

THANKSGIVING GREETINGS TO ALL!

We are thankful to the people of this community for their loyal support during the last year, for the kindness and good feeling manifested to us and to our faithful sales force by our long list of patrons. We wish to extend to you our cordial regards and good wishes.

Store Closed All Day
Thursday, the 28th

FRANK A. CRAM

Store Closed All Day
Thursday, the 28th

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

State School Money to loan at 6 per cent. A. J. Derby.

Sauer kraut at McGuire Bros. Try some and be convinced.*

Place your order now for a fine young turkey. C. E. Sutherland, Odell 308.

Rev. and Mrs. Edmund T. Simpson spent the last of the week in Portland.

Mayor Blanchard went to Portland Friday to attend the Land Products Show.

Mrs. A. C. Buck went to Portland Thursday to visit her children for a few days.

Attorney H. M. Calk of Portland was a visitor in the city the last of the week.

E. L. Smith and Dr. and Mrs. Watt went to Portland Thursday for a few days' visit.

If you want insurance in companies that pay losses promptly and in full, call on A. W. Onthank.

R. A. McCully went to Albany last week to attend the football game between O. A. C. and the U. of O.

Mrs. Frank Davenport, Sr., returned to Portland the last of the week after having spent a couple of weeks with her son here.

A. I. Mason was among those from here who attended the meeting of the State Horticultural Association in Portland last week.

Mrs. J. M. Sutthoff has rented Ralph Root's house on State street for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Root expect to spend the winter in the East.

Mrs. A. Filler, who has been spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. M. O. Boe, in the Upper Valley, left Friday for Tacoma where she will spend a few weeks before returning here. Mrs. Filler will probably make her home in Hood River.

Mrs. Bert Stranahan left Friday for Rufus, Oregon, where she will spend Thanksgiving at her former home. Mr. Stranahan will join her this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Pooley were guests of Mrs. Pooley's parents in Portland last week. The latter returned with them to spend Thanksgiving here.

Bluestone for sale by the Davidson Fruit Co.

Trimmed hats at below cost at Miss M. B. Lamb's.

State School Money to loan at 6 per cent. A. J. Derby.

Ward I. Cornell and P. L. Beals were among the Upper Valley visitors at the Land Products Show in Portland last week.

Our wafers sausages are good. Why? Because they are made to comply with the pure food and drug act. McGuire Bros.*

Those planning to give entertainments are reminded to kindly post the dates in the directory of entertainments at the library.

The present issue of the News was set up entirely on the new linotype and the bright, clear appearance of the type is a great improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dickerson went to Portland Friday. Mrs. Dickerson will submit to a slight operation, after which she expects to spend the balance of the winter there.

Chris R. Greisen, formerly assistant editor of "Better Fruit," was in the city Saturday. Mr. Greisen attended the Spokane and Portland shows and went from here to San Francisco and Los Angeles.

A large attendance is expected at the fifth annual University Club dance, which is to be given at Heilbronner Hall Friday evening. Many guests will be present from Portland, Underwood, White Salmon and The Dalles. It is expected that close to 100 couples will be in attendance and the affair promises to be one of the most successful that the club has yet held.

A housewarming was held at the new home of Messrs. DuVal and Wertgen at Parkdale last week when a number of their friends surprised them and spent a merry evening. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Boe, Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh, Charles Steinhauser, Mr. Peironnet, Miss Filler and her mother, Mrs. A. Filler and Master Arthur Boe. Refreshments were served and the occasion was a most enjoyable one.

Lime and Spray—Kelly Bros., phone 227-M.

Big sale of trimmed hats at Miss M. B. Lamb's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Skinner spent Saturday in Portland.

State School Money to loan at 6 per cent. A. J. Derby.

Mrs. Eliza J. Ballard left the last of the week for Westville Okla.

Chester Huggins and Will Cass went to Albany Friday to attend the football game between the U. of O. and O. A. C.

Messrs. Frank and Asa Cutler went to Portland last week for the winter, although they will continue to spend some time on their ranch here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Sieg were among the Hood River guests at the Hotel Portland in Portland the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Y. Edwards, who have been spending several weeks at Chicago and other eastern points for the benefit of his health, are expected back tomorrow.

With Thanksgiving near at hand, remember we will have some very fine turkeys for our Thanksgiving trade. By ordering early you can get the choice of these birds. Don't forget the place. Call 4 and place your order. McGuire Bros.*

E. F. Batten, the local poultry fancier, is planning to enter some cockerels and pullets in the poultry show to be held at Portland next month. Mr. Batten has raised some extra fine stock this year and is hopeful of carrying off some of the desirable prizes.

Wanted—Men and women to learn watchmaking and engraving, few months only learning. Practical work from start. Positions secured for graduates. Practical trade not overdone. Write for particulars. Watchmaking School, 219 Globe Building, Portland, Ore. 434c

It transpires that before Enoch Brayford of this place left for England recently he made a gift to Philomath College of $5000 for its endowment fund. Mr. Brayford was an old friend of Dr. Drury, president of the college, and chose to put this sum into the institution in order to aid in the education of worthy young people.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Moller went to Portland this week to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Obersteuffer. Miss Helen Driver of Tacoma will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Moller to Hood River and will attend the University Club dance Friday. The party will then return to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Moller are planning to spend Christmas in the East with Mr. Moller's parents.

Friends of Miss Florence Avery were pleased to learn that she has been elected president of the choral society at the U. of O. Miss Avery's vocal ability has been a source of pleasure to her friends here. She has, however, never been heard in public and it is now being suggested that she render a solo at the coming concert of the U. of O. Glee Club. It is possible that it may be arranged, and should add an attractive feature to the concert.

Money to Loan
Amounts $500 to $1500. First class real estate security. Will also buy mortgages for like amounts.
394c REED & HENDERSON.

Big sale of trimmed hats at Miss M. B. Lamb's.

The Davidson Fruit Company has bluestone for sale.

Salmon, halibut, clams and crabs, at McGuire Bros.*

Hugh Mellon and family left the last of the week for Waterloo, Iowa.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Montgomery of Pine Grove the last of the week.

Mrs. Robert Walstrom of the Upper Valley was a visitor in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wiley of The Dalles spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mark Cameron and wife of Odell were visitors in Portland the last of the week.

The annual bazaar of the Unitarian Alliance will be held December 6-7. Watch for the announcements.

Paul Polson, an employee of the Oregon Lumber Company at Dee, sustained a broken leg last week.

There are some very desirable office rooms for rent in the Heilbronner Building at from $10 to $15 a month.

Miss Dorothy and Marjorie Wissingler of Milwaukie, Ore., are spending a week with their aunt, Mrs. C. A. Bell.

Miss Gertrude Thomas of Oregon City spent the last week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Shay.

J. T. Bagley and wife of Portland, former Hood River residents, spent the last of the week visiting friends here.

Ralph Sherrieb submitted to an operation at the local hospital Sunday morning, from which he is recovering nicely.

A. Ruhnke, formerly of this place and more recently of Portland, has taken a position with the Mt. Hood Railroad.

Special Harvest Dances will be held at Heilbronner Hall every Saturday night from 9 to 12 p. m. Everyone welcome. 394c

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harmon who live near Tucker's bridge, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son Friday.

Please remember to post the dates of proposed public gatherings in the directory of entertainments at the public library.

C. W. Wilmeroth, the apple man representing Simon & Simon of New York and London, visited the city the last of the week.

H. D. Emery and wife of Summit were among the Hood River visitors at the Land Products Show in Portland last week.

The school meeting for the purpose of levying the tax is called for Tuesday, December 3, at 3:30 p. m., at the Park Avenue building.

C. G. Roberts left Monday for Portland. After a visit there he expects to go to Vancouver, B. C., where he expects to spend the winter with his son, E. A. Roberts.

Last Thursday about a dozen young ladies who have enjoyed some good times together met and organized a social club which will meet during the winter. The members include Miss Lottie Kinnaird, Misses Florence and Catherine Bragg, Miss Mollie Pifer, Miss Leila Herschner, Miss Leila Kelsey, Miss Viola Wilson, Miss Flora Furrow, Miss Hazel Hollenbeck and Miss Ann Vannett.

Regular Sunday excursion to Parkdale. Pleasant trip for yourself and friends.

You don't know how good our mince meat is until you try it. At McGuire Bros.*

Loan Agency. Loans offered—$300 $500, $700, $1000. Loans wanted—$200 $250, $400, $600, $800, $1000. Apply to A. W. Onthank. 454c

Mrs. Horace Meeklin and daughter of Portland and the former's sister, Miss Marion Slate of New York, spent the past week as the guests of Mrs. J. J. Gibbons.

J. R. Crosby shipped a carload of Spitz, Newtown and Winesap apples to Redmond, Ore., this week, having found a market for the fruit among the retail trade there.

H. A. Mosier of Portland spent the week end at his ranch here. Theodore G. Williams of Portland also visited his place in the Upper Valley, accompanied by A. L. Sumeralt.

Edgar A. Shockley, physical director at the University of Oregon, arrived the first of the week and it is understood that he will take back with him one of the attractive young ladies of the Upper Valley.

Thanksgiving services will be held at the Valley Christian church tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. J. A. Bennett, the pastor, will conduct the services and a cordial invitation to attend is extended to all.

C. W. Edmunds, M. D., the well-known Eye and Ear Specialist, will be in Hood River Friday and Saturday, November 29-30, 1912, at the Hotel Oregon. Remember the date and place. Glasses scientifically fitted. Also in a good location.

Miss Ruth Harris, who has been suffering for a couple of weeks with appendicitis, submitted to an operation at the hospital Saturday morning. She is reported to be progressing satisfactorily and her many friends hope for a speedy and complete recovery.

E. A. Taylor, consulting engineer engaged by the city in connection with the construction of the local waterworks system, was here the last of the week and visited Tucker's spring to make final determination of the work to be done at the headworks.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney G. Babson of the Upper Valley spent a few days last week in town, accompanied by their two small sons, the younger of whom—a Hood River baby—is as husky a youngster as could be found—a typical Hood River product.

Mrs. D. H. Thorn of Pine Grove took first prize at the Land Products Show for the best canned fruit. Mrs. W. W. Rodweel took first prize for the best apple butter. The second prize of $7.50 for the largest pyramid of apples went to George I. Sargent of Appleton Farm.

An interesting and scholarly talk on some "New Views of Childhood" was given by Dr. Luther Dyott of Portland before the School and Home Association Friday evening. There was a large attendance and Mr. Dyott's address, in which he made use of many personal illustrations, was listened to with close attention. A piano solo by Miss Isabelle King was thoroughly enjoyed. It is expected that President Foster of Reed Institute at Portland will address the association at its meeting next month.

Give your order for corn beef to McGuire Bros., for it's the best in town.*

Mrs. H. Swanson is building a bungalow on her 25-acre tract near Van Horn and will make her home there with her two children.

Dr. J. K. Locke of Portland was here over Sunday. He inspected his ranch and also assisted Mrs. Bronson and Waugh in a serious operation at the hospital on a workman from the Northwestern dam who had sustained a spiral fracture of the leg.

Perhaps fatally injured, a workman from the Northwestern dam was brought to the local hospital for treatment Monday. He had fallen from a scaffold, landing on his head and was in a critical condition.

Just as we expected, Wilson was elected, the town went dry and Woman's suffrage carried and now indignation meetings are being held all over the valley by the bed bugs because Mr. Bartmess will persist in selling Iron Beds, Vermin Proof Springs and Seelye mattresses that are not tufted. There is absolutely no chance for an industrious bug to make an honest living.

Unitarian Bazaar and Bake Sale
The Unitarian Bazaar and Bake Sale will be held Friday and Saturday of next week, December 6 and 7, in the building east of the Franz Hardware Store. Suitable gifts for Christmas. A specialty of home-made candies, fruit cakes, plum puddings, mince-meat pies and cakes.

Don't fail to see the Xmas Novelties. No cutting of prices the last day.

For Christmas
The Philatheas will help you solve the question. In aprons we have every style—plain and fancy—for the little folks and grown-ups.

Then there are bags of all descriptions, luncheon sets, towels, caps, handkerchiefs, kimonos, etc.

During the afternoon tea and cakes will be served and a class of girls will have an "Art Loan Collection."

Held at the Congregational Church Friday, November 29.

MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THOSE
Christmas
Photos
Now

Do not wait. Photos make ideal Christmas gifts. And remember we must have time to do you first class work. Make your appointment now at.....

The Deitz Studio

With Turkey You Will Want
Celery, Cranberries,
Sweet Potatoes, Raisins,
Nuts, Dates Figs and
Fresh Oysters

Remember to get them at
THE STAR GROCERY

"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"
PERIGO & SON

THE 5, 10 and 15 CENT STORE
Heilbronner Bldg., 3rd and Cascade

A CHILD'S DELIGHT
helps make a happy home. That delight is always intensified when it results from the possession of like we sell. There are all kinds of candy—some good and some bad. There's but one kind though, can be had of us, and that's the best. It's pure, wholesome and cheap. Buy a box or bag and make the little ones happy.

A BAG OF CANDY

With That Turkey You Will Want
Celery, Cranberries,
Sweet Potatoes, Raisins,
Nuts, Dates Figs and
Fresh Oysters

Remember to get them at
THE STAR GROCERY

"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"
PERIGO & SON

THE 5, 10 and 15 CENT STORE
Heilbronner Bldg., 3rd and Cascade

With That Turkey You Will Want
Celery, Cranberries,
Sweet Potatoes, Raisins,
Nuts, Dates Figs and
Fresh Oysters

Remember to get them at
THE STAR GROCERY

"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"
PERIGO & SON

THE 5, 10 and 15 CENT STORE
Heilbronner Bldg., 3rd and Cascade

With That Turkey You Will Want
Celery, Cranberries,
Sweet Potatoes, Raisins,
Nuts, Dates Figs and
Fresh Oysters

Remember to get them at
THE STAR GROCERY

"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"
PERIGO & SON

Insure with Reed & Henderson, Inc.

Fire, Accident, Life, Automobile, Plate Glass,
Burglary, Employer's Liability, including
FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS.

Also Judicial, Official and Indemnity Bonds

Resident Agent for: U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co.
Northern Assurance Co., of London
Commercial Union Assurance Co., Ltd., of London
Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York
Pelican Assurance Co. of New York

Real Estate Loans Investments