WHITE SALMON
(from the Enterprise)

John Thompson, recently of Hood River, now of Portland, was in White Salmon Saturday calling on friends.

C. W. Recker writes that he are now sojourning at Santa Barbara and will be back to White Salmon the early part of March, the rest of the "White Salmon colony" remaining a little longer.

Dr. Sayer expects his family in about ten days and will move into the house he bought of Dr. Russell, the Russells taking temporary head quarters elsewhere.

Some days ago three or four solicitors for personal aid to the weary and afflicted—mostly weary—happened into town the same day. One was a rather respectable looking fellow, "deaf and dumb" he said, and appeared as though he might be genuinely afflicted. He touched several of us. The Enterprise addressed a letter to the preacher at Woodlawn, with whom the dummy said he had lived, but no answer has come from the preacher. The fellow was doubtless another faker.

Robert Scott, the intrepid captain of the British Navy who reached the South Pole and perished on the return trip to his boat the Terra Nova, was a brother of Bruce Scott, who occupies the Pabst fruit ranch ten miles up the White Salmon valley. When called up by the Enterprise Mr. Scott had not heard of the misfortune. He had not heard from the expedition for many months. He could not believe that his brother had perished "for Bob had knocked around in the polar regions for years, was a cautious Scot, and well knew how to take care of himself."

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Hood River County.

Gilford D. Woodworth, and Rose Woodworth, Plaintiffs vs. Rose E. Hotchkiss, Standard Orchard Company, a corporation, Anson W. Stone, Defendants.

To Rose E. Hotchkiss, Defendant: You are hereby required to appear and answer the Complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the last day of six consecutive weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiffs herein will take a decree against you for the sale of the hereinafter described real property situated in Hood River county, Oregon, for the foreclosure of that certain mortgage foreclosed, dated November 22nd, 1905, made and executed by defendant, Standard Orchard Company, a corporation to the above named plaintiffs to secure the sum of Seven Thousand Dollars ($7000.00), and interest, which said mortgage was duly filed in the office of the County Clerk of said Hood River County, Oregon, on January 18th, 1910, at 9 o'clock a. m. and recorded in Book 3 of Mortgages on pages 527-8, 9, pursuant to default made in the payment of interest secured by said mortgage and all as follows, to-wit:

1. For Judgment against the said defendant Standard Orchard Company for the sum of Two Hundred and Five and 53-100 Dollars ($205.53), together with interest thereon from Jan. 2nd, 1913, and for the further sum of One Hundred Twenty Five Dollars ($125.00), as and for attorney's fees, together with plaintiff's costs and disbursements herein.

2. For the usual decree for the foreclosure of said mortgage and for the sale of the following described real property, situated in the County of Hood River and State of Oregon, to-wit:

All that part of the Northeast quarter (N. E. ¼) of Section Twenty-nine (29), in Township One (1) North, Range Ten (10) East of Willamette Meridian, lying west of the right of way of the Mount Hood Railroad Company, and containing about 80 acres, according to the United States Government Surveys thereof, by the Sheriff of Hood River County, Oregon, according to law and the practice of this court; that said sums aforesaid be made a specific and subsisting lien upon the said real property, attaching as of November 22nd, 1905, and prior and superior to any claim, right, title or interest of any or all of the above named defendants, or any or all persons claiming under, by or thru them or any of them; that the said real property be sold as aforesaid, to pay the said sum of Two Hundred and Five and 53-100 Dollars ($205.53), together with interest thereon, the said sum of One Hundred Twenty-five Dollars ($125.00) as and for attorney's fees and plaintiff's said costs and disbursements, herein; that upon the said sale, Sheriff pay the proceeds to the County Clerk of said Hood River County, and the said County Clerk apply the proceeds as by law provided; that said defendants and each of them and all persons claiming by, through or under them and each of them be forever barred and foreclosed of and from all equity of redemption from said sale and in and to said real property as by law provided; that said plaintiffs be entitled to become a purchaser at said sale, and that upon such sale the purchaser be entitled to enter into possession of said real property and hold the same as by law provided; and that plaintiffs be entitled to have the said sale of real property confirmed by the above named court. That plaintiffs may have such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable in the premises.
