

YOUR RAINCOAT

Has just arrived from New York's Best Makers. Ladies', Men's, Boys' and Girls' $7.90 to $25. THE NEW RAGLAN SHOULDERS, PLAIN OR BELTED BACK.

Warm Blankets

Make life worth living

We had our new Blankets all come by Panama Route and saved greatly on freight. The prices are less than usual.

Napa-Tan Shoes

Are Health Insurance

The best physicians say most colds are caused by wet feet. Just try Our Shoes and remain comfortable.

Always Up-to-Date

FRANK A. CRAM

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Bluestone for sale by the Davidson Fruit Co.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Deem spent the week end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Jackson went to Portland Monday for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Morse have been among the Portland visitors this week.

Mrs. Lina McCann makes all kinds of hair goods from combings. Phone 167-X. 39 42p

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Henderson spent the week end in Portland and Oregon City.

Fred Donnerberg went to Portland Friday to act as best man at a friend's wedding.

Mrs. W. W. Remington will sing the offertory at St. Mark's Episcopal church Sunday.

W. T. Farquhar of Modoc, Ill., arrived Wednesday and is visiting his cousin, Leslie Butler.

W. R. Hoover and wife of Portland spent last week on their ranch in the Barrett district.

Mrs. D. E. Rand spent last week at "Tanglewood" attending her father, who had cut his foot.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson left Saturday to spend a few days visiting friends at Sixpence, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cutler left Monday to spend the winter in Portland. Miss Lucy Cutler will join them later.

Mrs. David Ostler of Deer Lodge, Mont., spent a few days last week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Pratt.

Mrs. C. T. Roberts was taken suddenly ill while leaving church on State street Sunday. She recovered in a short time.

Mrs. C. E. Larson of Portland, whose husband was a former manager of the Mt. Hood Hotel, visited friends here Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. A. C. Lender, 432 Tenth street.

Regular Sunday excursion to Park dale. Pleasant trip for yourself and friends.

The Davidson Fruit Company has bluestone for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. John Otten expect to move in a few days into the attractive residence on State street, which has just been completed.

The Christian Endeavor of the Christian Church will hold a progressive social Friday evening and will meet at the church at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Early returned last week from Southern California, where Mr. Early has been convalescing from his recent illness.

Justice A. C. Buck performed the ceremony Friday that united in matrimony Andrew Gall of Portland and Miss Fern Johnson of this city.

O. M. Berrier of Raymond, Ill., has accepted a position as night clerk at the Mt. Hood Hotel. Fred Walker expects to leave soon for Southern California.

Amos Underwood came over from Underwood Saturday to attend the funeral of his old friend, Frank Noble. The old Indian War veteran is now 78 years old.

Miss Buckenmeyer's Dancing Class for beginners every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Children's class on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Hellbrunner hall.

Mrs. W. J. Knight entertained very pleasantly at Rosemore Friday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Hancock. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of autumn leaves.

Dr. J. M. McVay leaves this week for California. He will meet his wife and they expect to spend a month there before returning here to make their home on his place in Willow Flat.

Mr. and Mrs. Boe of the Upper Valley returned the last of the week from Portland with their little son, who was born there. Mrs. Boe's mother, Mrs. Miller, accompanied them.

CULL APPLES

Hood River Apple Vinegar Co. will pay $8 per ton for this grade in sacks delivered to factory. Sept. 25, 1912.

If you want insurance in companies that pay losses promptly and in full, call on A. W. Ontbank.

Charles Myers of Underwood has been undergoing treatment here for an eye that was severely burned by a cinder while he was burning slashings. It is not yet known whether the eye can be saved.

Prepare for Tree Planting Day. Cooperate with the committee of the Woman's Club by returning postal cards at once, so that they may have time to order the trees and have them on hand by November 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Brayford, formerly of Hood River and more recently of White Salmon, are visiting friends here for a few days before leaving for England, where they will make their home. Mr. Brayford has sold his store at White Salmon.

Rev. J. H. Swift, who announced a special sermon on "16 to One" next Sunday evening, has changed the date to Sunday, Nov. 3, in order not to conflict with the mass meeting. All women, especially members of the W. C. T. U., are invited to hear Mr. Swift's sermon.

Leander F. Smith has brought suit for divorce in the Circuit Court against Clara Belle Smith. They were married at Mt. Vernon, Mo., March 12, 1911. Two months later she left for a visit to her former home and Mr. Smith says she has refused to return. He sues on the ground of desertion.

Does your piano need tuning? Mr. H. J. Witter, the piano tuner, takes this means of informing his regular patrons and also many others who may want their pianos tuned, that he will be in Hood River about Oct. 10th and orders may be left at Wagner's Music House. All work first-class and guaranteed.

Unwilling to come through Hood River without sampling some of the famous apples, Julius Kruttschnitt, who passed through here Monday morning, wired ahead for a couple of boxes of fruit. A box of Spitzenburgs and another of Ortleys were obtained from the Davidson Fruit Company and Agent Smith put them on board the special. Mr. Kruttschnitt is director of maintenance and operation on the Harriman lines.

Hood River's crack tennis players made a clean sweep of opposing teams in the tournament played at Prineville last week in conjunction with the county fair. Teams were present representing Prineville, Redmond and Metolus. The Metolus players gave the local racket wielders the hardest fight, but were defeated. E. A. Baker and Harry De Witt and Charles Hall and E. C. Smith qualified for the finals. These were played on the local courts Sunday and were won by Baker and DeWitt.

Christian and Missionary Alliance Sunday school at 9:45, H. C. Dietz, superintendent. Preaching at 11 a. m. Young People's meeting at 7:15 p. m. Evangelistic service at 8 p. m. Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:45. These are full Gospel meetings. Our motto, Jesus Only. All are cordially invited. W. P. Kirk, pastor.

Lime and Spray—Kelly Bros., phone 227-M.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown left Friday to spend several weeks with their son at Grand View, Idaho.

Joe D. Thomson returned Friday from his trip to Tennessee, having made the return trip through California.

William A. Dalziel, of La Grande, deputy commissioner and factory inspector, was in the city the last of the week.

L. A. Woodard is building a 12-room brick house on State street, the site for the building being that occupied by the Upson house that was destroyed by fire. Mr. Woodard's house is going to be a substantial one and he expects to work on it during the winter.

Wanted—Men and women to learn watchmaking and engraving, few months only learning. Practical work from start. Positions secured for graduates. Practical trade not overdone. Write for particulars. Watchmaking School, 210 Globe Building, Portland, Ore. 434c

To Tax Payers It was my intention to call your attention to matters of importance to the tax-payers in this issue of this paper, but I could not supply the copy in time. However, I will call your attention to matters in the Glacier this week, and in the next issue of this paper. I expect to speak at Cascade Locks, Odell, Pine Grove and Mt. Hood next week, and try to make conditions clear to the tax-payers of this county.

Respectfully, S. W. STARK. (paid advertisement)

Learn to Dance Correctly It's wonderful how much more pleasure you get out of it. Miss Buckenmeyer teaches all of the latest dances. Phone 27.

Hallowe'en ball at Parkdale.

J. C. Johnsen

Home of GOOD SHOES

Where the Best Values Come From

A Fine Home for Someone—Must Sell The owner, a far Eastern non-resident, has instructed me to sell at once, for cash, the property located at 1122 Fifth street Hood River, a good 8 room house, recently papered and painted, a barn and other out-buildings, ground dimensions 100x135, fruit, berries, etc., for the price of $2000. This is good property.

C. L. BECKER, 327 Lumber Exchange, Portland, Ore. 43 44c

CULL APPLES

Hood River Apple Vinegar Co. will pay $8 per ton for this grade in sacks delivered to factory. Sept. 25, 1912.

Truth Eternal. All errors have only a time. After a hundred million of objections, subtleties, sophisms, the smallest truth remains precisely what it was before.—Ancient Maxim.

About All. Mother—What do you think you will make out of my daughter's talent? Professor (absentmindedly) About $2 a lesson if the piano holds out.—Exchange.

The Proper Way. "Hello, old man. How do you find business?" "How? By judicious advertising, of course." Exchange.

There are some very desirable office rooms for rent in the Heilbrunner Building at from $10 to $15 a month. 21tf

Two hundred men wanted at the Christian church Sunday night, Oct. 27. Free lecture, subject "16 to 1." It

H. E. JOHNSON Carpenter and Builder

Third and State Sts. Phone Shop 51; Res. 87-L.

Edward A. Harris PRESENTS

The Fellows Grand Quartette

In Choice Selections from Great Operas

Riverside Congregational Church Monday, October 28th

At 8:15 P. M.

Reserved Seats at Clarke's Drug Store after 9:00 a. m., Friday, Oct. 25th---$1.00

Insure with Reed & Henderson, Inc.

Fire, Accident, Life, Automobile, Plate Glass, Burglary, Employer's Liability, including FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS.

Also Judicial, Official and Indemnity Bonds

Resident Agent for: U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. Northern Assurance Co., of London Commercial Union Assurance Co., Ltd., of London Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York Pelican Assurance Co. of New York

Real Estate Loans Investments