PINE GROVE

Percy Hawk left for Spokane, Wash., last Saturday.

The Misses Turney spent the week end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Lage spent the past week in Portland attending the Land Products Show.

Arthur Hansen spent Sunday with his folks in Odell.

Miss Anna Godbersen spent Saturday and Sunday with the home folks in Mosier.

Mesdames Hill, Starrett and Brown were visitors in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Wiley of The Dalles are visiting Mrs. Wiley's sister, Mrs. A. I. Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Jakku of Oak Grove spent Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mack.

The ladies' Aid meeting, which was to be held Friday afternoon of this week met Tuesday at the parsonage instead.

Mrs. Wagner, mother of Mrs. Dragseth, returned to her home in the Willamette Valley Wednesday.

Ned Van Horn left the last of the week to spend some time visiting in Portland.

There will be only one day of vacation at Thanksgiving time this year, as the teachers have decided to teach on Friday.

The meeting at the school house was well attended last Friday afternoon, about forty patrons of the neighborhood being present, all of whom thoroughly enjoyed the program given by the pupils, especially the music and recitations by the little folks. The older ones proved their ability in making and serving delicious refreshments. Miss Northey gave an interesting talk on the origin of the county library and what Pine Grove must do to secure its share of it. Mr. McCoy appointed the following committee: E. E. Lage, Mrs. Anna Hawks and William Keck to ascertain what can be done and report at the mass meeting which is to be held at the Pine Grove school house, Friday evening, December 7.

Don't forget that the Ladies' Aid are to give a chicken supper and social evening at the Pine Grove Grange Hall Saturday, December 14.

CENTRAL VALE

Mr. and Mrs. Niehans went to Portland last Wednesday to visit their daughter Margaret and attend the Land Products Show. They returned Sunday.

Mrs. Philipps, Mrs. George Scarlett's mother, left Monday for Bellingham, Wash., where she will spend the winter with another daughter.

Lloyd Moss and Walter Niehans drove to Hood River Friday night to take in the basketball game.

There will be school the Friday after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Paul Hansen went to Hood River Saturday, returning Sunday.

Mrs. Leo Ulrich of Hood River spent the week end with Mrs. W. A. Durham. They also have as company Mr. and Mrs. Roy Durham.

Miss Maud Leininger was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. O. H. Hill delightfully entertained a "hen party" of "six old maids" of the neighborhood, Friday the 22nd. The party was intended as a surprise for most of the girls. Miss Palma Hagen invited the Misses Zena Miller, Mary Sheppard, Gertrude Hansen and Florence and Bessie Moss to her home, but when they arrived she informed them that they would continue to roam in the moonlight so she took them to Mrs. Hill's home. The evening was spent with music, guessing games and a delightful five-course luncheon was served. The house was beautifully decorated with vines, flowers and other decorations suitable for Halloween and Thanksgiving, the color scheme being orange and black. The "six old maids" each drew a prize package which decided her fate and since then five of them have been looking for a banker, musician, orchardist, tailor and doctor respectively, while the sixth has resigned herself to the fate of a suffragette and will find her pleasure in working for the good of her sisters. All the "old maids" voted the "hen party" a decided success and Mrs. Hill a most pleasing entertainer.

BARRETT

Mrs. Dr. Mills was in Portland on business a few days last week. There will be special Thanksgiving services in the Christian church at 11 o'clock Thanksgiving morning. Lois Murphy is improving rapidly. William Walters returned Wednesday from a trip to Eastern Oregon. E. W. Sweaney was a Portland visitor last week. The death of Mr. Bishop came as a shock to his many friends. The family have the sincere sympathy of the entire community. Virgil and Roy Myers are ill with tonsillitis. Mrs. Robbins returned from a visit to Baker, Ore., on Monday. For fear of spreading the scarlet fever the janitor of the Christian church fumigated the church Saturday.

ODELL

O. M. DeWitt has purchased of Charles Davis the 40 acres of land lying south of Odell station. This includes the old home site of Peter Neal, which was subsequently owned by John Hinrichs, Mr. Hinrichs having bought it from the heirs of the Neal estate in 1882. Clarence Piper proved up on his homestead Monday, John West and Thomas Absher acting as witnesses. Mr. Piper has a beautiful location on the south side of Neal Creek and has a thriving young orchard. Mrs. Stella Boardman came down from Kent to attend the Crosby wedding. Among the other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leedom and Miss Elizabeth Lacey. George Prather and family left this week to spend the winter in Los Angeles. Rev. Troy Shelley will preach at 11:30 next Sunday at the Union chapel. Mrs. Dutro will be soloist. In the evening A. J. Lacey will lead the Christian Endeavor and Miss Leila Radford will be present with her violin. There will be a special musical program arranged by Mrs. Bertha Young and it is likely there will be preaching after meeting begins at seven.

Emil West has moved his house down opposite that of his brother, John, and is building a substantial barn. This will bring him nearer the Fir school.

Her friends and classmates at Forest Grove surprised Miss Ellen Shelley on her birthday by having by her plate at Professor Chapman's table a delicious cake with 18 candles and a bouquet of 18 pink and white carnations. These, with many flowers and gifts sent by relatives, made her first birthday away from home one most delightfully to be remembered. She will begin her vocal lessons and has a leading part in a drama to be given before Christmas.

The church federation meeting Friday organized under the title of the "First Church of Odell (Federated)" and elected the following officers: Pastor, Rev. J. R. Hargreaves; clerk, Mrs. Bertha Young; treasurer, O. L. Walter; deacons, Messrs. Bowerman and Rountree. Arrangements will be made for a cottage prayer meeting each week.

Harry Connaway's mother is now improving. She is recovering from the shock and the doctors have been able to set her fractured leg. The Connaway Mercantile Company will now deliver on the Neal Creek road Mondays and Tuesdays.

Percy T. Shelley was elected constable of Sandy Proinct on the Prohibition ticket by the vote of 167 to one.

Almont Ferguson comes from the O. A. C. for Thanksgiving and so does Miss Roberta Friday. Elmer Odell comes from Portland and brings high records from the school there. Leslie Butler will be the guest of the Ferguson Bible Class and will address them at the Methodist church at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. Special music in the evening.

Mrs. E. E. Gould's niece, Miss Muriel Smith of Ontario, Canada, was married to Gerald Parker of Alberta by Rev. Troy Shelley Wednesday at the Gould home. Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride, and her other daughter remain as the guests of Mrs. Gould. Among the guests at the ceremony were Mrs. O. L. Walter, Mr. Currier and Sherman Lafferty.

Dane Kemp and family expect to go to Los Angeles to visit his sister, Mrs. Roberts.

Dr. McKee, Baptist colporteur, preached Sunday evening. Miss Gertrude Crosby and Harry Caughey were united in marriage Sunday afternoon by Rev. Troy Shelley at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Crosby. Miss Gladys was bridesmaid and Mr. Caughey's brother came from Pennsylvania to be best man. The bride was charmingly gowned in white silk and wore a veil. The house was a bower of Oregon grape and flowers. A beautiful silver tea service as well as a variety of silverware were among the gifts from friends and relatives from Pennsylvania to Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Caughey left for Portland, where they will spend the winter.

Thanksgiving at Belmont Church. There will be Thanksgiving services at Belmont Church tomorrow evening at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Anderson will be in charge.

DEE

Mrs. William Yates left Saturday afternoon to attend the funeral of her father, A. S. Blowers, who died in Portland Friday night of heart failure. The interment took place Monday at Hood River.

A. Sutherland, chief engineer with the Oregon Lumber Company, caught his hand in the sawdust conveyor and from the wrist down it was badly lacerated. He was sent to the hospital at Hood River for treatment.

Sam Raymond went to Hood River Friday, returning Saturday.

Ray Early spent Sunday in Dee.

M. Amaka, a Japanese who has been employed by the Oregon Lumber Company, was to have started Sunday for Japan to claim a bride, but fate must have ordained otherwise as the engine on the Mt. Hood R. R. broke down and there was no train down Sunday. Charles Coppel was in The Dalles on business last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James West left last week for Ogden, Utah, to attend the funeral of Mr. West's grandmother.

REPORTED DEAD, MR. MASON SAYS IT'S EXAGGERATED

In some mysterious way the report gained some headway yesterday to the effect that A. I. Mason had dropped dead. Inquiry from Mr. Mason brings the assurance that the report is greatly exaggerated. "I'm still very much alive and fighting for those Grange bills," declares Mr. Mason.

Immanuel Baptist Church

The Thanksgiving night reception will be held in the social room of the Immanuel Baptist Church (Heights) tomorrow (Thursday) evening. A silver offering will be taken for the relief work.

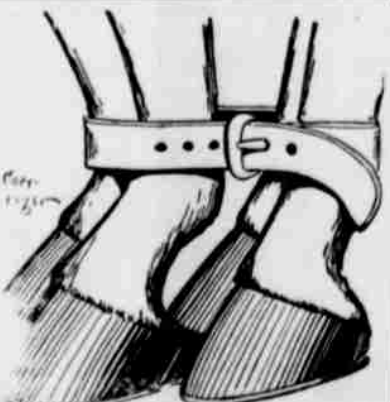

Preaching services Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday School at 10 o'clock.

Attorney Smith to Address Elks

Attorney E. C. Smith will deliver the eulogy at the Elks' memorial services to be held at The Dalles Sunday. Mrs. Charles Hall will render a violin solo entitled "Berceuse" by Goddard. All local members and their wives are urged to be present by order of the exalted ruler.

Every Democrat can be thankful.

After the Doctor-- THE DRUGGIST

The doctor's work is only half what has to be done for the patient. And if the druggist be lacking in ability and care the prescription might as well have never been written. But we make a special study of each case and our own medical knowledge is thorough enough to be of great use to us in those sometimes occurring cases when the doctor, in his haste, makes a slight error.
