Uniform Apple Grades It is an important work which has been undertaken in establishing a uniform grade of apples for this valley, as noted elsewhere in this issue.

Black Eye for Prize Fights Congress has passed a bill prohibiting the interstate transportation of moving pictures of prize fights.

Apples as Cosmetics If the women of the country take the advice given by Grant Porden of Baltimore at the International Apple Shippers' Association in Chicago last week, they will discard cosmetics and eat apples morning, noon and night.

Everybody Boost It It is rarely that an enterprise receives the immediate and unanimous support that is being given the Horticultural Chautauqua to be held next week.

New England to Irrigate. There have been some rainfalls in New England recently, says the Christian Science Monthly, and they have been heavy in places, but they do not compensate for the long summer drought that preceded them.

with heavy losses from drought and are not likely to recoup these losses this year. It is said that the farmers of New England are thinking more and more about irrigation.

At the same time it is of interest to the Westerner to see the East undertaking to follow the pace which the more progressive West has set in the matter of insuring agricultural success through scientific conservation of the water supply.

GOOD DEMAND FOR PRESERVED FRUITS

Anent a recent editorial in the News suggesting the opportunity for a fruit cannery here, the following letter just received by the Commercial Club from a Seattle exporting house is illustrative of the demand and wide market which would be open for the product of such a plant.

LOW GRADE FRUIT SHOULD BE TABOO

Since the apple crop this year is larger than usual, buyers may not be so plentiful and the seller may have to seek more for an outlet. The smart grower will begin to look after this part of the business early for the purpose of arranging for a purchaser, a suitable and honest commission firm on a commission basis or for packages and storage space if he decides to do his own storing.

EAGLE CAP MAY BE RIVAL OF MT. HOOD

Mount Hood may soon have an official rival in height. In the desire either to confirm or disprove the assertion that the Eagle Cap mountain between Baker and Wallawa is the highest in the state, Clyde B. Atchison, chairman of the state railroad commission, will take accurate measurements of the mountain within a short time.

ISSUES BULLETIN ON POLLINATION

A seven-page bulletin, No. 20, on "The Pollination Question" has just come from the press at the Oregon Agricultural College. It was prepared in the experiment station's horticultural research laboratory, and discusses the pollination of apples and pears, setting forth some of the practical results obtained in work throughout the state during several years past.

WENATCHEE PLANS WIDE ADVERTISING

Twenty-five hundred dollars will be raised at once by subscription among members of the Wenatchee Commercial club to replenish the finances of the organization. Following the disposal of the financial matter, W. T. Clark, president of the Wenatchee Valley Fruit Growers' association, suggested a plan for publicity that met the approval of the club.

A Woman's Beauty Depends very much upon the appearance of her hair. I am prepared to make combings up to your order and to furnish switches, puffs and curls made of genuine human cut hair in any shade desired.
