UPPER VALLEY

Born, on September 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Martin O. Boe, a son. V. W. Thomas of Pittsburg, Pa., is visiting John Goldsberry. J. E. Van Nuys and Orville Thompson recently attended the Round-up at Pendleton. Col. and Mrs. W. F. Tucker went to Portland Sunday to spend a few days. L. H. Rose and sister, Miss Matie, spent the last of the week in Hood River. Mrs. D. H. Percell of Oregon City is visiting her son, who is an Upper Valley teacher. W. H. Tobey is expected home this week from a visit in Wenatchee. After several months' absence, Mrs. Harvey Hutson, with her small son, arrived at Parkdale last Friday. Miss Alice Collie of East Orange, New Jersey, is spending a month with Mrs. Chas. Steinhauer. Mrs. E. D. London and Miss Frances Gill of Portland are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Candee. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thompson have as their guest Mrs. Mason of Portland. E. H. Shepard and Truman Butler of Hood River were also recent visitors at the Thompson home. Mrs. Peironnet and Miss Peironnet, who have been spending the summer with J. L. Peironnet, left Monday evening for Chicago, where they will spend the winter. As the dates for the first number in the Upper Valley entertainment course conflict, Douglas Gordon has withdrawn the invitations for the elaborate barn dance at Gordonhurst Orchards. The beautiful shackteau that Ray Babson is erecting is rapidly nearing completion. Its architecture is a hybrid of English, Gothic and Tuscan. Ray is giving his personal attention to the installation of the heating plant and an early housewarming is looked for. In his recently issued real estate market report, Ward Ireland Cornell, the Upper Valley broker, looks for continued activity in the development of orchard land and building operations. The statement enumerates a number of contracts that have been executed for land clearing and home building. The transformation that is taking place on the old Ries place speaks volumes for the progressiveness of J. F. Thompson, the new owner. Mr. Thompson is associated with A. Millard of Omaha in the Almira Orchards, one of the show places in the Upper Valley. Barrett Smith, advertising manager of the Stone Webster Corporation of Boston, and son of Paymaster General Smith of the U. S. Army, was visiting Rae Babson last week. Mr. Smith was inspecting the big power plant at White Salmon for his company and expressed himself as being more impressed by the Upper Valley than any farming community that he had seen in the Northwest. Cal Douglas, the ex-warden of the Winter prison, has sold the jail and left for a warmer climate. Before going he paid a visit to the tonsorial artist who holds forth at Parkdale by appointment. Cal being "next" took the chair and began scratching the few hairs that remained upon his dome. A small boy who was watching the operation bawled out, "Say, mister, chase him out in the open and then you will have a chance." The barber, after making a few lightning passes, asked Cal if he would have bayrum, "No, give me whiskey," was the reply. BLAKE-MOODY At a very pretty and simple wedding in the United church at Parkdale on Tuesday morning, Oct. 1, Miss Marguerite Dominick Blake, daughter of the late Rev. Alfred P. Blake of Cincinnati, Ohio, was united in matrimony to Charles Isham Moody, son of Mrs. William Henry Moody of the Upper Valley, by Rev. Edmund Trew Simpson, rector of St. Mark's church in Hood River. The bride, who wore a gown of pale blue silk, was given away by her brother, William Blake of Cleveland, Ohio, and the best man was Rev. William Lowry Van Nuys of the Upper Valley. Kingsley R. McGuffey, organist of the Upper Valley church, at the opening of the ceremony played "Prayer" from Lohengrin, followed by the wedding march from the same opera, as the bridal party proceeded up the aisle, and closing with Mendelssohn's wedding march after the ceremony. Just the intimate friends of the bride and groom were present. After the ceremony the bridal party partook of a dainty luncheon served in the grove at Parkdale, and later the bride and groom left for a horseback camping trip in the mountains. After October 10th Mr. and Mrs. Moody will be at home on their ranch in the Upper Valley.

Margaret Mitchell spent Sunday at Odell. Calvin Marks is clerking for the Conaway Mercantile Co. Rev. C. M. Carson will preach at the M. E. church next Sunday night. O. H. Rhoades and son Lewis started Friday on a four days' hunting trip. Mr. Aiken's new home near Neal Creek will soon be completed. Tom Absher is the carpenter. Will Kemp has discarded his crutches for a cane and expects to walk without any assistance in a month. Roy Masiker's private round-up with a supposedly gentle cow is likely to have no serious consequences as a result of our resident doctor's ministrations. Roy Masiker, Ed Jeppesen, Marion Hunter, Glenn Young and Aubrey Davis attended the Round-Up at Pendleton. They say it was the biggest time Pendleton ever had and that the show was "just great." Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Young met the belated train from the East Sunday night to welcome Mrs. Ethel Horne of Weiser, Idaho. Odell growers are cheered by the reports from the Hood River Apple Growers' Union and are confident that Manager Sieg will make good. A young girl arriving from Portland late Saturday night found nobody to meet her, owing to a misunderstanding. A young Odell man volunteered to drive her to where her parents were camping. The search was a difficult one as the family had moved, but they were finally located near Summit. Moral—Young girls should not use the late train unless absolutely necessary.

BARRETT

T. Bishop attended the Round-Up at Pendleton. W. Staufer is in Lexington on business. Mrs. C. Nesbit, who has been quite ill, is much improved. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sweany spent the week end in Portland. The Rally Day services held in the Valley Christian church were most enjoyable with a large congregation and a well rendered program, the church was beautiful in Autumn leaves and flowers. Mrs. Leonard Armstrong left for Portland Sunday. She will be gone for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Brierly were recent visitors at the home of Mr. Brierly's sister, Mrs. E. J. Boyce. B. L. Murphy left last week for Holland, Oregon, to take charge of the school at that place. Frank Miller of Scholl, Oregon, is the guest of his brother, Fred Miller. E. Sweaney entertained a number of friends at a surprise dinner given in honor of the return of Mrs. Sweaney who had spent three months in Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. Sweaney's reputation as a cook and host are established for all time among those who enjoyed his hospitality. Those present were Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gibbons, B. F. Thomas, Mrs. A. A. Bennett, Mrs. W. E. Caulter and daughter Margaret. Mrs. W. E. Caulter entertained the Queen Esther Sunday School class at her home on Friday, Sept. 20. A most enjoyable evening was spent. Refreshments were served. Sanford Tate had a most unpleasant experience Thursday morning. He attempted to board the Mt. Hood train while it was in motion and was seriously injured. Whether he fell or was struck by a pole he can not tell, and no one saw the accident. He was confined to his bed for several days but is much improved. Mrs. J. A. Bennett entertained her Sunday School class and their friends at a "Children's Party." The young people were required to dress like children and enjoyed various children's games. Everyone says a "fine time."

BELMONT

Mrs. Forden has been quite ill, but is much better. Steve Eby was out riding last week and is reported to be fully recovered from his recent illness. The Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. E. E. Rugg Friday. H. Woodworth has returned sufficiently recovered to resume his duties as mail carrier. Mrs. Glen Marsh has returned from a several weeks' visit to New York with her parents and other friends. Her many friends are glad to have her with them again. C. M. Rugg has been called to the East Side to run the steam roller. Mr. Gallaway is packing as fine a quality of Jonathans from his home orchard as one might wish to see. H. T. Regnell is in Seattle engaged in the jewelry business, leaving his ranch under the careful management of his sons. Mrs. Anderson has recovered sufficiently to be out once more. Rev. H. O. Perry, district superintendent, will preach at the Methodist church tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Clark, a former minister of the M. E. church of Belmont, accompanied by his wife, has been spending a few days at the Stout home previous to his appointment in Yakima. Rev. Anderson invited him to preach Sunday evening, which he did, using for his subject "Does It Pay to Be a Christian?" He was listened to by many of his old time friends, all of whom appreciated his excellent discourse. CASCADE LOCKS Mrs. H. S. Adams and daughter, Hazel, have been spending several days with Mrs. W. V. Hutchinson. Rev. H. C. Clark, former pastor here, was in town Saturday. Mrs. Eva Anders entertained the business meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society last Thursday. After the business meeting, musical selections were enjoyed. While playing football last week Lawrence Peterson fell and sprained his ankle. The Epworth League will hold a business meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. V. Hutchinson. Episcopal services were conducted in the Methodist church Sunday evening. R. & N. station here and are greatly appreciated by all of the residents. The DeMoss concert which was given here Tuesday, September 24, was largely attended and enjoyed by all.

After the Doctor-- THE DRUGGIST The doctor's work is only half what has to be done for the patient. And if the druggist be lacking in ability and care the prescription might as well have never been written. But we make a special study of each case and our own medical knowledge is thorough enough to be of great use to us in those sometimes occurring cases when the doctor, in his haste, makes a slight error.

is simply impossible. To equal it is nearly so. This is a pretty broad claim and we don't ask you to take our mere word for it. Try our bread for a week or so and prove for yourself whether our claim is justified. We believe you will extend your trade definitely.
