WHITE SALMON

(from the Enterprise) Mrs. Sutherland and Mrs. MacInnis visited Mrs. Waugh in Hood River

Wednesday. A. J. Brunquist of Hood River is pruning the E. E. Bentley orchard this week.

Bryan R. Dorr of the Major Creek Lumber Company was in town and says the mill intends to start up again this week, sawing out stuff for the completion of the flume, which will be pushed as soon as all the snow disappears from the canyon.

The Michigan meeting brought more 'out of the woods" than was anticipated by J. L. Sutherland, who called the meeting. Over seventy sat down to the picnic dinner, after which songs were sung, opening with "Michigan, My Michigan," speeches made and each one t ld from what part of the state he or she came.

C. W. Reckers and family returned from Southern California on Saturday. They enjoyed themselves very much in the south, but are glad to get back | See Poultry Yards at Frankton. | Phone 5929 to White Salmon. They covered much of the country by automobile while away, for California has spent millions of dollars making good roads, autos are many and horses comparatively few.

Frank Campbell and family, who ive on the flat, met with an accident last week which resulted seriously for them, for the father and seven-year-old stepdaughter are crippled with fractures of bones. The family were in the wagon and while making the turn in the lane road the wagon tipped over and the team started on the run. The occupants were beneath the vehicle and caught in the slats which made up the sides of the box. They were dragged some distance before becoming extricated. Mr. Campbll's arm was broken and the girl's leg fractured in two places. All were more or less bruised. That one or two were not killed is a wonder.
