O. A. C. SHORT COURSE JAN. 6TH TO FEB. 7TH

This year the farmers' week at the Oregon Agricultural College, which has hitherto always immediately preceded or followed the winter short course, is to be held Dec. 9-14, and the short course Jan. 6 to Feb. 7. The change was made because it was found that Oregon farmers can leave their home duties more easily at that time, just before Christmas, than at any other. It is manifestly impossible to place the full short course of four weeks (besides the farmers' week) at that season, since none would care to be away from home at either Thanksgiving or Christmas time.

Like the short course, the farmers' week is crowded full of lectures and practical demonstrations to solve the daily problems of farm life. Dairying, fruit growing, truck gardening, stock raising, the use and care of farm machinery, farm use of concrete, soils and crop rotations, drainage and irrigation and a vast number of similar topics of vital interest to the man who is getting his living off his acres, are included in the program.

ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM FOR THE ORGAN RECITAL

The monthly organ recital postponed from last Sunday evening will be given next Sunday at 7:30. Mr. Hoerlein will be assisted by William Chandler, who will play Bohn's "Nordische Sage"—Arabesken—No. 7 on the violin and Miss Maudie Howard who will read Van Dyke's "The Lost Word." The organ numbers will be Bach's Prelude and Fugue, D Minor; "Now the Day is Over" by Davis; "Consolation" by Liszt; Costa's "Triumphal March"; Buck's "Scotch Air"; "Lovely Appear Over the Mountains" from "The Redemption" by Gounod, and "Fiat Lux" by Dubois. The public is cordially invited. Admission is free.

The furnace is being installed this week and comfort is assured to all who wish to attend morning or evening services.

The pastor's theme at the Congregational church next Sunday morning will be the one announced for last Sunday—"Intensive Soul Saving." We have intensive farming, education etc., why not intensive evangelism?

PORTLAND LETTER REVIEWS PAST WEEK

Portland, Nov. 5.—Under the direction of the Oregon Immigration Commission a splendid exhibit of Oregon products has been sent to the land Chicago. In gathering the exhibits, the commercial bodies holding membership in the Oregon Development League were of great assistance.

Capturing more than 20 prizes at the dry farming congress at Lethbridge, Alberta, Tillman Reuter, wizard of this branch of Agriculture, returned to his home at Madras the past week. Mr. Reuter upheld Oregon's fame at Lethbridge and did his part in helping the United States win its share of the prizes against sharp competition from Canadian farmers.

Every dairyman in Oregon will be interested in the forthcoming Pacific International Dairy Show to be held in Portland Nov. 18-23. It is promised that the largest number of strictly dairy cattle ever shown West of St. Louis will be gathered here at that time. Cattle of high degree will be shown from many parts of the country and much fine stock will be put up for sale.

That Oregon is somewhat of a wool state is shown by the fact that one sheep produced a fleece of six-inch staple wool weighing 28 pounds, worth almost $8.50. This fleece was grown in Morrow County and has been shipped to the Eastern land shows as one part of Oregon's exhibit.

Final arrangements are being completed for the Pacific Northwest Land Products show at Portland, November 18-23. So wide is the interest in this show that all the exhibit space has been engaged and part of Machinery Hall, an annex, is now being apportioned between the late entries. Everything indicates the affair will be a great success.

Astoria business men have arranged a special excursion to The Dalles November 15 to inspect the progress of the work on the Celilo Canal. Operations are now in full blast and the trip is made at the special invitation of the engineers of the canal. The Astorians are in favor of an open river and propose to show their interest by this trip.

Fish planted in Oregon streams this year numbered 7,247,546, a very large increase over additions to the finny tribe of any former year in the state's history. Salmon, trout, bass, croppies, catfish, etc., were in the fish liberated.

GETS A YARD OF MILK AND HAS IT WRAPPED UP

The White Salmon Enterprise says: Jimmy McNeil was in Hood River the other day and passed a shop where a sign said everything was sold by the yard. Thinking to play a joke Jimmy went in and asked for a yard of milk. The shopman, not in the least taken aback, dipped his finger into a bowl of milk and drew a line a yard long on the counter. Jimmy, not wishing to be caught in his own trap, asked the price. "Ten cents," said the proprietor. "All right, sor, wrap it up," said Jimmy.

SECOND LYCEUM COURSE NUMBER GREATLY ENJOYED

With a pleasing variety and excellent musical talent, the Shipp Concert Company gave a very good entertainment at the Commercial Club auditorium Friday evening. This was the second in the lyceum course. Vocal solos, and duets, monologues, character sketches and violin and mandolin selections made the evening one that was thoroughly enjoyed.

Rev. J. B. Parsons, speaking in behalf of the Ladies' Aid, under whose auspices the course is given, spoke of the need for support in order to secure these excellent attractions, and urged all present to pass the word along as to how good the coming entertainments are to be.

PUBLIC FORUM IS TO BE CONTINUED

At the meeting of the Public Forum Friday, the last before the election, the matter of continuing the sessions for the discussion of timely social and economic matters was brought up and it was decided to do so. The meetings will be held every month instead of every week as heretofore. They will be called by the president and program committee.

The several tax measures submitted on the ballot yesterday were discussed, especially the single tax.
