CASCADE LOCKS

Mrs. Thompson spent a few days last week in Palmer visiting Mrs. Thomas.

H. W. Taylor was in Portland Thursday.

Miss Vera Olin left Thursday morning for a two weeks' visit with friends in Portland and La Center.

A large number of Locks' people attended the Grocers' Picnic at Bonneville Wednesday.

Allen O. Adams, Jr., of Underwood, spent Wednesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Adams.

Miss Effie Edwards of White Salmon visited friends here Wednesday.

Ben Wait is spending several weeks in Eastern Oregon, working in the harvest fields.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Hutchinson and daughters, Cornelia and Myra Adell, visited relatives in Underwood last week.

Miss Wretha Hewitt is visiting Miss Marvel Thomas of Palmer.

Fred Ferine spent Sunday here. Miss Jennie Olin was pleasantly surprised Saturday night by a number of her friends. The party was held at the home of the Misses Vanstrom. Games were played and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Adams of Underwood visited here recently. Miss Esther Coke has been visiting Mrs. D. W. Chamberlin in Portland.

Wm. Kertcher was in Portland last week.

A number of people from Mosier spent Sunday, July 28, with Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Clark. A picnic dinner was enjoyed on the lawn.

Mrs. Capt. Nelson entertained a number of friends at a birthday dinner last Sunday.

H. W. Taylor left Friday for Alaska, where he will superintend an extensive marble quarry for a Portland concern.

A sidewalk from the schoolhouse to connect with the new walk is being considered.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hirscheimer of La Crosse, Wis., who have been spending several weeks with their daughter, Mrs. H. C. Levy, returned to their home last Friday. Mr. Hirscheimer is the president of the Wind River Lumber Co.

Mrs. H. S. Adams and daughter, Hazel, of Underwood are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Hutchinson.

The telephone company has been replacing a number of poles along the county road.

M. S. Smith of Underwood made a short business visit here last week.

The new sidewalk is much appreciated as far as it is laid, but the completion of the construction seems to be badly delayed.

Mrs. Ethel Coke has been spending a week in Portland.

Miss Vera Olin, who has been spending a couple of weeks with friends at La Center and Portland, returned to her home Tuesday.

The schoolhouse is undergoing its annual cleaning.

The Epworth League held a business meeting and "Penny Social" at the home of Mrs. L. W. Collins on Tuesday evening.

Miss Vera O'Neil of Hood River is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Clark.

A. O. Adams was in Hood River last Sunday attending the Billy Sunday meeting.

Mrs. Ernest Penneck entertained the business meeting of the Ladies' Aid last Thursday. A "Musical Drawing" contest was a feature of the program, and consisted of each lady being given a familiar song and requested to illustrate it so that it could be guessed by the rest. The artistic ability displayed afforded much amusement.

BARRETT

On Friday evening Misses Vernon Shoemaker and Gladys Reavis entertained at the home of the former in honor of her house guest, Miss Ruth Amesbury of Portland. Those present were—Emma Gibbons, Irene Williams, Maude Hasbrouck, Mayme Hodges, Kate and Allie Forry, Vernice Robbins, Florence Carson, Blanche Howell, Elizabeth Thomas, Gladys Reavis, Ruth Amesbury, Vernon Shoemaker, Edna Wright, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bennett, Claude Thompson, Roy Samuel, Glen Shoemaker, Will Gibbons, Marion and Hal Nesbit, Hubert Hasbrouck, Burleigh Cash, Victor Johnson, Bob Shinn, Freeman Mason, George Butt, Roy Cornell, Jay Harger, Mr. Scott.

Mrs. E. W. Amesbury and daughter, Jean, of Portland, are visiting with J. H. Shoemaker for a few days.

Mrs. Frank Gillam, of Circle G Ranch is spending a few weeks with her husband and son in Portland.

Miss Erma Jones' brother and family of Pendleton have been visiting with her for the past few days.

Will Gibbons and a friend went bear hunting Thursday morning, but returned Friday afternoon minus a bear and with but a handful of huckleberries.

Miss Emma Richardson of Pendleton is the guest of Miss Vernon Shoemaker for a week or so.

Mrs. B. E. Wright entertained informally at a bonfire on Monday evening the crowd of young people who have just returned from camping at "Dippy's Summer Retreat." The evening was spent in popping corn and toasting marshmallows. Later a dainty luncheon was served camp style.

G. H. Robbins, who has been in Oregon City looking after his nursery, returned home Saturday.

Miss Beatrice Boyce returned Saturday from a visit in Portland.

E. W. Sweaney, J. A. Bennett, Robt. Smith and Mr. Maxwell leave Monday for a week's fishing at Trout Lake, Wash.

The Ladies' Aid social held on the church lawn Tuesday evening was a decided success. A pleasant evening was spent and a neat sum was realized.

Mrs. J. J. Gibbons is visiting friends in Portland.

BELMONT

Belmont is almost too busy to speak in taking care of its abundance.

Mrs. Wm. Early is visiting friends in Portland.

Mr. Terrey is soon to depart for the East to look after business.

Mr. Eyer has secured a position in the planer.

One of the crowning events of the season occurred in the form of an ice cream social given by the Young People's Bible class in the M. E. church last Wednesday evening. Results—$25.

E. E. Rugg is making decided improvements by moving, remodeling and adding to his barn.

Mrs. L. W. Bishop gave a reception to her many friends last Wednesday in honor of Mr. Bishop's mother and niece, who are spending the summer months at the Bishop home. A very pleasant time was had.

We should judge from the way Mr. Isbell looks at the apple trees from the corner of his eye and says, "get ready," that it was time something was doing if we succeed in taking care of our big apple crop.

George Gallaway is getting his hands limbered up for a big pack.

Mrs. Chandler, wife of our pastor, is quite ill. A speedy recovery is the wish of all.

The Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Bishop next Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Farrell will entertain the Missionary society next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Allen again wares a smiling face. His wife has returned from her visit in Washington.

All Americans Should Reciprocate the Great Love China Bears This Country

By the Right Rev. J. W. BASHFORD, M. E. Bishop of China

EVERY citizen of the United States must TAKE SOME OF THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE REPUBLIC IN CHINA.

You Americans who must have been startled at the appearance of the Chinese republic, you Americans who never set foot in China or taught a Chinese boy in America—even you CANNOT ESCAPE SOME RESPONSIBILITY.

YOU HAVE SENT FORWARD MISSIONARIES AND HAVE Poured OUT MONEY FOR SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES AND HOSPITALS AND HAVE NOURISHED THE FAMINE VICTIMS UNTIL YOU HAVE COMPELLED THE CHINESE TO LOVE THE VERY NAME OF AMERICA ABOVE THE NAME OF EVERY OTHER LAND ON EARTH.

You have built up such homes and schools and churches as have made the young Chinese entering them and sharing their blessings return to China tenfold MORE AMERICAN THAN YOU ARE YOURSELVES.

Are not our hearts drawn to China by the fact that in the formation of their constitution they have not drawn a single line from any political document in European history, but have taken our bill of rights and our AMERICAN CONSTITUTION and have made them the constitution of the Chinese republic?
