

FRANK A. CRAM

Is ready for the Xmas Rush
The newest, brightest and most satisfactory lines of SENSIBLE CHRISTMAS GIFTS

are all ready for your inspection. Come in and look---it don't obligate you to buy; we leave that to your own good judgment. We will reserve any item and deliver Xmas Eve. We will wrap, mail or express any gifts you want to send away ---Our whole organization is at your service.
Absolutely Free

LET US HELP YOU WITH YOUR CHRISTMAS PROBLEMS

.. THE UP-TO-DATE STORE ..

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Place your order now for a fine young turkey. C. E. Sutherland, Odell 308.

Rea Babson of the Upper Valley went to Portland Sunday to spend a couple of days.

If you want insurance in companies that pay losses promptly and in full, call on A. W. Ontbank.

Miss Emma Swenson, teacher at the Barrett school, spent Thanksgiving with friends at Arlington.

Messrs. E. C. and H. D. Patton of Salem were Thanksgiving guests at the home of their sister, Mrs. J. D. McCully.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Snow of Portland spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Snow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Lemmon.

G. R. Huener, agent for the White automobile in Portland, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fording the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wahlstrom, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Putnam and Rea Babson were among the Upper Valley people at the ball Friday evening.

Miss Laura Cummins and Rev. Mr. Remington of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Pooley over the week end and were among the out-of-town guests at the University Club ball.

Mrs. F. E. Deem, who is spending the winter in Portland with her husband, is becoming popular in musical circles of that city and on Sunday was the soloist at the First Methodist Church.

Miss H. Louise Brunquist spent the last of the week in Portland, where she attended the meeting of the Classical Association of the Pacific Northwest, which held its session at Reed College. She was one of the speakers.

A. L. Carmichael is building a two-story frame business building on Twelfth street. The structure will be 25 by 62 feet in size and will include a basement. Mr. Carmichael will rent the first floor of the building for store purposes and will finish off the second to serve as a public hall if circumstances justify it.

State School Money to loan at 6 per cent. A. J. Derby.

Miss Mabel Carter spent the week end visiting friends in Portland.

Newton Clark went to Portland Monday to spend a couple of days.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Lage of Pine Grove Friday.

Kenneth Richards underwent a throat operation at the hospital Friday.

Mrs. Frank B. Cram left Monday to spend a couple of weeks in San Francisco.

Mrs. J. E. Stanton went to Portland Monday to spend a couple of weeks visiting.

The stork brought Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Miller of Frankton a son on Saturday.

Mrs. W. B. Brazelton of Portland spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Clark.

Fred Donnerberg went to Portland Thanksgiving to see the football game between Multnomah and Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Brown of White Salmon were among the guests at the ball Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rand expect to leave in a couple of weeks for Los Angeles, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

G. L. Schetcky of Vancouver, B. C., arrived Sunday to visit his uncle, Captain Schetcky, and his son Clarence. He has just returned from a trip to England.

Mr. and Mrs. Simonton of Wenatchee are spending a few days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Nichol while enroute to California to spend the winter.

James E. Montgomery, who has been doing newspaper work at Winnipeg, is now visiting his aunt, Mrs. Alfred E. Dickey, at Minneapolis. He will spend the Christmas holidays at his home in Indiana and expects to return to Hood River in January.

Lost—A Laprobe
Finder of laprobe with name of Fashion Stables inscribed on it please return. 47-48c

J. C. Skinner is spending the week in Portland.

Lawrence Blowers made a business trip to Portland yesterday.

Time and Spray—Kelly Bros., phone 227-M.

State School money to loan at 6 per cent. A. J. Derby.

Miss Hazel Smith was home from Willamette University to spend Thanksgiving.

Miss Minerva Heath of Portland spent the holidays with her sister, Miss Anna Heath.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carpenter were here from Portland over the holidays and attended the ball Friday.

Miss Gretchen Hoerlein, who is attending the Washington High School at Portland, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at her home here.

A meeting of St. Mark's Guild will be held at the rectory at three o'clock Friday and as important business is to be transacted a full attendance is urged.

Miss Ida Chancey, who has been a member of the News force for the past two years, left Sunday morning to accept a position with The Dalles Optimist.

Miss Helen Davidson was home from Portland to spend the holidays with her parents. She had as her guests Miss Miner of Portland and Miss Boyere of San Francisco. All attended the University Club ball Friday.

Mrs. Edmund Trew Simpson gave the last of her series of teas Wednesday afternoon. The rectory was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Mrs. Schmeltzer sang and Miss Fisher and Mrs. Harichs also assisted in entertaining.

Wanted—Men and women to learn watchmaking and engraving, few months only learning. Practical work from start. Positions secured for graduates. Practical trade not overdone. Write for particulars. Watchmaking School, 210 Globe Building, Portland, Ore. 43fc

K. Iwutuki, a Japanese who owns a ranch at Odell, sustained a fractured skull Monday when his team ran away and he was thrown from the wagon. He struck his head on a rock and received an ugly wound. Dr. Duro was called and the unfortunate man was then brought to the local hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Moller had as their house guests over the week end Miss Helen Driver of Tacoma, Miss Frances Nelson of Albany, Robyn Nelson of Castle Rock, Wash., Representative John R. Latourrelle of Portland and Phillip Carroll and R. W. Kelley of this place. All attended the University Club ball Friday evening.

Christian and Missionary Alliance Sunday School at 9:45, H. C. Dietz, superintendent. Preaching at 11 a. m. Young People's Meeting at 7:15 p. m. Evangelistic service at 8 p. m. Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:45. These are all gospel meetings. Our motto: "Jesus Only." All are cordially invited. W. P. KIRK, pastor.

Dresmaking
Elizabeth Ware plans on being in the city from December 22 to January 5. She will help or do sewing for you in your home. Write her at 765 Oak street, Eugene, Ore. 47-50c

Henri de Reding of Portland spent the holidays with friends here.

E. H. Shepard has been confined to his home by illness for several days.

A daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shelley at Pine Grove Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Collie are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter yesterday.

Ralph Root and family expect to leave tomorrow for New York, where they will spend the winter.

F. J. Patterson and wife, who are spending the winter in Portland, came up the last of the week for a few days.

Dr. J. V. Worcester and Dr. J. F. Beaumont of Portland were inspecting their ranches here over the week end.

William J. McDavitt is suffering from a crushed finger, which was injured when a block of wood fell on it.

Royal L. Melendy and wife of Trout Lake, Wash., were among the guests at the University Club dance Friday.

Banks Mortimer, who is employed at the power plant across the river, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with friends here.

Please remember to post the dates of proposed public gatherings in the directory of entertainments at the public library.

J. F. Young of Riceville, Iowa, a veteran and old pioneer of that section, visited friends here the last of the week while making a tour of the Coast.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shelley, while playing with a pair of scissors, cut one of her fingers so severely that it had to be amputated.

Messrs. Clarke, Hoerlein, Kincaid and Chandler went to Cascade Locks Wednesday and furnished music for the Thanksgiving ball given by the Woodsmen's Circle of that place.

Friends of Miss Ruth Harris, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, will be pleased to know that she is making a very satisfactory recovery and will probably return home this week.

The News can give you the best in printing.

A CHILD'S DELIGHT
helps make a happy home. That delight is always intensified when it results from the possession of like we sell. There are all kinds of candy—some good and some bad. There's but one kind though, can be had of us, and that's the best. It's pure, wholesome and cheap. Buy a box or bag and make the little ones happy.

A BAG OF CANDY

THE 5, 10 and 15 CENT STORE
Heilbronner Bldg., 3rd and Cascade

H. F. Daly went to Portland Saturday to spend the winter.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Caldwell on Tucker Road the last of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Adams of Portland were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clarke.

J. L. Johnson, deputy sheriff, has been confined to his home by illness for the past couple of weeks.

W. M. Jones, who is employed at the Apple Growers' Union, had his left thumb taken off Monday in one of the airtight doors.

The real Thanksgiving spirit prevailed Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Miller, a little son arriving on that day.

There will be no services at Riverside Congregational church Sunday on account of the dedicatory services at the Methodist church.

There was real rejoicing at the U. C. M. ranch in the Upper Valley on Thanksgiving, the stork having brought a lusty son to Mr. and Mrs. Mason a few days previous.

A. J. Brunquist left Monday for Portland, from which place he will travel for Nottingham & Company, wholesale dealers in cement plaster. His territory will include the Willamette Valley.

The dance which was to have been given by St. Mark's Guild on December 13 has been postponed in order not to conflict with the Elks' Ball and will be held on December 31—New Year's eve.

For an easy and satisfactory solution of the Christmas gift problem attend the Unitarian Bazaar Friday and Saturday next door to Franz. Christmas articles and all kinds of homemade stuffs and candies.

Mrs. W. H. Lawrence returned Saturday. She accompanied Mr. Lawrence to the apple show at Spokane and afterwards visited friends at Pullman University, where she was formerly a member of the faculty.

For homemade cakes, cookies, pies, Christmas candies, aprons and other suitable Christmas presents attend the Unitarian Bazaar to be held Friday and Saturday in the Sprout building next door to Franz Hardware Store.

Rev. J. B. Parsons and family ate their Thanksgiving turkey with Mrs. Mary Groff at the latter's ranch. Mr. Parsons will preach at The Dalles Sunday, no services being held at the church here on account of the dedication of the Methodist church.

You'll have no trouble finding useful and acceptable Christmas gifts at the Unitarian Bazaar to be held Friday and Saturday in the Sprout Building next door to Franz'. You can also buy homemade cakes, cookies, candies and many other articles appropriate to the season.

A meeting of the Woman's Club will be held this afternoon, at which time the delegates to the state convention of women's clubs will make a report which will be of interest to all club members. Several important matters will be presented for consideration and a full attendance is desired. Mrs. Oxborrow will sing.

Money to Loan
Amounts $500 to $1500. First class real estate security. Will also buy mortgages for like amounts. 30fc REED & HENDERSON.

When Gipsy Smith, the famous evangelist, was traveling through the Northwest he tasted some Hood River Spitzenbergs and they tickled his palate to the extent that he has just sent an order for some of these trees to M. L. Osgood of the Hood River Standard Nursery. They will be shipped to England, where Mr. Smith will plant them on his estate.

State School Money to loan at 6 per cent. A. J. Derby.

If it's Good Coffee
You Want, Order One of These

Chase & Sanborn's Seal Brand
45c per lb.

Barrington Hall Steel Cut
45c per lb.

Caravan Blended
40c per lb.

Empress Blend
35c per lb.

THE STAR GROCERY
"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"
PERIGO & SON

H. E. JOHNSON
Carpenter and Builder
Third and State Sts.
Phone Shop 51; Res. 87-L.

J. C. Johnsen

Home of GOOD SHOES

Where the Best Values Come From

No Old Goods on our Shelves

We have a Complete Line of Fresh Groceries, Vegetables, Fruits, Etc. We invite your inspection

Elite Grocery Store J. R. KINSEY
Phone 231
FREE DELIVERY: East 9:30 a. m., 3:30 p. m.;
West 8 a. m., 10 a. m., 4 p. m. We Give STAMPS J. R. K.

Reduction In Edison Gold-Moulded Wax Records

Regular price of 4 minute Record is 50c. We sell them at the following prices:

5 to 9 Records... 45c each
10 to 19 Records... 40c each
20 to 39 Records... 35c each
40 or more Records 31c each

Make your selections before they are all gone, as many of these will never be issued again, and you will want them. We sell all kinds of Musical Instruments, besides the Victor, Edison and Columbia Machines and Records. These will make fine Christmas presents, and will be enjoyed for years.

Latest in Sheet Music 15c or 7 pieces for $1.00
Come early and make your purchases, and you will be better satisfied

WAGGENER'S MUSIC HOUSE

Insure with Reed & Henderson, Inc.

Fire, Accident, Life, Automobile, Plate Glass, Burglary, Employer's Liability, including FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS.

Also Judicial, Official and Indemnity Bonds

Resident Agent for: U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. Northern Assurance Co., of London Commercial Union Assurance Co., Ltd., of London Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York Pelican Assurance Co. of New York

Real Estate Loans Investments