PINE GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Colvard are visiting in Portland.

Miss McGee of Nebraska, an aunt of Mrs. Keck is visiting at the Keck home.

There will be church services both morning and evening next Sunday, the Lutheran minister from The Dalles preaching in the morning and Mr. Carson in the evening. All are cordially invited to attend.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Jenkins and two children, of Hood River, spent Sunday at the home of E. E. Lage.

Mrs. Hans Lage and daughter, Elsa, went to Portland last Friday afternoon for a short visit.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet Friday afternoon at the parsonage. Important business concerning the coming supper requires all members to be present if possible.

Mrs. G. L. Davis from Newberg came up Saturday to visit her daughter and friends in Pine Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson were called to Sherman county, Wash., last week by the death of her brother-in-law, John Christerson.

Mrs. R. E. Harblison of Hillsboro, who has been visiting here for some time, returned to her home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lester are the proud parents of a 12-pound baby daughter, born Thursday, November 7th.

Temperance Sunday was observed in the Pine Grove church last Sunday, the pastor delivering a special temperance sermon. Special music rendered by Mesdames Keck and Andrews and Miss Lella Radford was much enjoyed by all.

Arthur Hale has returned and is able to resume his duties in the store.

CENTRAL VALE

Maude and Vera Leininger, Orey and Cecil Cameron, and Preston and Clare Smallwood were neither tardy nor absent during the first ten weeks of school.

Saturday and Sunday Miss Zena Miller visited at her home in Pine Grove.

On Sunday Arthur Hansen from Pine Grove visited his parents here. Mr. Niehaus and Walter and Archie Moss were in Hood River Tuesday. C. Allen spent Sunday with his parents.

On account of sickness, Master Harold Hagen is not able to attend school.

Nels Hagen and family went to Hood River Thursday.

Last week several ladies pleasantly surprised the elder Mrs. Butchart on her birthday.

George Sheppard spent one day in town last week.

Palma and Mrs. Hagen visited Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Sunday.

Horace Sylvester took Sunday dinner with Lloyd Moss.

In spite of the rainy weather last week the young folks of the neighborhood enjoyed themselves at little informal gatherings, one night at Moss' and another night at Sheppard's.

Every Day Is a Special Sales Day With Us

WE Mark our goods right when we receive them and give everyone an even chance. If we mark it SPECIAL you can rest assured that it is marked under its regular value, and not marked up to double what it is worth and then cut in two to make you think that you are getting a bargain.

BELMONT

Mrs. Stout is spending a week visiting friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Kittering entertained a few of their friends in a very pleasant and hospitable manner Saturday evening.

Mrs. George Galloway entertained the card club at her home Friday afternoon.

Mr. Nunamaker was away on business last week.

The Rugg boys made an extensive trip into the wilds of Washington last week.

H. P. Allen was away on business last week.

The contesting classes of David Rugg and Mrs. Nicholson met at the home of Mrs. E. E. Rugg, where the boys entertained the girls in a very pleasing manner. A good time was had, so say the girls.

Mr. Isbell and George Galloway met with what might have been a serious accident last week. They had been packing apples. Having finished, they loaded their table into their wagon and in driving out of the yard and turning the corner the wheels struck a rock, upsetting the wagon and spilling its contents upon the ground. However, there was no resulting damage other than slight injuries sustained by Mr. Galloway.

Blacksmithy for Underwood

Shiveley and Driscoll, the enterprising horseshoers of this city, will open a branch shop at Underwood Saturday and will be prepared to do expert horseshoeing.

ODELL

Mrs. Guy Smith went to Portland Monday for a two-weeks' visit.

P. I. Nealeigh, better known as Uncle Ike, went to California Friday. He will spend the winter with his son at Terminal Island, 26 miles from Los Angeles.

Rev. C. M. Carson will preach at the M. E. church Sunday morning. Epworth League at seven.

Claude Chapman is to start a confectionery store and restaurant and keep the postoffice in a building now being erected by Mr. Foits between Purdy & Chapman's and Haskin's butcher shop.

The Union warehouse at Odell is full, the weather preventing hauling. The boys declared they had the best time they ever enjoyed in Hood River.

George Sweiger forfeited an oyster supper as the result of election. The supper was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Walter and Miss Rush, Miss Love, Miss Reed and Miss Bell were among the guests, who numbered twenty-five.

Rev. J. R. Hargreaves will preach at the Union church at 11:30. Sunday School at 10:30. Mrs. Bertha Fols will lead the Christian Endeavor at 7 Made. Besides other special music, p. m., subject "Mistakes I Have Made." Mrs. Dutro will sing a solo. Those who have heard her will know that this is indeed a treat.

The mother of Harry Connaway, who had her hip broken by falling off a streetcar in San Francisco, lies in a critical condition. She suffers greatly and the physicians are struggling in what appears a vain effort to save her life. Mrs. Connaway endeared herself to those who met her during her six-weeks-stay in Odell last summer and all are most sympathetic.

James Taylor from The Dalles is now acting as book-keeper for Purdy & Chapman.

The election dinner given under the auspices of the library committee was a great success. Twenty-five cents was charged and as $52 was realized some voters must have had two dinners. The candy booth made $10. This was under the charge of the girls. So the election "returns" to the fund were $62. A large number of ladies assisted in serving.

Our precinct returned Roosevelt 61, Wilson 40, Taft 23, Debs 12 and Chaffin five, defeated single tax and carried woman's suffrage.

The library is now secure as the Odell Development League guarantees rent and the ladies have $90 with which to furnish the rooms and pay other expenses.

Twenty-five Odd Fellows from Kemp Lodge, Odell, joined the large number of their fraternal brothers who went from Hood River to The Dalles Tuesday evening to attend the district convention. They returned on a special.

The Ferguson Bible Class will celebrate its birthday with a banquet to be given in the basement of the M. E. church Friday evening at 6:30. At eight o'clock Professor Knapp, an Inland Empire Sunday School worker, will give a public lecture. Members of the Union church and residents of Pine Grove are specially invited.

BARRETT

(Too late for last issue.)
J. A. Walters spent several days in our neighbor state last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Stauffer are visiting in Lexington, Oregon.

The luncheon served by the defeated members of the Philaetha class to the victors in their recent contest was quite a banquet. Eleven were served, and the menu was elaborate. Mrs. Bennett, the teacher, opened her home to the young people.

Lola and Dorothy Murphy, who have had scarlet fever, are rapidly improving.

The Ladies' Aid plan to give an old time social and program at the church in the near future.

A. A. Bennett is in Heppner, employed on the new school building being erected at that place.

CASCADE LOCKS

Mrs. T. S. Nelson of Carrington, Minn., spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Adams.

Mrs. John Cates and infant daughter have returned home.

Mrs. O. P. McGee, formerly of this place, spent Thursday with friends here.

Mrs. Charles Coke was in The Dalles from Saturday until Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woodward spent Saturday in Hood River.

Miss Hannah Ostberg is visiting friends in Portland.

A. O. Adams attended the Masonic banquet at Hood River Monday evening.

A Bible class for adults was organized on Thursday evening, November 7th. The following officers were elected: President, Esther Coke; vice-president, Ellen Tompkins; secretary, Harry Pearson; treasurer, Oscar Badder; chairman of devotional committee, Katherine Mayes; chairman of the membership committee, Alice Tompkins; chairman of social committee, Vera Olin. A business meeting will be held at the home of the president on Friday evening, Nov. 15.

Mrs. H. S. Adams and daughter, Hazel, of Underwood are visiting relatives here.

D. W. Chamberlin of Portland was in town on business Saturday.

Wm. Ash was in Portland Thursday.

Thad Glazier has purchased the White House Saloon building and it is rumored that we will soon have a new store.

W. V. Hutchinson came to the Locks last Tuesday in order to vote. A business meeting and election of officers of the Epworth League was held Friday evening at the home of H. C. Harter. The officers who were elected are as follows: Mrs. W. V. Hutchinson, president; H. C. Harter, vice president; Mrs. M. C. Newell, 2nd vice president; Miss Grace Harter, 3rd vice president; Miss Esther Coke, 4th vice president; Miss Vera Olin, secretary and treasurer. After the meeting a social time was enjoyed and delicious refreshments served.

Our werner sausages are good. Why? Because they are made to comply with the pure food and drug act. McGuire Bros.*

Unitarian Church

Sunday morning Mr. MacDonald will take as his theme, "The Message of Unitarianism in Relation to Jesus of Nazareth." At 6:30 o'clock the young people of the church are to organize a Young Peoples' Religious Union. This will be a branch of the national organization. The first meeting will be conducted by Miss Mildred Huxley. All young people interested in the church are urged to become charter members of this Union. Lecture on "Religion and Science" at 7:30.

After the Doctor-- THE DRUGGIST

The doctor's work is only half what has to be done for the patient. And if the druggist be lacking in ability and care the prescription might as well have never been written. But we make a special study of each case and our own medical knowledge is thorough enough to be of great use to us in those sometimes occurring cases when the doctor, in his haste, makes a slight error.
