

Do You Get What You Pay For?

Getting what you pay for in Style, Fit, Quality and Satisfaction--that's a proposition that's not always easy when you start out to buy wearing apparel. Do your trading here. Learn what it means to patronize a store that sells satisfaction. You'll discover there's One Store that considers its customers' interests first--That gives you all you pay for.

FITFORM

Butterick Patterns Free

Buy Your Materials Here and Get the Best Pattern Free

New Blankets
39c to $15.00

We Sell
Holeproof Hose
Guaranteed 6 Months

Men's Box Back
Fall Suits
$15.00, $20.00 and $25

FRANK A. CRAM, ALWAYS UP-TO-DATE

FITFORM

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

John Weaver gave a stag party to about 25 of his friends one day last week.

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Laraway were visitors in Portland Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. A. H. McCurtain of Portland visited her sister, Mrs. B. E. Duncan, last week.

F. C. Sherrieb and family were among those who attended the fair at The Dalles last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Selling of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hellbroner last week.

A marriage license was issued by County Clerk Hanson Wednesday to Harry H. Bennett and Lucy Fuhr.

Mrs. Emma C. Willis and son Austin left Thursday for Salt Lake City, where they will make an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. H. W. Sudheimer.

The High School Seniors gave the Juniors a reception on the beach Friday evening and the affair was an enjoyable one, marred only by an attempted raid by the two lower classes on the provisions.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Clark went to Rockaway, Ore., the last of the week. They will spend the month there, Mr. Clark enjoying the duck and goose hunting. Deer and other large game is also to be found in the mountains thereabouts.

Registration books for the county will close at 5 o'clock on Saturday, the 19th. All who desire to vote at the general election and who have not already registered this year must do so at the county courthouse on or before that date.

CULL APPLES

Hood River Apple Vinegar Co. will pay $8 per ton for this grade in sacks delivered to factory. Sept. 25, 1912.

When you meet

a stylish turnout that is in good repair, you may wish to know where the best horse-shoeing is to be found. You may need the...

Services of a Horseshoer any day. We do that work exclusively and with the greatest skill. Come here when you require our services. Our charges are moderate.

SHIVELY & DRISCOLL
Phone 62-X

The Tire Shop buys old auto tires and inner tubes. Itc

Mrs. R. E. Harblson of Hillsboro, visited friends here the last of the week.

F. E. Brosius, formerly a rancher here and now of Prineville, is spending the week here.

S. L. Young of Vancouver, Wash., arrived Saturday to visit his brother, B. T. Young, at Odell.

Attorney and Mrs. Jesse Stearns of Portland are spending the week here while the Circuit Court is in session.

H. V. Raymond, formerly a clerk at the Hotel Gearhart, has been employed by the Hotel Oregon as night clerk.

George A. Clough and daughter of Arlington, Ore., came here the last of the week to spend a few days at their ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Taylor were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Coleman at The Dalles a few days last week.

Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, state president of the Oregon Federation of Woman's Clubs, is the guest of Mrs. Charles Castner today.

Miss Ottilie G. Boetzkes of Seattle, who has a ranch here, is in town arranging for the construction of a bungalow on her property.

J. W. Allen of The Dalles, who is running as an independent candidate for the office of district attorney, was in town Monday. "Enforce the law or repeal it" and "A square deal to all" are Mr. Allen's slogans.

Pastor E. A. Harris announces the engagement of the Fellows' Grand Opera Company for a concert Monday evening, Oct. 28th, in Riverside church. This company is the most pretentious Lyceum musical organization coming West this year.

Dr. J. H. McVay of Toledo, O., arrived the last of the week to make his future home here. Dr. McVay bought a 20-acre place in Willow Flat from C. R. Bone last May. Mrs. McVay will join him here later. Dr. McVay has for nearly 20 years been one of the most prominent physicians and surgeons of Toledo and retired from his profession to take up the less arduous duties of orcharding.

Over a score of new members were formally admitted to the Congregational church at the services Sunday morning. They included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Price, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Berry, also Carl, Arnold, Margaret and Marle Berry, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Earl, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bailey, Mr. and W. W. Rodwell, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Bianchar, Ass. Cutler, Mrs. W. L. Nichols, Mrs. W. R. Gibson and Mrs. F. T. Lisco.

Money to Loan

Amounts $500 to $1500. First class real estate security. Will also buy mortgages for like amounts.

30c

REED & HENDERSON.

Miss Irving, a nurse from Seattle, arrived last week to join the corps of nurses at the hospital.

Mrs. L. Hunt submitted to an operation at the hospital Friday and is reported to be doing nicely.

Mrs. C. W. Nottingham returned to Portland Monday after spending a month with her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Forden.

Mrs. Guy Smith, who has been undergoing treatment at the hospital, was able to return to her home at Odell Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Moller were in Portland the last of the week to attend a wedding reception given for Mrs. Moller's brother and his bride.

After spending a short vacation with his parents here, S. E. Buck leaves today to enter the Behne Walker Business College at Portland.

School Superintendent Thompson received 600 volumes the last of the week, which will be placed in the various school districts of the county.

Buy a business block in downtown city property at a price and terms that suit you. Address Attorney E. H. Hartwig or A. A. Jayne, Hood River, Ore. 36c

Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, state president of the Oregon Federation of Woman's Clubs, will speak at the meeting of the Woman's Club to be held this (Wednesday) afternoon. The meeting is at 2:30 o'clock at the Commercial Club and a full attendance is urged.

H. C. Peters has brought an injunction suit in the Circuit Court against R. E. Robertson. The latter is Mr. Peters' neighbor on the east and the suit is to restrain him from alleged trespassing on the Peters place by breaking down the fence and passing through to the main road.

Two Greek workmen were brought to the local hospital from the dam at Underwood the last of the week. Both had broken legs. They tried to ride a "carrier" across the canyon, holding on by their hands. Their strength gave out before they got across and they fell to the rocks beneath.

The O. W. R. & N. Company has brought suit against F. H. Button and wife to condemn a piece of land just east of the company's Hood River bridge. The company is planning to take out one of the curves at that point and says that Mr. and Mrs. Button have refused to accept $4,650 as the amount of damages.

The Wasco Warehouse & Milling Company has replaced the mill at The Dalles which was destroyed by fire and has installed one of the most modern equipments in the country. Their agents here, Stranahan & Clark, have just received a shipment of the celebrated White River flour which will once more be for sale here.

Chester A. Congdon of Duluth and Albert S. Congdon of North Yakima, brothers, were guests at the Mt. Hood Hotel a couple of days the last of the week. They have between two and three hundred acres of orchards at North Yakima and were here studying orchard conditions, cold storage plants and packing.

CULL APPLES

Hood River Apple Vinegar Co. will pay $8 per ton for this grade in sacks delivered to factory. Sept. 25, 1912.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Parker Saturday.

The Tire Shop pays cash for all old tires and tubes delivered to shop. Itc

The stork brought Mr. and Mrs. R. Faganly of Wilson street a son on Thursday.

Mrs. F. F. McCrea left Monday for Indianapolis, where she will spend the winter.

Ben B. Moeze of Tanana, Alaska, arrived Monday to visit his sister, Mrs. G. O. Grice.

G. W. Butts arrived from Omaha Saturday to visit his brother, A. Butts, in Belmont.

Miss Marie Kuzat, a nurse from St. Vincent's hospital at Portland, is visiting Mrs. J. R. Nickelsen at Alder Brook.

Mrs. Thomas League of White Salmon had a tumor removed from her eyelid at the local hospital the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hecker of Chicago, who have a place here, arrived Monday. They have just returned from a trip abroad.

Mrs. C. A. Bell has been spending several days at Milwaukie, Ore., called there by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Wessinger.

The Kensington Club of the U. B. church will meet at the home of Mrs. Walter Walters on East Sherman street Friday afternoon.

Mrs. M. H. Moody returned East the last of the week after attending the wedding of her son, Charles I. Moody, in the Upper Valley.

Mrs. A. L. Archer and daughter, Miss S. B. Archer, arrived from Minneapolis Monday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George I. Sargent.

William F. Shuler and son Frank of Hamilton, O., arrived Monday to visit Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Bronson and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Skinner for a day or two.

G. R. Frey, formerly of the Upper Valley, who has been employed on the railroad out of LaGrande, returned here the last of the week on account of poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Van Horn left yesterday for New York, where they expect to remain until the holidays. Their son Ned will have charge of the ranch during their absence.

The following were drawn to serve on the grand jury at the opening of Circuit Court for the October term Monday. Charles Gray, T. A. Decker, W. W. Rodwell, J. A. King, P. S. Davidson, C. C. Walton and Mark Cameron.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Alfred T. Allen, formerly of this place and now of Portland, and Miss Lulu Muriel Tidd. The ceremony took place September 21 at the home of the bride's parents in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Allen will be at home after November 1 at 395 Twenty-fourth street, Portland.

Sam Hill, accompanied by Major H. L. Bowly, executive officer of the Pacific Highway Association, spent Saturday here touring the valley and incidentally enrolling members for the association, which is attempting to have the Pacific Highway routed up the Columbia from Portland to The Dalles and south through Central Oregon to California.

Lime and Spray--Kelly Bros., phone 227-M.

Mrs. Arthur Vincent submitted to a minor operation Monday.

Mrs. James Stranahan is spending a few days in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. V. McFarland arrived Monday and are guests of Raymond Early.

Shively and Driscoll, the horse-shoers, have opened a branch shop at Cascade Locks.

Dr. H. E. Dumble has just installed a new and up-to-date X-ray equipment in his office.

Attorney E. C. Bronaugh of Portland came up Monday to transact legal business in the Circuit Court.

Miss Kathrine Whitmar of Portland came up Monday to be the guest of Mrs. Charles Castner for a few days.

Special Harvest Dances will be held at Hellbroner Hall every Saturday night from 9 to 12 p. m. Everyone welcome. 39c

A. E. Lathrop has accepted a position with the Up-to-Date Store, where he will be glad to meet his many friends.

Yale McCarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McCarty, broke his wrist the last of the week while doing stunts in the gymnasium.

Captain E. A. Sugg of Galveston, Texas, has arrived in the city and will engage in the real estate business with Drewry Whitston.

The ladies of the Baptist church (the Heights) will serve dinner in the dining room of the church to the teachers during the institute. 41-42c

W. R. Gibson, who was across the river at Underwood Monday, reports that two Indians who were fishing in the stream that day discovered the body of a man who had been dead several weeks. The remains were beyond identification.

W. S. Mount and son George of Canterbury, England, spent a couple of days here the last of the week. Mr. Mount has about 200 acres of apple orchard in England and was much interested in studying the methods used here. In England many of the same scientific methods are employed, including Bordeaux and arsenate sprays, clean cultivation and pruning.

E. L. McClain, Jr., is entertaining his parents and his sister at his "Snow View" ranch on the East Side. Mr. and Mrs. McClain have visited in the valley before. They are no exception to the general rule in that they are greatly impressed with both the scenery and the enterprise that everywhere abounds. Mr. McClain may make some further investments before returning East.

Vice President J. P. O'Brien of the O. W. R. & N. was here in his private car all day Saturday. He was accompanied by some friends with whom he took an automobile trip through the valley, wishing to give them an opportunity to see the show place of the Northwest. Superintendent Bolens of the road, Principal Assistant Chase and Assistant Superintendent W. M. Jaskie were also in the party. They came to go over the ground east of the city where some of the curves are to be eliminated.

Have You Seen the New Victor-Victrolas?

There are three New Styles, placed on sale September 15th. Price $75, $100 and $150. They are beauties. Call and see them. We have other styles from $15 to $200. We also sell the Edison and Columbia Machines, and Records.

We represent the Baldwin, Ellington, Hamilton and Howard Pianos, and deal direct with the factory. Easy terms if desired.

When you want anything in Music, call on us; if we haven't it, we will get it.

"WAGGENER WANTS YOUR TRADE"

WAGGENER'S MUSIC HOUSE

Insure with Reed & Henderson, Inc.

Fire, Accident, Life, Automobile, Plate Glass, Burglary, Employer's Liability, including FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS.

Also Judicial, Official and Indemnity Bonds

Resident Agent for: Travelers Insurance Co. Pacific Coast Casualty Co. Commercial Union Assurance Co., Ltd., of London Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York Pelican Assurance Co. of New York

Real Estate Loans Investments

APPLE RACKS

WE ARE now building Apple Racks and have several completed. You will be in need of one to haul that bumper crop of apples. Place your order early.

We make a Specialty of Tightening Wagon Wheels

W. G. SNOW

(Successor to SNOW & UPSON)

Phone 62-K

Fourth Street

A Complete Line of...

Fresh Groceries

At Honest Prices

Can always be found at this Up-to-date Store

Kinnaird & Larwood

Cor. 2nd and Oak Sts.

Phone 78