BELMONT

The annual open meeting of the Musical Club was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Ox-borrow. She had her lawn beautifully arranged with lights and tents, a fine lunch was served and the program, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, was reported by those present to be a rare treat.

Mr. and Mrs. English, Mr. and Mrs. Gladen and Mr. and Mrs. Andrews and Mr. Jantzen of Oak Grove were present at the Ladies' Aid Tea Friday evening. Miss Ethel Farrell and Miss Laura Sherrieb had a candy booth from which they disposed of delicious sweets. The Aid is working to raise funds to repair the parsonage. A nice little sum was taken in from this social.

Steve Eby is rapidly recovering. The infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas died last Saturday.

Mrs. Anderson, the wife of Rev. Anderson of the M. E. church, has been seriously ill for the past week but is reported much better. Those who failed to hear the excellent sermons given both morning and evening by Rev. Anderson last Sunday were the losers.

Mrs. Morris met with a serious accident in carrying a boiler of hot water recently. She stepped on a stick which caused her to fall resulting in some very bad scalds.

Mr. Woodworth, the mail carrier, had an attack of his old trouble last Wednesday. Mr. Tredwell took him in his car to the depot from whence he went to Portland to be operated on again.

Mrs. Terry and family left Tuesday for the East where they will join Mr. Terry. Their many friends regret to see them go, however, the Terry family are firmly decided to return to this beautiful valley later to make their permanent home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dickinson were guests at the Nunamaker home Sunday. Mrs. Shipley and daughter Margaret of Troutdale were also visitors at this pleasant home.

John Nunamaker is attending school at Long Beach, California. Ray Nichelsen, Lloyd Nunamaker and Ed Hooker are among the Corvallis students.

Dr. Ferguson's tree house on the corner of Belmont and Alameda Way is near completion and it certainly is a quaint and pretty structure.

PINE GROVE

Miss Marion VanHorn has gone to Portland to resume her studies at St. Helen's Hall.

Miss Ada Mark, a student at Willamette University, left Sunday for Salem.

Friends from Minneapolis, Minn., are visiting at the home of Dickerson & Peck. Monday afternoon Mrs. Dickerson and Miss Peck entertained a number of their friends in honor of their guests.

Miss Gladys Clark has gone to Corvallis, where she expects to enter the Oregon Agricultural College.

Miss Joy Mason has returned to Corvallis to resume her studies at the O. A. C.

Miss Laura Dethman spent the week end with friends in Pine Grove.

Miss Ada Downs, who has been in Pine Grove for the past two weeks, returned to her home in Barrett last Friday.

Wm. Wells, with his bailing crew, who has been baling hay in Cascade Locks, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Framback, who has been visiting in Seattle, returned the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Hill, accompanied by Mrs. Hill's grandmother, returned from Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Lage are visiting relatives and friends in Portland.

Mrs. Wm. Scobee and daughter Zoe spent Saturday and Sunday visiting Mrs. Scobee's sister, Mrs. Henderson, in Bingen, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman royally entertained a number of their friends in their new apple house last Saturday evening. Dancing was the order of the evening. A delicious luncheon was served, which will not soon be forgotten by those present.

The Ladies' Aid will meet next Friday afternoon with Mrs. Radford. A full attendance is requested.

Word has been received from Salem that Dr. and Mrs. Sweetland are the proud possessors of a baby daughter.

Why has Sam Campbell's head been in the clouds for a week? I'll try to explain. The tranquility of the home has been broken. Occasionally squalls disturb the quiet while Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are greatly rejoicing over the arrival of a 9-pound girl Tuesday, Sept. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. Peck are up from Portland on the home place.

Next Sunday being the fifth Sunday of the month, there will be preaching services at the church in the evening.

We are very glad to report that Arthur Hale has so far recovered from his severe attack of pneumonia that the doctor thinks he can be brought home from the hospital this week.

Miss Edith Winchell left this week for Forest Grove, where she will take up her studies for the coming year.

Miss Gertrude Johnson has gone to Portland for a visit.

Mrs. Johnson has returned, after spending some time at her father's bedside in Portland. She left him improving slowly.

Gloom has been cast over the entire community by the death of Wm. R. Starrett last Thursday, Sept. 19th, at the Cottage Hospital in Hood River. The remains, accompanied by Mrs. Starrett, left for his old home in New Jersey on Friday. Not many, if any, men in the neighborhood have made as many friends as Mr. Starrett during the short time he has lived as one of us.

He will be missed very much, for he was a man who lived for others and not alone for self. The heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends is extended to Mrs. Starrett in her bereavement.

FRANKTON

Mrs. S. E. Copple and daughter, Helen, of Ruthon, left Saturday morning for Eugene, to visit relatives.

Mrs. Lydia Mallotte of Portland, who has been a guest of her grandson, R. S. Schoon, for the past two weeks, returned to her home Saturday.

Miss Bertha Steptoe has returned to her home at Forest Grove, after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. John McCustian.

The Four Leaf Clover Club will meet with Mrs. W. G. Price Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

Our Bible School is steadily growing in numbers and interest. A cordial invitation is extended to all to meet with us on Sunday at 3 p. m.

Last Tuesday Uncle Ed Calkins was treated to a delightful dinner party given by his wife. A large number of neighbors and friends were present to help Uncle Ed remember the day.

ODELL

Tucker hill is not yet open to travel, though Mr. Lacey is pushing the work.

Mrs. Ray Sturgess, who visited at R. H. Kemp's last week, has returned to Portland.

Mrs. Katherine Kemp has gone to Portland for an extended stay for the benefit of her health. Her many friends heartily wish her success.

The stereopticon lecture at the M. E. church was enjoyed by a crowded house. The Union C. E. was largely represented as only a short devotional service was held there.

Thomas Rathbone left Odell Friday. He was delighted with this section. He is returning via the Canadian Pacific to enter the Senior Class at the University of Michigan.

Alick Lacey will lead Christian Endeavor Sunday and the Young-Crosby quartet will furnish special music.

The semi-annual business meeting of the Christian Endeavor will be held this Wednesday evening at the Union church for the election of officers.

Miss Hope Shelley is visiting relatives at Sandy. A delightful dinner was given by her at the home of her parents last week.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Young, Mr. and Mrs. Don Crosby, Mrs. Emil Schiller, Mrs. Albert Schiller, Mr. Rathbone and Mrs. Will Kemp. Some were detained by accidents, but all had an enjoyable time recounting school days and singing school songs.

As J. A. Ferguson was driving his auto past Crystal Spring Farm last week he turned to avoid a team and the wheels went into a rut, pitching the machine over the grade in front of O. L. Walter's place.

Mr. Ferguson had the presence of mind to shut off the power so that the machine landed on its side, thus escaping what might have been a fatal accident. Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Hawthorne escaped with shock and bruises, but little Miss Martha had her arm broken. She was attended by Dr. Watt and is doing nicely.

There has been considerable talk of amending the constitution of the Union church to conform more completely to the idea of church federation. Some feel that in an entirely new constitution the present desire would be fully carried out. All interested are invited to be present next Sunday at 11:30.

Model Bakery advertisement featuring an image of a loaf of bread and text: 'The Bread We Offer is a boon to women worried with home baking.
