

BOX BACK
Men's Suits
$15.00 to $25.00

FITFORM

A LARGE SHIPMENT of PETTICOATS
Worth $5.00 each, in all good colors, made of Crystal Messaline, Special $1.95

Buy Your Material Here and Get a Butterick Pattern FREE

Ladies' Neckwear

Just from New York
--no two alike--all
the New Ideas...
Priced from 25c to $5.00

LaVogue Cloaks and Suits
A new shipment
Just Received

Bachelor Underwear
No Buttons

Regular 75c Values

Special 50c

See Window

Wool Blankets

White and Colored
Buying direct for Cash
makes a Big Saving for you

Cotton Blankets
39c to $2.20

Bath Robe Blankets and
Crib Blankets

FRANK A. CRAM

Xtragoood Suits and Overcoats
$4.90 to $10.00

XTRAGOOD

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Peter Shively was called to Portland Monday on account of the death of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Zweigert of Eighth street are rejoicing over the birth of a son Thursday.

A son was born here Saturday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crapper, whose home is at Lyle.

Mrs. L. Hunt, who submitted to a serious operation about a week ago, is reported as making a good recovery.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Holbrook died Sunday. Mrs. Holbrook is reported to be recovering.

Kingsley R. MacGuffey of the Upper Valley leaves October 17 for Los Angeles where he will spend the winter.

The guild of St. Mark's church will meet Friday afternoon at three o'clock with Mrs. W. H. Lawrence on Cascade avenue.

Professors Krause, Bares and Bailey of the O. A. C. spent several days in the valley last week studying some local orchard problems.

Olaf Larsen of Underwood, who has been a patient at the hospital for a month past with typhoid fever, was able to return home Sunday.

Miss Beth Edgington and Miss May Chase, who are attending St. Elizabeth's Academy at The Dalles, spent the week end at their homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hellbronner went to Portland Monday, he to spend a couple of days and Mrs. Hellbronner to visit friends for a couple of weeks.

George H. Hines of Portland, secretary of the Oregon Historical Society, spent several days in the city last week and attended the Congressional conference.

Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday the registration books at the county courthouse will be kept open between seven and eight o'clock in the evening as well as during the day. They will close at five o'clock next Monday.

Bluestone for sale by the Davidson Fruit Co.

Mrs. F. Eggert of Portland spent the week end here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Powers of Portland spent the week end here.

The stork brought Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eastman of Belmont a girl on Friday.

Miss A. M. Spring and her sister left Monday for New York, where they will spend the winter.

A son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Emills here Monday. They formerly lived at Dee.

Robert Livingstone of Portland came up the last of the week to inspect his property interests here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Somerville returned to Portland Friday after spending a month on their ranch here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Growdon of The Dalles have become residents here and have apartments in the St. Hood Annex.

Mrs. A. A. Couch returned to La Grande Saturday, after spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Robertson.

Miss Stone, who is attending school at Portland, came up Thursday to spend a few days with her father, A. W. Stone, in the Upper Valley.

Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin, superintendent of the Department of Public Safety at Portland, was the guest of Mrs. C. A. Bell the last of the week.

Miss Buckenmeyer, one of the leading dancing teachers of Portland, comes today to hold her first dancing class, which opens with a good enrollment.

In the case of Amos Underwood against the First National Bank to recover $1000 which he alleged had been drawn from the bank on a forged note the jury disagreed after having been out all night Wednesday.

John Goldsberry returned the last of the week from a trip through Central Oregon. He was much impressed with that new country, but says he saw nothing that tempted him to leave the fertile Upper Valley.

Be sure and read Chas. N. Clarke's remarkable offer on page 2.*

The ladies of the Baptist church (the Heights) will serve dinner in the dining room of the church to the teachers during the institute 41-42c.

Attorney and Mrs. A. P. Reed spent the last of the week in Portland.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sears at Oak Grove died the last of the week.

Miss Marion Van Horn, who is attending St. Helens Hall, spent the week end here, accompanied by four school friends--the Misses MacGregor, Miss Constance Fulton and Miss Fox of Astoria and Miss Dela-hay of Port Angeles.

Four Portland youths bound for the cowboy country of Montana were intercepted here Friday evening by Marshal Lewis upon receipt of dispatches from their parents in Portland. The boys, who were about 14 years old, were taken off a freight train and sent back.

Frank Quinn, Fred Miller, Carl Ross and L. S. Isenberg went to Portland Monday to attend the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias. Last evening they were initiated into that lodge. A number of other knights went to the session yesterday.

A number of local racket wielders left yesterday to compete in the tournament to be held at Prineville this week in connection with the county fair. Two autos carried the party, which included Charles Hall, E. C. Smith, H. T. DeWitt, H. A. MacDonald, E. A. Franz, Frank Cram, Dr. Malcolm Bronson and E. A. Baker.

J. E. Hunt sustained a severely burned arm the last of the week while riding on the chemical fire apparatus on its way from the Heights to the Park Street school. In passing over a rough piece of road a quantity of the strong chemical splashed onto Mr. Hunt's arm. He was taken to the hospital for treatment.

Alexander Millar, secretary of the Harriman and associated lines, was here Saturday with his daughter. Their special train was held for several hours, Mr. Millar having expressed his desire to see the valley. Mayor Blanchard took them for an automobile trip out the East Side, up Van Horn butte and through some of the big orchards. Included in the party was Assistant Superintendent F. L. Coykendall of Portland.

One of the pleasantest social events of the season was given Thursday evening when Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Bronson and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Culbertson were hosts at a dancing party given at Hellbronner Hall. The hall was effectively decorated with a profusion of autumn leaves and colored lights. There were about 150 present. Dainty refreshments were served at midnight, after which dancing was resumed and continued until one o'clock when the party broke up to the strains of "Home, Sweet Home."

CULL APPLES

Hood River Apple Vinegar Co. will pay $8 per ton for this grade in sacks delivered to factory. Sept. 25, 1912.

Regular Sunday excursion to Parkdale. Pleasant trip for yourself and friends.

The Davidson Fruit Company has bluestone for sale.

Austin Osborn of Astoria spent the week with his family on their place here.

Dr. M. E. Welch, wife and two children returned Saturday from their wedding trip.

Miss H. Holmes of Underwood visited friends here a couple of days the last of the week.

Mrs. Frank L. Keating of the Upper Valley returned Friday from a visit in Portland.

W. R. Mackenzie of Portland, who is interested in a local ranch, was here over the week end.

Mrs. Thomas Robertson of Portland was the guest of Mrs. D. E. Rand the last of the week.

Miss Lenore Adams returned Saturday, after spending a couple of weeks visiting friends in Portland.

Albert Sutton, who has closed his office here and opened one at Portland, visited his family the last of the week.

Professor Lawrence is making a number of tests in order to determine whether seab grows in area after packing.

H. Michelstetter and wife of Sioux City, Iowa, came the last of the week to visit their daughter, Mrs. Thrane, at Pine Grove.

Miss Hilma Sweeney and Miss Alda Troedson of Morgan, Ore., arrived Friday to spend a week at the home of Hubbard Taylor.

G. J. Gessling, formerly engaged in the milling business here and now a contractor at Tacoma, was a visitor in the city the last of the week.

Mrs. E. J. Baker, who has been spending the summer with her son, E. A. Baker of the Oregon Hotel, has returned to Los Angeles for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Holmes returned to Rockford, Ill., Saturday, after spending three weeks as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Fields.

Taft rallies have been held this week at Odell and Pine Grove under the auspices of the Taft Republican Club. Hon. S. B. Huston of Portland spoke at Odell Monday evening and at Pine Grove last evening. He is scheduled to speak at Parkdale this evening.

The fire alarm was sounded about 10 o'clock Saturday night and the department promptly responded. Some hot ashes had been thrown into a barrel containing waste paper at the Park Street school and the incipient blaze was discovered by Mrs. Sletton, who sent in the alarm. The fire was extinguished before it did any material damage.

A. S. Keir hooked a Dolly Varden trout the other day that was 19 inches long and weighed two pounds and 11 ounces. He caught the big trout only a short distance up Hood River. "Jake" Schmelzer also caught a big one the other day, but after getting the fish into his basket it turned a somersault over the edge and flopped back into the stream before its captor could head it off. Jake vouches for the story and says the fish was probably the biggest trout that has been hooked here in many years.

Four marriage licenses were issued by Deputy Shoemaker on Friday. They were to Horace A. Hollingshead and Lenore Eastman, George R. Evans and Marie K. Smith, Jesse W. Rigby and Mary Jane Kamerer, Carl Hagen and Gerda Hagbom.

C. A. Cass has been drawn to serve on the jury of the United States District Court at Portland until a new panel is drawn November 4. Mr. Cass was drawn to serve on the July petty jury panel and has now been drafted for additional service.

Tennis players from The Dalles, including Messrs. Hopkins, Simmons, Greene and Goode, accompanied by Miss Bennett and Miss Jacobson, came here Sunday and gracefully submitted to defeat at the hands of local players.

We are making a set of Photographs showing exceptionally fine Trees of Apples and in some cases we include the Orchards and the Scenery where we find conditions especially favorable.

If you have an extra fine tree of fruit which has not been harvested, drop us a line and we will visit your orchard and include your fruit in the fine display of pictures which we will keep in our Portland office.

HAVE YOU A REAL BARGAIN

IN

Improved or Unimproved Orchard Land?

If you have, write to

WHISTON & SUGG

AT ONCE

P. O. Box 635, Hood River, Oregon

And they will call on you and list your property

Mr. Whiston came to Hood River during the past spring for the purpose of getting thoroughly posted on the actual conditions here and has watched the entire process of various orchardists.

From early spring, to and including the harvesting and packing of the mature fruit. Messrs. Whiston & Sugg are going to specialize in Hood River Orchard Properties in Portland where their offices will be located in the Concord Building on Stark Street, Cor. Second.

Insure with Reed & Henderson, Inc.

Fire, Accident, Life, Automobile, Plate Glass,
Burglary, Employer's Liability, including
FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS.

Also Judicial, Official and Indemnity Bonds

Resident Agent for: Travelers Insurance Co.
Pacific Coast Casualty Co.

Commercial Union Assurance Co., Ltd., of London
Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York
Pelican Assurance Co. of New York

Real Estate Loans Investments

Business Block for Sale

Buy a business block in down town city property at a price and terms that suit you. Address Attorney E. H. Hartwig or A. A. Jayne, Hood River, Ore. 36 tfe

Lime and Spray--Kelly Bros., phone 227-M.*

Special Harvest Dances will be held at Hellbronner Hall every Saturday night from 9 to 12 p. m. Everyone welcome. 39 tfe

CULL APPLES
Hood River Apple Vinegar Co. will pay $8 per ton for this grade in sacks delivered to factory. Sept. 25, 1912.