

Clearance Sale on Cloaks

Ladies' Cloaks

All Colors

$5.00

All Sizes

While they last. The regular prices of the cloaks $12.50 to $25.00

Children's Cloaks

Ages 6 to 14

$2.50

All Colors

They will move quickly because every garment is worth from $5.90 to $10.

Always Up-to-Date

FRANK A. CRAM

Our Goods Are Reliable

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Sample ballots can now be secured at the county courthouse.

Miss Martha Waugh submitted to a minor operation Sunday.

Miss Lois Murphy of the Barrett district is sick with scarlet fever.

Mrs. S. W. Arnold returned Friday evening from a month's sojourn in Kansas.

Mrs. W. F. Laraway was the hostess at a card party given Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Maude Fernyough is undergoing treatment for her eyes at the hospital.

Mrs. J. H. Hellbronner returned Saturday from a visit with friends in Portland.

A. L. Holt of Underwood has been here for several days undergoing medical treatment.

Maclt Berardo of Dee was brought to the hospital the last of the week with an injured knee.

Mrs. W. E. Austin and children left Monday evening for Iowa to spend the winter with her parents.

Fred Dietz came up from Hillsboro Saturday to visit his parents over Sunday. He is employed on the Hillsboro Independent.

Dr. E. L. Scobee is renovating his dental offices in the Brosius Building and they will soon present a most attractive appearance.

R. G. Colvin and family of Everett, Wash., have been spending a few days here and across the river looking over the country.

Mrs. A. J. Derby went to Portland Monday to spend the week with her brother, Lynn Young, who is slowly recovering from the further amputation of his leg.

While a raid was being made on a Freshman party at the High School one day last week Miss Gladys Calkins fell from a second story window and sustained some severe bruises.

The U. B. ladies' entertainment has been changed to Friday night, Nov. 1. The Fisher Shipp Company will appear in the Commercial Club room Friday night. Please note change of time and place.

Mrs. W. S. Gribble was a Portland visitor the last of the week.

Mrs. E. T. Simpson entertained about 30 ladies at tea Wednesday afternoon.

James W. West and wife of Dee were visitors in Portland the last of the week.

Attorney A. J. Capron of Portland spent the week end inspecting his ranch here.

A son was born on the 19th to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Morton, who live on the State Road.

Mrs. J. O. Hannun of Portland came up Friday to spend some time on her ranch in the Upper Valley.

Harry C. McAllister of Portland was a visitor in the city Monday, working in behalf of Senator Bourne.

O. J. Nelson, now of Goldendale and a former Hood River resident, spent last week visiting relatives here.

Dr. M. F. Shaw, who has been in failing health for several months past, is in critical condition at his ranch.

Dr. and Mrs. Burling and son of Summit, N.J., toured the valley the last of the week while on a trip through the Northwest.

Mrs. George W. Allen of Parkdale left recently with her granddaughter, Barbara Allen Higgins, for a protracted stay in New York and Boston.

Fred Bell, who has been clerking at the Mt. Hood Hotel during the summer, entered the Behrke-Walker Business College at Portland last week.

Attorney Cyrus A. Dolph of Portland visited his daughter, Miss Hazel Dolph, over the week end. Miss Dolph has been spending several weeks at Mrs. Howe's.

Mrs. J. H. Osborne and two children left the last of the week for Chicago. After a short stay there they will proceed to New Mexico, where Mrs. Osborne will visit a brother. They will spend the balance of the winter in Southern California before returning here.

Mrs. J. Brandt left the last of the week for Chicago.

Mrs. A. W. Rables entertained a few friends at a dinner party Sunday.

Mrs. A. P. Sprague expects to spend the winter in Minneapolis.

Mrs. J. A. Epping left Saturday to visit her daughters, who are attending school at Astoria.

Mrs. E. R. Moller had as her guest last week her mother, Mrs. Ober-tauffer, from Portland.

L. W. Cannon, who lives on Brook-side Drive, broke his collar bone Saturday, when he fell from a ladder.

S. M. Skinner, who has been spending the summer here, left Saturday morning for his home in Missouri.

Governor West came up from Salem yesterday to inspect the work at Shell Rock with the county court.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Plath and little daughter Corinne returned Friday from a several weeks' visit in the East.

J. H. Helfer entertained a number of his fraternity brothers at a supper given at the Hotel Oregon Friday evening.

Bruce Crump, the drayman, mashed his hand badly Friday when a barrel of vinegar fell on the member, crushing the bones.

Judge Robert Eakin of the Supreme Court, who is a candidate for re-election, was in town from Salem Saturday meeting local voters.

Miss Lucile Johnson entertained a dozen friends at whist Wednesday evening. Delicious refreshments were served and a jolly evening enjoyed.

George F. Ogden of Odell had as his guests the last of the week his mother, Mrs. John G. Ogden of Madison, Wis., and Miss Elizabeth Conway of Milwaukee, Wis.

Ladies of the Eastern Star gave their annual chicken dinner last week. The men who were fortunate enough to be invited voted it a great success from the culinary as well as social standpoint.

So much pleased was Julius Kruttschnitt, the Harriman chief, with the Hood River apples donated him when his special passed through here a few days ago, that he wired back to have boxes of the apples sent to relatives in Tucson, Ariz., and New York. F. S. Smith, the local agent, has filled the orders.

The Woman's Board of Missions of the Christian Church will give an evening program and entertainment at the home of Mrs. Arabel Swift on Friday night of this week, and every member of the church is invited. Bring your good humor and a little change to help a worthy cause. You will have a good time surely.

Among the goose hunters who have flocked to Arlington during the past week were J. M. Schmeitzer, A. S. Keir, R. W. Pratt and Ed. Foust. They sent 14 geese here a couple of days ago and were expected back last evening. A couple of Portland hunters who passed through Hood River last week reported that they had bagged 112 geese in one day.

CULL APPLES
Hood River Apple Vinegar Co. will pay $8 per ton for this grade in sacks delivered to factory. Sept. 25, 1912.

A. M. Stewart, a fruit buyer of New York City, was here on business a few days last week.

Mrs. Morrison, who has been spending the summer in the Upper Valley, left for New York the last of the week.

Attorney A. P. Reed, who has been spending a few weeks at his former home in Minneapolis, returned Friday.

Mrs. S. B. Carlisle left the last of the week for a few days' trip to Arlington and Goldendale, where she has property interests.

Albert A. Bennett left Friday for Heppner, where he will be employed for a few weeks on the work of building a new schoolhouse.

C. D. Hinrichs returned Saturday from a hunting trip to Sisters, Ore. He succeeded in bagging a bear, two deer and plenty of small game.

John R. Shelton, who has been spending the summer overseeing work on his ranch here, returned to Topeka, Kansas, the last of the week.

Mrs. Leroy K. Armstrong left Monday for Ogden, Utah, to spend the winter with her husband. She was accompanied to Portland by her daughter, Miss Lenore Adams.

S. E. Bartmess reports one death this week. The deceased was a goose bagged by Mr. Bartmess at Blalocks, where he and Lou Morgan went hunting the last of the week.

C. W. Edmunds, M. D., the well-known Eye and Ear Specialist, will be in Hood River, Saturday, Nov. 2, 1912, at Dr. Scobee's office. Remember the date and place. Glasses scientifically fitted. Also in a good location.

Secretary Scott of the Commercial Club and J. F. Batchelder were Portland visitors the last of the week arranging for Hood River's exhibit at the Northwest Land Products Show. Mr. Batchelder will be in charge of the agricultural exhibit.

Beginning next Wednesday and continuing each Wednesday in November, the Electric Theatre will give a percentage of the proceeds to the library committee of the Woman's Club. Besides the moving pictures, there will be special features presented by home talent at each entertainment.

"The White Ribbon Special" carrying several hundred members of the W. C. T. U. from the convention in Portland passed through Hood River Saturday. Through the courtesy of the Davidson Fruit Company a box of Spitzenburgs was placed on board and as the train pulled out, the ladies, between munches, sang the praises of Hood River in an impromptu adaptation of a popular air.

Hon. George Fred Williams, who will speak in behalf of Woodrow Wilson at Hellbronner Hall tomorrow (Thursday) evening, was thrice Democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts, is a former member of Congress and editor of several editions of the Annual Digest of the United States. He is also a noted platform lecturer and campaign orator. Mr. Williams will complete a tour including nearly every state in the Union when he finishes his campaign in Oregon.

HOOD RIVER COUNTY

The District Attorney's office has been in the hands of one firm of attorneys in The Dalles, Oregon, for twelve years; first Mr. Menefee of Menefee & Wilson, then Mr. Wilson of Menefee & Wilson, and now it is proposed to continue the chain of title by election of Mr. Bell, who is in Mr. Wilson's office and is identified with him in practically all his business.

Do you expect to improve conditions in the District Attorney's office by approving such procedure? If you do not, vote for

J. W. ALLEN

Independent Candidate for District Attorney

His platform is: "Enforce the law or repeal it." If he is elected he will enforce the law to the best of his ability without fear or favor. Vote for

J. W. ALLEN, Independent Candidate for District Attorney

Paid Adv.

THESE NUMBERS WILL BAR SINGLE TAX IN OREGON

365xNo Against Graduated Single Tax

308xYes Against Single Tax Repeals County Home Rule

Published by the Oregon Equal Taxation League

Insure with Reed & Henderson, Inc.

Fire, Accident, Life, Automobile, Plate Glass, Burglary, Employer's Liability, including FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS.

Also Judicial, Official and Indemnity Bonds

Resident Agent for: U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. Northern Assurance Co., of London Commercial Union Assurance Co., Ltd., of London Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York Pelican Assurance Co. of New York

Real Estate Loans Investments

The Davidson Fruit Company has bluestone for sale.

J. D. Turnidge of Underwood sustained severe injuries when he fell off a building last Wednesday. He was brought to the hospital here for treatment and it was found necessary to take several stitches in one of his hands. He was also cut about the head.

Money to Loan
Amounts $500 to $1500. First class real estate security. Will also buy mortgages for like amounts.
30tc REED & HENDERSON.

Learn to Dance Correctly
It's wonderful how much more pleasure you get out of it. Miss Buckenmeyer teaches all of the latest dances. Phone 27.*

CULL APPLES
Hood River Apple Vinegar Co. will pay $8 per ton for this grade in sacks delivered to factory. Sept. 25, 1912.

Special Harvest Dances will be held at Hellbronner Hall every Saturday night from 9 to 12 p. m. Everyone welcome.
30tc

THEY WILL LOOK LIKE NEW WHEN WE GET THROUGH

Don't throw away your soiled clothes or hang them up to be moth-eaten and forgotten. Bring them to us. We make a specialty of cleaning and pressing clothes

F. T. ANDERSON
1219 12th Street—On the Heights Phone 225-L