UPPER VALLEY NEWS

GET-TOGETHER CLUB IS ORGANIZED

An association was instituted Wednesday evening in the parlors of the United Church for the social and educational uplift of the people of the Upper Valley. A committee composed of Miss May Allen, W. I. Cornell and C. C. Walton reported a constitution, the gist of which recommended a get-together spirit without the aid of hammer and tongs. Rev. Van Nuys presided until a permanent organization was effected and the following officers elected: W. I. Cornell, president; S. F. Ricketts, vice president; C. E. Crayton, secretary and treasurer.

The library committee, composed of Mrs. W. H. Tobey, Mrs. John R. Putnam and Chas. L. Moody, presented a voluminous report a part of which was to the effect that the county librarian was prepared to install the library as soon as housing was provided.

Miss Blanche Shehan, superintendent of the Valley Crest Department of Education, announced her inability to secure a traveling library from the state and would appeal to Andrew Carnegie to fill the void in her district.

The social committee, composed of Miss May Allen, Mrs. A. B. Coulter and Mrs. C. C. Walton, announced that they had perfected plans for a Get-together Fest to be held on the evening of January 29 at Get-together Hall (Formerly Spencer & Collins' Emporium) and extends a cordial invitation to all to bring the smile that won't rub off.

PHILADELPHIANS REJOICE

Cemetery Will Soon Remind Them of "Back Home"

Operations will soon be resumed in laying out the grounds of the cemetery in accordance with the plans furnished by an eminent landscape architect and when completed will be second to none in the state. It surely will be a mecca for those who hale from Philadelphia as it will appeal to them as so homelike.

LIBRARY FINDS QUARTERS

Spencer Building Being Remodelled to Serve This Purpose

Ed Spencer has very kindly donated the use of his building for library and social purposes. For the past week a number of Artisans under the direction of Morris Walton have been engaged in refurbishing the interior for the social to be held there under the auspices of the Get-together Club on Wednesday evening, January 29.

BABSON WRITING A PLAY

Upper Valley Will Hear Playwright's Latest Production

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Babson and family are sojourning on the Isle of Manhattan. Sidney is writing a play to be presented by his brother Ray as one of the numbers in the entertainment course. As a lad Sidney showed evidence of dramatic talent for he devoted much time to play.

MELISAAC DONATES SITE

Choice of Three Lots Given for Library Purposes

R. J. Melisaac has donated the choice of three lots in the townsite as a library site. It is to be hoped that the building will be completed before President Wilson makes his visit to the Upper Valley.

PARKDALE NOTES

C. P. Johannsen and family have gone to The Dalles for a short visit with friends.

George Dimmick spent several days here the past week renewing old acquaintances.

Rollin Myers, who had his hand injured at Hay & Culbertson's saw mill, is at home and says he will soon be able to return to work.

C. C. Walton left last week for Southern California, where he will obtain a much needed rest.

The Portland Ski Club returned Monday noon after a delightful time at the Inn.

Rev. W. L. Van Nuys was unable to hold evening services at the Parkdale church last Sunday evening on account of a severe cold.

G. Wertgen, who has been sojourning in California for the winter, is back. He reports that there is as much winter in that sunny climate as there is here.

Ed Dresser and his brother Fred, who have spent the past month on skies exploring the hidden places and unexplored caverns at the base of Mt. Hood, have gone to Portland for a visit with friends.

The rural carrier of the Upper Valley had a very hard time delivering mail last week on account of the deep snow.

PINE GROVE

Herbert Vannier went to Portland last Tuesday.

Miss Zena Miller spent the week end with the home folks.

Oscar Krussow is in Corvallis attending the O. A. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vannier are in Portland on a visit. They left here last Sunday morning.

Miss Hermina Kellar came up from Portland Sunday morning.

Mrs. Walker of Portland arrived Sunday morning to fill the position of housekeeper at the Ben Lage home.

Miss Isetta Thomas, who used to reside here but now lives in Canada, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Eddie Wells, who has just returned from a visit with his brother in Beaverton, is quite ill with the lagrippe.

Mrs. Willis Van Horn leaves for Portland this afternoon. From there she will go to New York to join her husband. She is accompanied by her son Ned, who will go on to Seattle and enter the University of Washington at that place.

The Ladies' Aid will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. O. Mark.

The farce, "Mr. Bob," will be presented at the Pine Grove Grange Hall Friday evening, February 7, by local talent. Everybody prepare to attend. Admission 35c and 25c.

The Grange gave a delightful social evening to its members and friends Saturday evening. Dancing was the order of the evening. Vogel's new orchestra of six pieces furnished splendid music and everybody seemed to have a jolly good time.

A number of Pine Groveites went to Portland to attend "Ben Hur" this week.

Mr. Walter returned home last Thursday.

Henry Lage spent Sunday in Portland.

There will be a dance at the Pine Grove Hall Friday of this week.

Sleighing is spoiled but the coasting is fine.

(deferred from last week)

Last Tuesday evening the following officers were elected in the Sunflower Class for the ensuing six months: H.F. Lage, president; Russell McCully, vice president; Anna Godbersen, secretary; Mrs. Jennie McDonald, treasurer; Alene Clark, organist.

B. H. Lage went to Portland on business Monday forenoon.

Dr. C. H. Jenkins and family of Hood River spent the week end at the home of E. E. Lage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Mark were recently called to Montana by the death of Mrs. Mark's brother.

The Cosmopolitan Four are not able to fill their engagement here January 25, but are prepared to come out the 31st of January when a play will be given by local talent. Full particulars next week.

The recent snows have made most excellent sleighing so sleighing is the order of the day and night both.

A number from Pine Grove attended the Odell church Sunday evening to hear Rev. Hargreaves.

A serious accident occurred near the school house last Thursday evening. While driving home from town one of the horses of D. M. Jackson's team slipped and fell, breaking its hip. It had to be shot to put it out of its misery.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jarvis and son, Willard, returned from a two weeks' visit in Portland Saturday evening.

One of the jolliest events of the season was enjoyed by the Sunflower Class last Thursday evening, when three sleigh loads enjoyed the snow-covered scenery of the valley by moonlight accompanied by the merry jingle of sleigh bells and cowbells. All then repaired to the home of the teacher, Mrs. Jennie McDonald, where a bountiful chicken supper was served by that delightful hostess. Thirty-seven guests were present and all declared that the evening couldn't be surpassed.

Hans Lage and August Paasch were two Pine Groveites who went "court-ting" this past week.

WHITE SALMON

(From the Enterprise)

A boy tried to cross the Columbia River in a boat from Fallbridge to The Dalles, but unable to make it drifted all night to a sand bar three miles below his destination.

C. E. Woodruff returned Monday from Walla Walla. He says the snow fell there to the unusual depth of 12 inches. Times are very easy there as they harvested a big crop of wheat, grain and grasses.

R. P. Hardy of Iowa arrived Monday and will remain in White Salmon for a few weeks. He owns land bought of the White Salmon Development Company. Mrs. Hardy and son have been here several months.

M. Johnson has completed the new garage to be occupied by Charles Hutchins. It is a modern garage in every respect, 50x40, with a large, well lighted and equipped work room on the south side. A gasoline engine or electric motor will furnish the power to drive his lathe and other machinery.

Dr. Sayre of Nebraska has bought

An "inaugural ball" was held at the school house Friday night in honor of the new mayor, A. H. Jewett. Some of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jewett worked up a surprise party for them at the high school building, and it worked to perfection. The Jewetts were delightfully pleased and the others, which were a large part of the town, had an enjoyable time.

Dr. Sayre of Nebraska has bought the office practice of Dr. Russell, his fine house on Lincoln avenue and started in practicing Monday of this week. The doctor had White Salmon recommended to him by C. C. Chapman of the Portland Commercial Club, who, in turn, recommends his friend, the doctor, very highly to the people of this place and its vicinity. Dr. Sayre expects his wife and two children in about a month.

Our Annual Clearance and Stock Reducing Sale

CLOSES FRIDAY, JANUARY 31st

This sale has been satisfactory to us, and we believe to our customers as well. We have tried to state plain facts in our ads, and to have the goods and prices to back up every statement.

We have been ready to correct any error when brought to our attention and we feel that we have made good our claim of RELIABLE GOODS at Reasonable Prices. We are busy now with our Annual Inventory. Next week we will talk about New Goods.
