

BRANDEGEE KINCAID & CO. CLOTHES.

Useful Presents

McKibbin Furs
Down Comforts
Fine Wool Blankets
Dents' Cape Gloves
Silk Hosiery
Holeproof Hose
Shopping Bags
Manicure Sets
Linen Handkerchiefs
LaVogue Cloaks

Sweater Coats
Men's Bath Robes
Smoking Jackets
Silk Mufflers
New Overcoats
Men's Pajamas
Fancy Vests
Silk Umbrellas
Warm House Slippers
Fine Neckwear

Hundreds of Other Gifts Just as Desirable

FRANK A. CRAM

BRANDEGEE KINCAID & CO. CLOTHES.

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Lime and Spray—Kelly Bros., phone 227-M.

Charles F. Batchelder of Boston visited his father here last week.

Violas, Guitars, Banjos, Accordions, Harps, etc. at Waggener's Music House.

If you want insurance in companies that pay losses promptly and in full, call on A. W. Onthank.

Mrs. H. E. Newton of Seattle and Mrs. M. A. Shockley of Portland were here to attend the Shockley-Simmons wedding.

Mrs. W. C. Brown of Lakewood, N. J., who has been spending several weeks with Mrs. W. R. Starrett, returned East last week.

Mrs. J. B. Welch and daughter of Mt. Hood were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerdes. Mrs. Welch has left to spend the winter in Eureka, Calif.

A. B. Billings and wife of the Upper Valley spent Thanksgiving with her son, E. W. Gribble, at Cascade Locks and the latter returned with them for a visit.

Reed and Henderson recently made the sale of W. C. Trigg's remaining 25 acres to Hans L. Rasmussen. Mr. Trigg will return to his home in Kentucky on account of poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ries, who were former residents of the Upper Valley and who moved to Eugene after selling their place, have returned and expect to make their home in the city.

A Christmas social and bazaar will be given by the Ladies' Aid of the Valley Christian church next Friday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McCabe in Jericho Lane. A good time to select your Christmas presents. Refreshments 15 cents.

A new orchestra comprising some of the well known musicians of the valley has been organized and will be known as the "Chandler Orchestra." Its members include William Chandler, Hans Hoerlein, E. A. Kincaid and Arthur Clarke. The orchestra has secured a large repertoire of the latest dance music, and has already received many orders for the approaching social season. All are talented and experienced musicians.

James Hunt underwent a serious operation at the local hospital Monday.

A son was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Smith of the Barrett district.

R. H. Coshaw underwent a serious operation at the local hospital Monday evening.

Mrs. James Waggener, Jr., of St. Johns spent the week end with her husband here.

J. R. Nickelsen left Sunday for Corvallis, where he will take the poultry short course at the O. A. C.

H. L. Rasmussen of the Oak Grove district leaves Monday to spend the winter at Gold Hill, Oregon.

E. W. Birge and wife leave Wednesday to spend the winter in New York. They will return by way of Southern California.

The Kensington of the Ladies' Aid of the United Brethren church will meet with Mrs. George Partis Friday afternoon. All are cordially invited.

J. M. Culbertson has moved his office this week from the basement of the Elliot building to the corner of Third and Oak street, having office room with the Bone-boro Orchard Company.

Rev. E. T. Simpson of St. Mark's, with his son Rodger, are attending the farmers' week at Corvallis this week and are also visiting their many friends in that city, where Mr. Simpson and family lived at one time.

Among those who have left recently for distant points have been the following: A. W. Halverson for Valley City, N. D.; Rudolf Jensen for Denison, Iowa; Fred Gesell for Connorsville, Ind.

Messrs. Gilbert and Clarke added another to their theatrical successes in their skit at the Electric last week for the benefit of the library fund, some of their local jokes being especially appreciated. Little Leslie Maguire has also distinguished himself as a vocalist.

Money to Loan
Amounts $500 to $1500. First class real estate security. Will also buy mortgages for like amounts.
30c REED & HENDERSON.

W. H. Rodenhiser of the Upper Valley last of the week.

A fine assortment of Music Rolls at Waggener's Music House.

Mrs. Floyd Arnold returned today from a visit to her parents at Winklock, Wash.

Mrs. P. Schrader returned from a visit with her parents in Portland the last of the week.

Mrs. C. A. Plath and daughter Corinne have been spending the past week in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Moseley and D. F. Moseley left the last of the week for Norman, Oklahoma.

W. C. Smullin of Mt. Hood, who is working near Gresham during the winter, has been spending a few days here.

John W. Weaver, who is working in Portland, has been spending a few days here storing his household goods in town.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Batten left Monday for Portland, Mr. Batten having an exhibit of fancy fowls at the poultry show being held there this week.

H. suo Ha att a k vcs shretaoiin

What could give you or your family more pleasure than a victrol, Edison or Columbia and a few records for Christmas? See Waggener's Music House about it right away. Price same everywhere. Trade at home.

Riverside church held its annual David Currier, Jr., left Saturday for Portland. From there he went to New York City, where he has accepted a position on an engineering project. He will visit friends in Cincinnati enroute East. Mr. Currier expects to return about the middle of next summer, meeting last Thursday evening at which there was a large attendance. Reports of the various officers and societies showed a good year's work and plans were laid for a more varied activity than ever next year. The following officers were elected: trustees, C. T. Roberts and C. K. Marshall; Sunday School superintendent, W. H. McClain; Deacon, H. L. Howe; Deacons, Mrs. V. C. Brock; treasurer, V. C. Brock; clerk, I. R. Acheson; Chief usher, R. R. Bartlett.

Teachers' Examination
Notice is hereby given that the County Superintendent of Hood River County will hold the regular examination for applicants for state papers at the High School in Hood River as follows:
Commencing Wednesday, Dec. 18, 1912, at 9 o'clock A. M. and continuing until Saturday, Dec. 21, at 4 P. M.
Wednesday—A. M., Writing, U. S. History, Physiology; P. M., Physical Geography, Reading, Composition, Methods in Reading, Methods in Arithmetic.
Thursday—A. M., Arithmetic, History of Education, Psychology, Methods in Geography; P. M., Grammar, Geography, American Literature, Physics, Methods in Language, Thesis for Primary Certificate.
Friday—A. M., Theory and Practice, Orthography, English Literature; P. M., School Law, Botany, Algebra, Civil Government.
Saturday—A. M., Geometry, Book-keeping; P. M., General History, Book-keeping.
L. R. ALDERMAN,
Superintendent of Public Instruction.
49-50

Record Cabinets at Waggener's Music House.

H. C. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Peters left Saturday for Cincinnati, where they will spend the winter.

Get a bunch of Edison Wax Records while they are cheap. Four-minute attachments for sale at Waggener's Music House.

On Saturday afternoon and evening December 14, at the Grange Hall, Van Horn, there will be a sale of articles suitable for Christmas. A chicken pie supper will be served from five till seven. Adults 35 cents. Children 25¢.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Oliver and son Edward of Walla Walla spent Monday and Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Yowell. They are on their way to Portland to spend the holidays.

Captain Treiber reports that the fish are hatching rapidly at the Underwood hatchery and that it is a sight worth seeing. He has arranged to carry passengers to the hatchery for the next four weeks at the same rate for which he now carries them to Underwood.

George P. Hitchcock gave an elaborate dinner to a few of his friends the last of the week at the Hotel Oregon. Those present included Captain and Mrs. McCann, Phillip Carroll, Banks Mortimer, Miss Lenore Adams, Mrs. J. H. Sutthof, Miss Constance Henderson, R. W. Kelly and Mr. Osgood.

An interesting program has been arranged for the meeting of the Woman's Club to be held next Wednesday, December 18, Mrs. W. F. Laraway will preside. Mrs. W. W. Rodwell will give a talk on the Hawaiian Islands and Mrs. Edmund Trew Simpson on the Philippines. Miss Lelia Radford will give a violin selection.

Just as we expected, Wilson was elected, the town went dry and Woman's suffrage carried and now indignation meetings are being held all over the valley by the bed bugs because Mr. Bartness will persist in selling Iron Beds, Vermin Proof Springs and Seelye mattresses that are not tufted. There is absolutely no chance for an industrious bug to make an honest living.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Moody of the Upper Valley spent the week end in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Sieg were visitors in Seattle the last of the week.

W. M. McConnell, now of Spokane and formerly of this city, was a visitor the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lenz of Odell entertained a few of their friends with refreshments, music and dancing the last of the week.

Guy Y. Edwards and family went to Portland Saturday. Mr. Edwards will remain for several weeks to undergo medical treatment.

Have installed an up-to-date picture Heights, 1112 Pine st. See my line of framing machine in my shop on the samples. A. B. Cash, Phone 285-X. 50-52c

G. M. Uptegrove of the Upper Valley and his sister Mrs. C. W. Holmes, left the last of the week to spend the winter in New York. They went by the Southern route.

Mrs. Mason has arrived from New York to spend the winter with her son at the U. C. M. ranch.

Dr. E. D. Kanaga, W. B. Allen and Attorney E. C. Smith have been spending several days goose hunting in Eastern Oregon. They had fair success and a splendid outing.

An embroidery club was organized recently at the home of Mrs. Arthur Howell. They met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Driscoll. The ladies are all congenial and intend to organize a permanent club to meet every two weeks.

The entertainment given by the Pythian Sisters last week was a success in every way. There were about 175 present. Sixty-eight gentlemen were measured as to height, each paying five cents per foot up to five feet and a cent per inch thereafter, netting a neat little sum. A short program was rendered, consisting of four numbers: A piano selection by Mrs. Dumble, comic reading, by Mrs. Lynn, a recitation entitled "Kentucky Philosophy" by Merle Frederick is deserving of special mention. Closing the program was a piano duet by Mrs. Kern and Miss Stella Brace, after which a fine luncheon was served.

One of the most successful bazaars ever held in this city was that of the Ladies' Aid of the Unitarian church last week. The goods offered for sale were of extra high quality and found ready purchase. The ladies report that they cleared about $235. A splendid gift was given them by Edward Hill, the local artist, who donated them a beautiful picture valued at $75 which will also be sold.

Among those who have already accepted invitations to attend the anniversary services at St. Marks church next Wednesday in honor of the fifth anniversary of the consecration of Rt. Rev. Robert L. Paddock, D. D., Bishop of Eastern Oregon, are the following: Bishop and Mrs. Scadding of Portland, the venerable Archdeacon Chambers of Portland, Rev. and Mrs. Quinley of Pendleton, and Rev. and Mrs. Warren of The Dalles.

DANCE! DANCE! DANCE!
Come and shake a leg at that mid-winter dance, Saturday, December 14, at Mt. Hood Hall. Music by Arens Brothers.

Some Wag.
Proud Father—in the sweet garden of our home, sir, my daughter is a blushing rosebud. Waggish Visitor—And you, of course, are the poppy.—Baltimore American.

Historic Pharsalia.
It was on his way to the battlefield of Pharsalia that Caesar uttered the famous saying to the fishermen. He had come down to Brindisi to cross to Dyrrachium and, finding no galley, commanded the owner of a small sailing boat to put him across the Adriatic. On the voyage a violent storm occurred, and even the experienced mariners were terrified. But the great captain said: "Have no fear. You carry Caesar and his fortunes."

Xmas Candies
Just arrived, all new and fresh. Come and see them.
New Oranges, Dates, Figs, Nuts, Popcorn, Raisins, Etc.

THE STAR GROCERY
"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"
PERIGO & SON

J. C. Johnsen

Home of GOOD SHOES

Where the Best Values Come From

Insure with Reed & Henderson, Inc.
Fire, Accident, Life, Automobile, Plate Glass, Burglary, Employer's Liability, including FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS.
Also Judicial, Official and Indemnity Bonds
Resident Agent for: U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. Northern Assurance Co., of London Commercial Union Assurance Co., Ltd., of London Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York Pelican Assurance Co. of New York
Real Estate Loans Investments

MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THOSE Christmas Photos Now
Do not wait. Photos make ideal Christmas gifts. And remember we must have time to do you first class work. Make your appointment now at.....
The Deitz Studio
Read the News—it tells it all.

Christmas Greetings
CHRISTMAS BELLS ARE TUNING up their joyous annual greeting. If the holiday spirit has not yet captured you, come and look at our display of exceptionally attractive 5, 10 and 15 cent goods.
We are making a specialty of holiday Booklets and Post Cards
One sight of the values here for so little money will inspire you with the good feeling belonging to the season. You will be glad to find that your money will go farther than you expected. For we have a splendid variety and assortment of the daintiest, prettiest and most attractive cards. You can remember every friend with a Christmas greeting and every gift should contain one of these beautiful cards.
Come and see them.
THE 5, 10 and 15 CENT STORE
Hellbronner Bldg., 3rd and Cascade