WHITE ELEPHANTS ROAM AT PARKDALE

The floor groaned as the herd of white elephants gambled into the circus on Friday evening. Miss Miller, Mrs. Hann and Mrs. McIntosh were the ringmasters and proved to be grand masters in the art of entertaining.

There were numerous side shows one of which was the musical chairs, in which Mrs. Nelden was the leader of the band.

A few of the elephants that deserve special mention were J. W. Simmons' "Ferndale," Miss Mary Allen's "Mansion House," O. M. Bailey's "Mt. Hood Ready Relief," Mr. Boe's "Spud," Mrs. Crouse's "Steinberger," Mrs. Hann's "Can-Can," Ray Babson's "Brogan," Florence Craven's baby elephant "Darnit," Master James Crouse's "Mercury," James Goodlander's "Onion," Miss Miller's "Boe," J. Strom's "Breadwinner" and Uncle Jim Suydam's "Blackberry."

Miss Shahan's "G. O. P." did not appear as it had not fully recovered from the injury it received last November.

During the evening a couple of fakirs mingled among the audience endeavoring to relieve them of their coin but met with poor success. It was near midnight when the stakes were pulled up, everyone declaring they had an elephantine of a time.

WOMEN GET INQUISITIVE

But W. H. Tobey Guesses The Answers Right Off The Bat

Because of his expertness in the poultry game, W. H. Tobey is called upon to answer some pretty knotty questions and is pleased to impart his knowledge but draws the line at such questions as were asked at a recent meeting of the Bridge Club by two ladies who tried to get his "goat." Oh, Mr. Tobey, asked one lady, "which is correct, to speak of a sitting hen or a setting hen?" He promptly referred her to Hoyle for an answer. Then another lady fired the following: "I would like to know, Mr. Tobey, when a hen cackles, has she been laying or is she lying?" "That depends said Tobey, "whether she is of the Ananias or Steinep strain."

THAT RUMBLING EXPLAINED

Those rumbling sounds that are heard emanating from the direction of Valley Crest are not caused by any meteorological disturbances, but are merely Ray Babson rehearsing the "heavy" part he is to act in the melodrama that is to be staged on March 28 as a number in the entertainment course.

Christian Science

BELMONT

Mrs. J. Nunamaker returned Saturday from a visit with friends and relatives in the eastern part of the state.

Quite a number of the Oak Grove and Belmont people were present to listen to the last afternoon service of Dr. Bulgin in the M. E. church at Hood River. To say the least, those absent were the losers.

Neal Nunamaker ran a rusty nail into his foot one day last week resulting in blood poisoning. However, he is very much better at present.

The Glass home is still under quarantine. Mrs. Glass was stricken with the fever last Friday and is very ill. Raymond and baby Dorothy are still very low. Mrs. Glass' mother has come from Portland to care for them.

The New England Dinner given by the Ladies' Aid was in every respect a success. A nice program was given, and the dinner was good. The financial returns were quite satisfactory, the amount received being $18.30.

The W. F. M. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. Allen this (Wednesday) afternoon, March 5. Mrs. Sam Eby will lead the meeting. A full attendance is requested.

ODELL

At Fir it is being noted that the school is doing remarkably well. Miss Elise Wells being the teacher.

There have been no heavy Chinooks, so the snow is not all off. Rain fell here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kemp returned home from California Saturday morning. They do not seem to have been "frosting" in the least and there was certainly no frost in their welcome home. They report a fine trip.

Mrs. Helen Lockman has received a letter from her daughter, Mrs. Dane Kemp, saying they were all doing well at Imperial Valley. There had only been rain enough there to settle the dust. She expected to start homeward on March 2nd. Mrs. Alice Poole is in Los Angeles and very well. Mrs. Crockett remains with her brother, who is growing stronger.

Sunday School at the Union Church next Sunday at 10:30. Miss Bell Reade has a fine class of boys and girls of 16 and thereabouts.

B. churches uniting, and there resulted 200 converts. Everyone is invited. We understand that Dr. Bulgin is a Presbyterian.

It is with deep regret that we have to chronicle the fact that F. Clark and family have moved from our neighborhood. They have lived in Pine Grove for a number of years and have many friends who will miss them. Miss Alene is organist of both the Sunday School and the Sunflower Class and is one of the most popular young ladies of the community, hence will be greatly missed by the young people. The best wishes of the entire neighborhood goes with them to their new home.

The Sunflower Class gave a farewell party for Miss Alene Clark Friday evening. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all, the only damper being in the sadness of the thought that it was a farewell to one of the members of the class.
