillian Mason and Miss Dillon of Mitchell's Point were also guests of Mrs. Carter.

The News tells it all.

Auto Truck for Connoway Co.

The Connoway Mercantile Company of Odell has purchased a Chase auto truck from the Gilbert Implement Company. W. G. Snow has just completed manufacturing a substantial body for the machine, which the Connoway Company will use for delivery purposes.

Christian Science Services

Christian Science services will be held in the Commercial Club rooms Sunday at 11 a. m., subject, "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, denounced."

Sunday school at 11 a. m. in room 6, Davidson building. Wednesday evening testimonial meetings are held in Davidson building. All are cordially invited to attend these services. Reading room open daily, No. 6, Davidson building.*

Among Our Teas

you are bound to find the blend that just suits your taste. We have every good blend—Ooloong, Ceylon and India; Gunpowder, English Breakfast, Japan and Green and Black mixed in moisture and dust proof Screw-Top Canners. They are put up by Chase & Sanborn, whose years of experience means a great deal to you if you will take advantage of it.

Try a small tin just to convince yourselves. We know what will happen.

THE STAR GROCERY
"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"
PERIGO & SON

FORCED TO SELL AT SACRIFICE PRICE

10 Acres—mostly in bearing, with house, barn and outbuildings, located in the heart of the valley for $12,000.00. Can be bought on easy terms. It's $1,500 less than cost. Estimated crop this year will be over 3,000 boxes.

See us about it right away

J. H. HEILBRONNER & CO.

Hellbronner Building Hood River, Oregon