Miss Alice Tomkins has returned from Portland after spending a week with friends.

Reports from Miss Hannah Ostberg, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, three weeks ago, state that she is rapidly improving. It is hoped by her many friends that she will soon be able to return to her home.

A number of young people delightfully surprised Arthur Granstrom at his home on Saturday evening. During the evening games were played and refreshments served. Everyone reported a good time.

Master Albert Levy is visiting friends in Portland.

Friday morning, the house in which Jess Glazier lived, was destroyed by fire. Although this building was entirely burned, others were not damaged. All of the furniture in the house was saved.

Mrs. H. Clay Levy is visiting friends and relatives in California. She expects to be gone about a month.

The Ladies' Aid will hold an Easter Sale at the K. of P. Hall on Saturday, March 22.

Mrs. Joe Buttz has returned from Portland, where she has been a patient at the Good Samaritan Hospital for about four weeks.

WHITE SALMON

(from the Enterprise)

H. G. Day and family are expected back from California next week for a few weeks sojourn.

George Newton, who was manager of the Fruit Growers' Union, is preparing to leave for Hartford, Conn., where he will enter business.

D. W. Dexter returned from California Saturday and is getting ready to work off a hundred pounds of avoirdupois or so on his ranch this spring. At the stockholders meeting of Saturday, J. C. MacInnis was elected to fill the vacancy of J. J. Conger, who was taken from the board for manager of the Union.

Paul McKercher and family have returned from Portland and are again occupying the ranch on the Trout Lake road. Mr. McKercher says he may put up a new house this summer. There is a livelier demand for apples, and the local Union has sent out several loads the past ten days. With the increasing demand there is also a tendency on the part of shippers to hold for still higher prices. T. A. Fox and family drove from Trout Lake recently and are temporarily quartered in White Salmon, intending to leave shortly for one of the Aleutian Islands in the Alaskan territory. Fox is an old fisherman and is going back to the business.

Estelle Christenson, son of E. C. Christenson, who lives northeast of this place, returned from the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland with recovered eyesight. Having become almost totally blind, the proceeds from a benefit dance and an appropriation from the county were given to enable him to go to Portland for treatment.

ODELL

Rev. J. R. Hargreaves closed his week of services Friday night with a good attendance. After the sermon a supper was served and a collection of $6.50 for a "sometime" piano was taken. He preached on Sunday night following Endeavor, which was led by Miss Leta Bowerman, on the subject "Good Citizenship and Sunday Sports." It was expected to organize a Men's Brotherhood Tuesday last and Ladies' Aid on Monday of which further particulars may be given next week.

Roy Krohn sustained a serious accident Friday night. While the older persons ate supper the High School boys were playing Blackman near the church. Roy was full tilt after one who stopped suddenly and Roy's eye-socket received the impact of the others' head. His eye swelled shut and was terribly bruised, but there was no pain as sensation was destroyed. Saturday morning he began the patient and continuous application of hot water to the shut eye and was able to be in school Monday.

Mrs. James A. Cooper of Pendleton was the guest over Sunday of Dr. and Mrs. Duro.

Mr. and Mrs. Ash have left Odell on a "pleasure exertion" and their home is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Cambridge, new arrivals from Chicago. They are accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Cox, who will for the present reside at Mrs. Ead's.

On Monday evening Mrs. E. T. Folts gave a St. Patrick party to the young people. It was a very delightful affair. Mrs. Folts' children are all back to school in fine shape.

Marion Hunter returned from Portland with his mother and Miss Mabel Hunter only to succumb to an attack of measles. We are glad to hear he is now convalescent.

Easter Endeavor service will be led by Mrs. Marguerite Walter.

Miss Nell Shelley has the leading part in a play to be given the 19th by the Drama Class at Pacific University. She expects to be home on the 20th and will have an Easter solo for the Endeavor Sunday evening.

Miss Eva Boyd came from Corvallis for a visit with her mother and other relatives on Thursday night. She returned Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Shelley, son and daughter are at Mrs. Boyd's for a few days.

Miss Rush and Mrs. L. A. E. Clark made a flying trip to The Dalles Friday.

On Thursday the Methodist Ladies' Aid will have an Easter sale in the M. E. church basement. It will continue that afternoon and evening and at six o'clock a first-class chicken dinner will begin to be served and will continue through the evening as required. All know that this will be a fine dinner and the sales articles beautiful and useful.

At the M. E. Church Easter Sunday School will be at 10 o. m. with one or two recitations for Easter. Rev. Carson preaching in the evening after League.

There was lots of fun at the gym last Wednesday night when the Business Men and Farmers contended for honors in a basketball game. The result was a tie. Free lunch was served and athletic stunts enjoyed. A meeting to arrange for baseball was to be held last night.

Mrs. Wallace Young gave a dinner in honor of Mrs. Emil Schiller last Friday. Mrs. Schiller is visiting her mother, Mrs. Masiker, and her two sisters and will return to her home below Carson this week. Mrs. Don Crosby, Mrs. Mae Schiller and Miss Hope Shelley were invited to the reunion of old friends.

Miss Hope Shelley has been caring for her mother who has been very ill but is now convalescent.

Ben Frohn, Ed Jeppesen, Mr. Meyers and J. M. Shelley with his three-horse team are speedily subduing the wilderness on the Chapman and Sheridan ranch. Chapman needs more help—so does everybody. The ditch company has put men to work so help is scarce.

Mrs. Florence Cushman has traded places with Arthur Pierce and has moved into his cottage.

Among others on the sick list last week were Mr. Ferguson, Mrs. Jeppe, Mrs. Ida Young and Ruth and Mrs. Shelley. The grippe and the groundhog have held sway together and now that his time is up surely king grippe will be routed.

Easter Sunday is almost here and a beautiful program, "A Morning in the Orient," a recital and song service will be given after Sunday School at the Union Church. Mrs. Walter will read and a full chorus and soloists will sing.

ODELL CHURCH NOTICE

The Easter musical service of the Union church at Odell will be held in the evening instead of at noon.

OAK GROVE

F. S. DeWitt celebrated his birthday anniversary on Sunday, March 9, by entertaining several neighbors for dinner.

Miss Alice McCurdy of Hood River spent the week end at the home of Miss Ila Nichols.

A special Easter program will be given next Sunday at Sunday School at 2:30 in the afternoon, which everybody is invited to attend. The children are now practicing Easter songs and recitations for the occasion.

Mrs. J. C. Bowman and children returned Saturday to their ranch, having spent the winter in Portland. Mr. Bowman came with them, but returned Sunday to the city to resume his work there.

Jay Armstrong, a student at O.A.C. at Corvallis, arrived last week for an indefinite stay at the home of his sister, Mrs. Harry M. Francis.

The eighth grade of the Oak Grove school gave a short program in the assembly hall of the school house Friday afternoon. In addition to the scholars, several of the parents enjoyed the entertainment, which consisted of a few songs and recitations and a short playlet entitled "Mr. Bayberry's Dilemma."

About thirty school boys and girls attended the St. Patrick's party Saturday evening at the home of Ila Nichols. After a number of games had been played, refreshments were served, which consisted of chicken salad, crackers, coffee, ice cream and cake. The hostesses of the occasion were the Misses Ila Nichols, Alberta and Anna Sutton, Vera Gano, Hilda Hukari and Irene Lancaster.

Anyway, the question, "What shall we do with our ex-presidents?" does not seem to bother the Mexicans.

One-fourth of the irrigated farms of the United States are in California.

CENTRAL VALE

Work on the roads in this district was begun Monday with the Massee hill as the starting point.
