MARRIED
Atwater-Morrison
Phillip D. Atwater of this place and Miss Florence Morrison were united in marriage on Saturday, March 8, at the home of the bride's mother in New York City. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Atwater left for a honeymoon trip in Connecticut. They are expected here in a few days and will make their home on Mr. Atwater's ranch. Mrs. Atwater was the guest last year of Mrs. E. F. Pooley and her mother and sister also spent some time here. Both bride and groom have a large circle of friends who will give them a cordial welcome upon their return.
Smith-Hall
Myron S. Smith, a well-known orchardist of the Underwood district, was married on March 8 at Elmira, N. Y., his former home, where he has been spending the winter. Mr. Smith has many friends here, especially among the Masons, of which order he is a prominent member, who will congratulate him upon the happy event. The following notice of the wedding is taken from the Elmira Advertiser:
Mrs. Cora M. Hall of this city and Myron S. Smith of Underwood, Wash., were united in marriage at the home of the former, 306 East Second street, Saturday, March 8, at noon by the Rev. Dr. R. Lew Williams. The bride is a sister of Dr. H. W. and Charles Fudge of Elmira and the groom is a brother of Mrs. H. M. Daggert of this city. The happy couple left for Albany for a few days' visit, after which they will return to Elmira for a short stay. On March 15 they will leave for Underwood, where they will make their future home. Mrs. Smith is very well known here and her charming manner has endeared her to a host of friends who wish her much joy and happiness, and who will extend to the popular couple their heartiest congratulations.
