American Slang More Serviceable Than Old Language

By Dr. G. HANORF,
Professor of Languages of the University of Copenhagen

AMERICANS are the ROMANS OF THE FUTURE. They are the authors of a new tongue which will take the place of Britain's English.

AMERICANS HAVE RELEGATED THE OLD ENGLISH LANGUAGE INTO THE BACKGROUND, BURIED IT AND SUBSTITUTED A LANGUAGE OF THEIR OWN—UNIQUE IN ITS BREVITY AND ITS SLANG. THE SO CALLED SLANG OF THE PRESENT AMERICAN TONGUE IS FAR MORE POETICAL, PICTURESQUE AND SERVICEABLE THAN THE ENGLISH OF SHAKESPEARE'S TIME.

The new American tongue, like the new American music—rag-time—has the CLASSICS BEATEN TO A FINISH and down and out. Your authors of today will give Shakespeare and his fellows the count tomorrow.

A few hundred years from now they will be speaking American over in England instead of English. The Americans of the future, like the Romans of the old world, will BRANCH OUT AND BY CONQUEST ABSORB MANY OTHER LANDS.

Canada and Mexico in a few hundred years will be a part of the United States. I firmly believe that Ireland of her own accord will also come under the wing of the United States on the breaking up of the British empire. ENGLAND MAY BECOME A STATE OF AMERICA in time to save herself from rule by Germany.

The great war of the future will be between Germany and the United States. The victor will have to combat China.

ALLEGED WHITE SLAVER ESCAPES

W. H. Wilson, who was arrested here a couple of weeks ago on a charge of white slavery, was one of four prisoners who escaped from the Wasco county jail at The Dalles Sunday afternoon.

The quartet of prisoners made their escape by punching a hole through a brick wall above the cell-house door with an iron bar which was wrenched from the door. Those at large, besides Wilson, are Jack Allen, held on a highway robbery charge; Gus Anderson, held for a stabbing affair, and Roy Bolan, arrested for robbing a local store. Bolan was formerly a convict at the Oregon penitentiary and was paroled by Governor West. The officers are searching for the quartet which pulled off the jail delivery, but have no clues. The old jail has been inadequate and unsafe for some time, and the new court house and jail, to cost $150,000, are now under construction.

Wilson was sent from here to The Dalles for safe keeping.

BIG CROWD HEARS DEBATE ON SINGLE TAX MEASURE

lar without working for it and no man shall produce a dollar of value without getting it. The full application of Henry George's philosophy would not accomplish this end, although I believe it would help a great deal.

"This graduated single tax amendment is drawn with the express purpose of reducing the tax very greatly on men who work for what they get, at the same time increasing the tax on the fellows who get what the other people work for."

"There are about 25,000 of these monopolies in Oregon and I count that this amendment will make them pay two-thirds of the state and local taxes, which is twice as much as they are paying now."

Both speakers were frequently applauded.

Vote for Millage Bill Number 320 X Yes

It provides six-tenths of a mill tax for support of Agricultural College and University of Oregon, giving them permanent support and taking them out of politics. It also provides one Board of Regents, thus solving the problems of co-operation, consolidation, division of courses and economy of management.

It does not increase the average rate of taxation.

It repeals the $500,000 University appropriation bill.

The Bill is endorsed by Governor West: "This Bill is in the interest of good business and should pass."

By L. R. Alderman, State Superintendent Public Instruction: "Experience in other states shows millage bill principle to be correct."

By Will H. Dwyer, President, Oregon State Federation of Labor: "No argument can successfully combat the benefit to the state that will follow the adoption of the millage tax plan."

Endorsed by Portland Tax Payers League.

Bill prepared by committee of Governor's Commission, Boards of Regents, and administrative officers of the two institutions.

MR. VOTER:

The future welfare of Oregon and its development is in your hands. Can you afford to jeopardize your state's best interests by sending to Washington as your representative in the U. S. Senate any man other than Jonathan Bourne? During the past six years he has accomplished more and secured greater recognition of Oregon's needs from Congress than any other man preceeding him. As chairman of the committee on postoffices he drafted and fought to its successful passage the parcels post law effective Jan. 1, 1913, and which will give to the citizens of Oregon, especially in the rural districts, the privilege of sending through the mails 11 pounds of matter at a cost of 15 cents.

A vote for Jonathan Bourne, the popular government candidate for U. S. Senator, means development of Oregon, also appropriations as wanted.
