Correspondence
CASCADIA LOCKS

A daughter was born Tuesday, January 14, to Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin Young.

Mrs. H. S. Adams of Underwood has returned home after spending a week with W. V. Hutchinson.

Charles L. Cole leaves on January 27 for Elmira, N. Y., where he will take up a position with F. M. Howell & Co. His family will join him in the early part of the summer.

Several sleighrides have been enjoyed by the young people during the past week.

Mr. Marchel is ill at his home.

Miss Jennie Olin has returned from a visit with relatives in Portland.

Roland Harter entertained several of his friends at his home Friday night in honor of his birthday.

Mrs. Eva Anders and daughter, Mrs. Belville, have removed from the Locks to a point farther west on the river.

Mrs. George Roche is visiting in Portland.

CENTRAL VALE

Ray Creson is in Hood River where he is detained on business.

Archie Moss was a Hood River caller Friday.

Mr. Hansen and Gertrude went to Hood River Thursday to meet Mrs. Hansen, who returned that day from The Dalles, where she had been visiting friends.

The voters of this neighborhood went to the Middle Valley Tuesday to attend the ditch meeting.

Walter Niebans returned Saturday from Hood River where he had been visiting for some time.

Robert Scarlett entertained a jolly coasting party with his bob on the school house hill Thursday night. The coasting was fine in spite of a few buries of snow.

Miss Mary Sheppard went to Hood River to attend the game Friday, returning Saturday.

The news of the victory of the Odell team was received with delight by those supporters of the team in the Central Vale district who were disappointed in not being able to attend the game, Friday. They were especially interested in the team because of the two members who came from this neighborhood.

BARRETT

Bert Bennett is having the third finger on his right hand treated for poison. He has been suffering with it for some time. Saturday the doctor found it necessary to remove the nail.

Realta Myers is ill with lagrippe.

Mrs. W. E. Caulier entertained the Aid on Thursday. A large number were present in spite of the deep snow.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Bennett entertained the church board at their home on Wednesday evening. About 20 guests were present. Several interesting games were enjoyed and most delicious refreshments were served.

The plays the ladies expect to give January 31 are progressing nicely. There is a good laugh in store for all who attend.

Rev. Mr. Bennett expects to begin a series of meetings on February 9.

ODELL

The snow lies in wonderful beauty over all this country, but the roads are well broken. No sooner do the fir trees shed one snow storm before another is upon them.

Ole Nelson of Route 1 has mounted his mail wagon on runners and says there is much more snow here than in town. No one can beat him carrying mail on time.

Telephone services have been interrupted several times.

Last January the snow was 40 inches deep. This year it has been 35 inches so far. This year the coldest has been 12 degrees above zero. Last year it was much colder and travel impossible.

Mrs. Otten writes from Los Angeles to her daughter, Mrs. Ben Krohn, that the beautiful roses and shrubbery are killed down to the ground, presenting a scene of desolation.

Last Tuesday night a party of a dozen took a four-horse and sleigh and came out to Mrs. Krohn's from Hood River. Most of the party were married people and doubly enjoyed this renewal of old times. Mrs. Krohn had prepared a royal, old-fashioned country supper and while the seven-mile sleigh ride had furnished the fitting prelude, games, etc. occupied the time until midnight when the party returned to town with pleasant recollection of their delightful entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kemp left Rupert, Idaho, last Monday for Coacabella, Cal. They probably arrived at the latter place Thursday.

Mrs. W. A. Lockman had a letter from Mrs. Nettie Crockett telling of of her safe arrival at Coacabella, Riverside county, Cal., where she has joined her brother, Dane Kemp and family. It is very warm and dry there and she finds Dane much better than when he left Odell and with hopeful prospects of complete recovery.

Rev. Mr. Carson came up on the local train to Odell to fill his appointment Sunday morning. He will preach next Sunday night after Epworth League.

Sunday School at both churches was sparsely attended as pedestrianism is difficult. Everybody takes the middle of the road.

The meeting at Mrs. Dutro's was a very pleasant affair. About a dozen ladies were present and the husbands who came for them enjoyed coffee and lunch also. The more the women of Odell can meet one another to discuss mutual interests, the better it will be for Odell's future. We have here a company of bright and intelligent women who surely intend to have a live and progressive community. Remember, women of Odell, this particular work is for all of us and our children.

Mrs. Ida Young led C. E. at the Union church Sunday night. Sumner Cameron has promised to lead next Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Hargreaves preached after Endeavor and expects to do so each Sunday night during the winter. O. L. Walter brought him out in his sleigh as Mr. Hargreaves had said he would be there rain or shine. Special music next Sunday night.

Glenn Young has gone to Post, Brook county, to stay till spring. Mrs. Young's parents and brother live there, the postoffice being named for Odell.

It was a fine sight which greeted John Shelby on the 17th of January when looking down in the water near the barn he found 166 duck eggs. As there are only three ducks they must have been laying some time.

L. A. E. Clarke arrived home at last on Saturday evening, pruning in the snow had ceased to appeal to him.

Friday night at Hood River the First Team of the Odell Athletic Association, consisting of the Sheppard brothers, Davis, Lockman, Lafferty and Lewis, played Hood River High, winning the game by the score of 26 to 20. Odell's second team played the second High and was beaten by a score of 29 to 17. Our boys practice twice a week at the gym and they will turn out some fine work.

Will Smith returned from Portland last week.

HIS ULTIMATUM.

It Brought the Erie Directors to Terms, and Underwood Won.

"When Underwood was made president of the Erie road," said a Wall Street man, "certain things were promised. Roadbed and rolling stock were in rotten condition, but he was assured that the money would be forthcoming for betterments. After Underwood had taken the big desk the bankers' attitude was changed. Money was tight—the Erie was a very swamp for swallowing dollars—and they suggested that Mr. Underwood sit tight and refrain from peevish movement in the cause. It went on for a time until conditions began to improve. Then Mr. Underwood renewed his demands.

"Impossible," said the bankers.

"The following day there was a meeting of the directors. Underwood called it to order and then laid two folded papers on the table.

"This road needs $10,000,000 for improvements or a new president," said he. "Here is a resolution empowering me to borrow that amount of money. There is my resignation. I will leave the room for five minutes so that you may act."

"In two minutes the door opened and an elderly banker thrust his head out. 'Come on in, Underwood,' he said. 'We've adopted your resolution and burned your resignation. You win.'"

SHUN LOOSE SHOES.

They Give the Feet as Much Trouble as the Pinching Kind.

Seven persons out of ten suffer excruciating pain at one time or another with their feet. A single corn no larger than a grain of sand can take all the snap and vitality right out of you.

Two-thirds of modern foot troubles are due to the fact that almost every one—man, woman and child—wears shoes too loose. The shoe itself may be correct as to size and shape, but it is not fastened tight at the only point of control—namely, the instep.

When you set your foot upon the floor or pavement in the act of walking the shoe adheres, and if it be loosely fastened over the instep the foot pushes down into the toe of the shoe. At certain spots on the foot this slipping causes friction. These spots are the soles of the feet, the tops, ends and inner sides of the toes, the great and little toe joints and occasionally even the back of the heel.

When the friction thus caused is continued hour after hour and day after day one or more of these spots are almost sure to become inflamed and sore. A slight thickening, called a "callous," is formed. As the friction and pressure go on the resulting callous may thicken up unevenly. Then it is called a corn.—Woman's Home Companion.

INDIAN TROPHY SHOW IS BEST HISTORICAL COLLECTION, MADE BY WOMAN AMONG EIGHTEEN TRIBES, AT COLISEUM, CHICAGO

The land show at the Coliseum, Chicago, had the greatest individual collection of beaded-buckskins wearing apparel in the world. This included historical war dress worn by Old Si-Yeh, Little Plume, distinguished warriors of the Blackfoot Tribe in Glacier National Park.

The exhibit, which formed a picturesque part of the Glacier National park booth, is the property of Mrs. Margaret Carberry of Blackfoot, Mont.

Mrs. Carberry devoted twelve years of her life in the United States Indian service as a school teacher. She has been twenty-two years gathering the 2,441 articles of Indian wearing apparel, every piece of which has been worn by an Indian.

Trading Woman, as she is known among the Indians, made her collection among eighteen tribes in New Mexico, Arizona, Nebraska, Wyoming and Montana. She has the scalp and ordinary attire which were worn by the tribes of the Sioux, Piegan, Chipewea, Modoc, Comanche, Shoshone, Arapaho, Moki and Cheyenne nations.

One of the most prized things in her collection is the complete "full dress suit" of the late Little Plume, a noted warrior, which was worn for the last time by Little Plume in the Roosevelt inaugural parade in Washington. Little Plume was proudest in this attire on that occasion when President Roosevelt saluted him as the Indian chief passed the reviewing stand before the Great White Chief of the nation.

This is the first time Mrs. Carberry's exhibit ever was displayed. The Smithsonian Institution has endeavored to get possession of the collection, but Trading Woman would not sell a single moccasin. She does not even attempt to fix a financial value on it. In fact, she is so collector about the safety of the collection that she insured it for $15,000 against fire and Louis W. Hill, chairman of the Great Northern railway, who induced her to bring it to Chicago, agreed to hire two night watchmen to guard it before she would even consent to ship the stuff to the Chicago show.

The seven Blackfoot Indians who were guests at the land show look turns staying in the booth to keep an eye upon the passing throngs during show hours.

There is one string of 150 elk teeth in the collection.

NOTED MUSICIANS

Waldteufel, the greatest French waltz composer of the present day, Dudley Buck and other noted musicians have written some fine selections especially for the postess Schubert Lady Quartette of Chicago. You will enjoy every minute of their entertainment here on February 11 under the auspices of the Elks because it is bright and entertaining from beginning to end.

Sleighing in the valley has rarely been better.
