

THE UP-TO-DATE STORE

The Florsheim SHOE

For Any Wear and Everywhere

Satisfaction in every pair.

For the Man Who Cares

Most Styles $5.00

Our Shoes Guaranteed.

Every Pair All Leather

The Duke

Tan or Black. Extra Selected Calfskin. Elegant Custom Lines. Low Heel.

HOLEPROOF HOSE Guaranteed Six Months

Our Fall Stock

IS RELIABLE

Bought with the Cash in the best markets known.

We can supply your every need. Our staff of salespeople are right onto everything connected with our line. We want YOUR business, and we will hold it.

FRANK A. CRAM

It's Not What You Pay But What You Get!

"Natural Shape" Lasts and Florsheim Quality insure comfort, long wear and enduring style.

The Florsheim SHOE

The shoe for the man who cares

THE SPEED WILL GIVE YOU A STEADY GAIT Five Dollars the Pair

We Fit Your Feet. Our Shoes Are Reliable

BUTTERICK PATTERNS Sold Only Here

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Mrs. A. H. Rables gave a luncheon Thursday in honor of Mrs. Marion MacRae.

Before buying, see Howell Bros.' new apple rack with the latest improvements.

Mrs. Mabel Hanley of Portland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Boorman, here last week.

F. D. Nunamaker left Friday for the O. A. C., where he will start his second year as a student of agriculture.

Dr. Ray Palmer, who was called here by the death of his son, returned to Warrensburg, Mo., the last of the week.

Mrs. Hans Lage went to Portland the last of the week to visit her sister, Mrs. Keller, who recently arrived from Germany.

Miss Hazel Smith left Friday for a short visit in Portland, after which she will go to Salem to attend the Willamette University.

Mrs. Robert Wahlstrom of the Upper Valley has been entertaining Mrs. W. H. Webster and Miss Ella I. Webster of Mitchell, S. D.

W. H. Goodenough left Friday for Spokane, where he has accepted a position as superintendent of the paper mill operated by the Inland Paper Company.

Miss Ruth Morrison and Miss Edythe Brunquist left Friday for Corvallis, where Miss Brunquist will continue her studies and Miss Morrison will matriculate.

Mrs. Una Dabney visited her parents here last week while on her way to join her husband at Weiser, Idaho, where he is employed as superintendent of a large fruit tract.

B. E. Duncan has sold to C. T. Roberts 80 acres of Camas Prairie bottom land, which Mr. Roberts intends to place under cultivation. The drainage system is now effective and work turning over about six acres a day. He expects to plow and plant about 400 acres.

F. X. Arens, leader of the People's Symphony Orchestra of New York City and owner of a 65-acre ranch here, left the last of the week to return East after spending the summer here. Mr. Arens was entertained during his visit in Portland by Mr. and Mrs. Max Fleischner and their daughter, Mrs. Henry Metzger, a former music pupil of Mr. Arens, and by Mrs. Imogene Harding-Brodie.

On Saturday the Billmore Forest School, under the guidance of its director, Dr. Carl Schenck, passed through Hood River en route to its winter quarters at Baen Stadt, Germany. Russell G. Pond of the Upper Valley joined them and went as far as Deschutes Junction, where he branched off to go to Prineville to visit his friend, Henry McCall, who has recently purchased a large hay and stock ranch on Crooked River.

Line and Spray—Kelly Bros., phone 227-M.

Some money to loan or invest in good real estate security. E. H. Hartwig, 361c.

When you get ready for a box nailing machine, see Howell Bros. They have them in stock.

Mrs. L. M. Fowler of Rufus, Ore., spent several days last week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bert Stramham.

Miss Laura Dorner of Seattle arrived last week to assist in teaching in the grades here, the increased attendance making an additional teacher necessary.

A. W. Peters made a business trip to Portland Saturday in the interests of the Hood River Apple & Storage Company. The company shipped a car of d'Anjou pears Sunday.

George R. Putnam of Washington, D. C., lighthouse inspector in the Federal service, visited his brother, John R. Putnam, the last of the week while making a trip through the Northwest.

Wyeth Allen left the first of the week to enter upon his sophomore year at Ann Arbor, where he is a student in the engineering department of the university.

Orchardists who desire one of the spray calendars just compiled by Professor Lawrence may obtain them from any of the shipping organizations or from Mr. Lawrence's office in the Hellbronner Building.

J. M. Armstrong, a former resident here and now of Lapeer, Mich., visited H. M. Francis last week while on his way to Corvallis, where he will begin his second year as a student in horticulture.

A. I. Mason has received from W. S. U'Ren an acceptance of the invitation to meet Charles Shields in debate on the single tax at the Pine Grove schoolhouse. The debate will be as soon as convenient after the tenth of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Y. Edwards left Monday for Chicago, where they formerly lived. They expect to visit other Eastern points and will be gone about two months. They are making the trip in hopes of benefiting Mr. Edwards' health.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Canfield and son of Oregon City spent the week end as the guests of their daughter, Mrs. L. A. Henderson. On Sunday they took a trip across the river and inspected the operations at the Northwestern Electric Company's dam.

While in the News office last week W. A. Eby showed a picture of a sunflower raised on his place. It was 16 feet tall and the big sunflower at the top was 20 inches in diameter. Mr. Eby, whose picture is taken standing beside the stalk, looks like a giant in comparison.

"Young man, get a piece of land" for sale by the owner at bargain price and liberal terms and time. Eight acres good garden truck and orchard land three miles out. Attorney E. H. Hartwig, Smith Block, Hood River, Oregon. 361c.

Miss Nettie Allen was a Portland visitor the last of the week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Rainey in the Barrett district the last of the week.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sam G. Campbell of Pine Grove the last of the week.

J. L. Lambert of White Salmon had his appendix removed at the local hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Temple came up from Portland this week to spend a few days on their ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Coburn Allen are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Sieg were entertained over the week end at the home of Col. and Mrs. W. E. Tucker.

George Gregory, employed by the Stanley-Smith Company, submitted to an operation at the hospital Thursday.

Miss Mary Allen and Mr. Harris of the Upper Valley are among those attending packing school.

Special Harvest Dances will be held at Hellbronner Hall every Saturday night from 9 to 12 p. m. Everyone welcome. 391c.

Two beautiful building lots fronting on Park Avenue and Tenth streets for sale. Inquire Reed & Henderson, Inc. 271c.

A public dance was given at Hellbronner hall Saturday evening. These dances are hereafter to be a weekly event.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Cowlishaw of Portland are spending a few days in the Upper Valley, where she has extensive land holdings.

A marriage license was issued at the courthouse Monday to Charles Isham Moody of the Upper Valley and Miss Marguerite D. Blake.

A. J. Methena of Portland, who is operating a truck for the contractors across the river, is undergoing treatment here for an injured ankle.

Miss Ann Shepard is attending Miss Catlin's private school in Portland. Mrs. Shepard and daughter, Olivia, were in Portland last week, when Miss Olivia submitted to a minor operation.

Views of the recent Chautauqua are now on sale at Slocum's book store. There is one view of the assemblage and others of the grounds. A part of the proceeds from the sale of the pictures will go to the Chautauqua fund. They are being sold in sets.

Mrs. W. A. Schaffner entertained very delightfully Friday afternoon and evening at the Commercial Club rooms. Whist was played and there were nine tables in the afternoon and fourteen in the evening. The room was tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and a profusion of asters. Electric reading lamps were also effectively used. Mr. and Mrs. Schaffner together received their guests in the evening. In the afternoon Mrs. L. A. Henderson took the first prize and Miss Griffith the consolation prize. In the evening Roy Gill carried off the honors among the gentlemen, while John Otten was given the consolation prize. For the ladies Mrs. Otten was first and Mrs. P. M. Morse was given the consolation prize.

Miss Margaret Thomas, who has been spending the summer on the Thompson ranch back of White Salmon, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Skinner the first of the week on her way to California.

Wills Van Horn returned Sunday from a trip to New York.

Mrs. Frank Deem was a Portland visitor the last of the week.

Steve Eby, who has been seriously ill, is reported to be improving.

W. C. Smulla and family left Monday to spend the winter at Gresham.

Charles W. Gunn of Odell, formerly of Parkdale, is attending packing school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Mason and son Roy were Portland visitors the last of the week.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thomas of the Belmont district died Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McIsaac of Parkdale went to Portland Sunday for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Boe of Parkdale went to Portland Friday to spend a couple of weeks.

Mrs. D. E. Rand has returned from Portland where she has been visiting friends for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Bates and two sons of Portland spent the last of the week on an outing here.

R. W. Ordway and family have gone to Silverton, to spend a couple of months on their place there.

Miss Pearl Bradley and Miss Ada Mark left Sunday evening to resume their studies at the Willamette University.

W. H. Moore, formerly a prominent Portland banker and now of Moro, was a visitor in the city last week.

Mrs. George Farley and daughter, Miss Etta, were here from Portland over Sunday visiting the former's son, S. J. Frank.

C. D. Thompson left Saturday for Corvallis, where Mrs. Thompson had previously been called on account of the death of a nephew.

E. A. Schiffer of Pendleton, who has city property here, was a visitor in town the last of the week, accompanied by Mrs. Schiffer.

The sophomore class of the High School gave a surprise party the last of the week for Will Huggins, who has moved to Salem with his parents.

Miss Helen Flanders of New York City and Mrs. J. W. Church of Portland were Sunday guests of J. D. McCully and family.

C. C. Carpenter was here Sunday. Mr. Carpenter and family, who are now living at Portland, expect to be members of a party who will attend the Round-up at Pendleton this week in a private train.

Miss May Campbell of Orange, N. J., who has been spending a month with her sister, Mrs. Grace Babson, in the Upper Valley, left Sunday evening to return East by way of California.

Dr. A. H. Lathrop, formerly pastor of the Methodist church here, has been assigned to Trinity church at Keokuk, Iowa, one of the largest and most responsible charges in that state.

Miss Margaret Thomas, who has been spending the summer on the Thompson ranch back of White Salmon, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Skinner the first of the week on her way to California.

E. E. Coad went to Portland Sunday for a short stay.

Mrs. Lina McCann makes all kinds of hair goods from combings. Phone 167-X. 3942p.

Miss LeVerne Hershner of Portland spent Sunday at the home of Rev. J. L. Hershner.

L. H. Huggins and family left Sunday for Salem, Chester remaining for a short time longer.

G. M. Raymond, who is employed at the Northwestern Company's dam, visited friends here Sunday.

We now have our Fall line of hats on display and invite the ladies of Hood River to call and inspect them. Miss M. B. Lamb.

Mrs. H. G. Moe returned to Dayton, Wash., Sunday after visiting relatives, including Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moe and Mrs. F. H. Blackman, here.

Edward DeWitt, who shot one of his toes off a few days ago, was able to return to the Kellogg and Marquis ranch, where he is staying, Monday.

Mrs. Jenny Brown of the Heights broke her right shoulder Friday while going down the steps at the Baptist church, when she accidentally fell.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Fletcher and family of Illinois have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Schmeitser. They may later return to locate here.

Miss Martha Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson of Odell, sustained a broken arm last week when their automobile was upset in passing a team.

Freshmen at the U. of O. who were admitted to the Greek letter fraternities include three from Hood River, John Coshow and Donald Onthank have been admitted to the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and Miss Eva Brock to Gamma Phi Beta.

Dr. and Mrs. H. D. W. Pines and little daughter Margaret returned Thursday. Dr. Pines went as far as Calgary, Canada, meeting Mrs. Pines there on her return from the East, where she spent the summer. They made the trip south through Victoria and Vancouver, B. C.

H. B. Lovelace, who said he was a cross country biker bound from San Francisco to Bangor, Me., was in Hood River the last of the week. He said he was doing the stunt on a $500 bet. Lovelace is one of the deluded youths who had rather tramp around the country than earn an honest living.

Four of Hood River's crack tennis players—Harry DeWitt, Charles Hall, E. C. Smith and J. A. Epping—went to The Dalles Sunday and cleaned up everything in sight, not losing a match. A number of local racket welders are planning to compete in the big tournament to be held at Prineville next month.

Fordham and Stuart Kimball left Monday for Boston. From there they will go to New York and join the Sargent traveling school. They will then sail for Italy as members of the school, later traveling in Germany, France, Holland and England, pursuing their studies at the same time. They expect to return to Hood River next June.

Have You Seen the New Victor-Victrolas? There are three New Styles, placed on sale September 15th. Price $75, $100 and $150. They are beauties. Call and see them. We have other styles from $15 to $200. We also sell the Edison and Columbia Machines, and Records. We represent the Baldwin, Ellington, Hamilton and Howard Pianos, and deal direct with the factory. Easy terms if desired. When you want anything in Music, call on us; if we haven't it, we will get it. "WAGGENER WANTS YOUR TRADE" WAGGENER'S MUSIC HOUSE

Insure with Reed & Henderson, Inc. Fire, Accident, Life, Automobile, Plate Glass, Burglary, Employer's Liability, including FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS. Also Judicial, Official and Indemnity Bonds. Resident Agent for: Travelers Insurance Co. Pacific Coast Casualty Co. Commercial Union Assurance Co., Ltd., of London Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York Pelican Assurance Co. of New York Real Estate Loans Investments

APPLE RACKS WE ARE now building Apple Racks and have several completed. You will be in need of one to haul that bumper crop of apples. Place your order early. We make a Specialty of Tightening Wagon Wheels W. G. SNOW (Successor to SNOW & UPSON) Phone 62-K Fourth Street

Auto Livery at Parkdale Will carry parties to any part of the Valley, or Cloud Cap Inn. Calls promptly answered. Phone Odell 188 J. M. CLARK

S. E. BARTMESS Funeral Director and Practical Embalmer ESTABLISHED 15 YEARS HOOD RIVER, OREGON