

Cloth Gloves - 5c to 25c
 Leather Gloves - 25c to $2

GLOVES

New Spring Arrivals

Charmeuse Brocade Silks
 50c to $2.00

Silk Poptins
 60c to $1.50

Silk Ratines
 75c to $1.00

Bed Comforts $1.00 to $10.00

Cotton Blankets 50c to $1.95

Wool Blankets $2.50 to $15.00

Duttonhofer Shoes for Ladies

Florsheim Shoes for Men

Priced $3 to $6

McKibbin Hats
 $3.00

Fitform Suits
 $15.00 to $25.00

Fownes Gloves
 $1.75 and $2.00

Carter Neckwear
 25c to 75c

Xtragood Suits for bad Boys $3.50 to $8.00

BOYS' XTRAGOOD CLOTHES

Rocking Chairs Free to our Customers. Start a Card

FRANK A. CRAM

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Lime and Sulphur Spray. Kelly Bros. Hood River Spray Mfg. Co., Phone 5622.
 Can deliver coal or wood promptly. Taft Transfer Company. 7cfc
 Start making money in hay and cows. Camas Prairie offers the opportunity. B. E. Duncan & Co. 13-14c
 Dr. G. W. Crouter and wife of Charlevoix, Mich., were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Kanaga a couple of days last week.
 For Sale—Full-blooded Brown Leghorn eggs. 75 cents a setting, $4.00 per hundred. G. H. Robbins, Phone 5906. 11-13c
 Lent having passed the guild of St. Mark's Episcopal Church are planning to give another of their enjoyable dances on Friday evening, April 4.
 Robert T. Newhall and family have moved to Portland, where he may be found at 727 Upper Drive. Mr. Newhall expects to make occasional visits to Hood River in the interests of his nursery business.
 Mrs. Leroy K. Armstrong, who recently went to Los Angeles with her daughter, Miss Lenore Adams, is now in Ogden with Mr. Armstrong. Miss Lenore remains in Los Angeles for the benefit of her health.
 Clayton Fletcher and family recently arrived from Manteno, Wis. Mr. Fletcher was here last fall and purchased a 200-acre ranch in Duke's Valley from J. P. Thompson. He expects to build a home on the place this summer and to make other improvements. He is now visiting his brother-in-law, J. M. Schmelzter.
 Keir & Cass have been painting things red, having adorned the front of their drug store with a coat of vermilion hue. They have also refinished the interior of the store in white, besides remodeling the show windows. The appearance of the store, both inside and out, has been greatly improved.
 Miss Molly Pifer and brother, James, entertained at cards Thursday evening in honor of Miss Ethel Vanderlin of Pittsburg, Pa., who is their guest. Five hundred was played, there being six tables. Prizes were taken by Miss Viola Fisher and Crawford Lemmon. Delicious refreshments were served and a delightful evening was enjoyed.
 Hood River Spray Mfg. Co., Phone 5622.
 Lime and Spray—Kelly Bros., phone 227-M.
 Coal or Wood delivered on short notice. Taft Transfer Company. 7cfc
 Public stenographic work done. Room 2, Hall Bldg. Phone 3291. 6cfc
 A. C. Sollenbach of the Upper Valley spent the last of the week in the city.
 We have some good values in Camas Prairie hay lands. B. E. Duncan & Co. 13-14c
 P. F. Fouts, wife and son, formerly residents here, were visiting friends Sunday.
 Mrs. Floyd Arnold returned last night from a visit with her parents at Winlock, Wash.
 Mrs. Alice R. Rawson of the Upper Valley went to Portland last week to spend a couple of weeks.
 Miss Gertrude Wheeler has returned from Portland to spend the summer with her parents at Summit.
 Mrs. W. H. Austin of the Upper Valley has returned after spending the winter with relatives in the East.
 Mrs. J. C. Diamond of the Lingerlong Orchard left last week for Chicago on account of the dangerous illness of her niece.
 Mt. Hood visitors in the city last week included E. L. Rood, J. B. Doggett, A. C. Jordan and Robert Leasure.
 Mrs. George Wissinger and two daughters of Milwaukie, Oregon, were the guests of Mrs. C. A. Bell over the week end.
 W. S. Wharton accompanied Mrs. S. C. McIntosh from Newburg last week on her return to her homestead in the Upper Valley.
 Myron S. Smith and bride arrived Saturday from Elmira, New York, and went from here to their home at Underwood, where a warm welcome was awaiting them.
 A very creditable concert and entertainment was given by the newly-organized band at the Commercial Club Friday evening. The band, which included 16 instruments, rendered several numbers in excellent style. The musical program was supplemented by Miss Ramsden of Portland who gave the reading "Every Woman."

For prompt delivery of coal call Taft Transfer Company. 7cfc
 Philip D. Atwater and bride returned Wednesday from New York.
 Early Rose seed potatoes—best grade. Kelly Brothers. 13-14c
 For Rent—Three furnished light housekeeping rooms. Phone 2653. 1f
 Wanted—Position by experienced stenographer—good penman. Address Box 133, Hood River, Ore. 10cfc
 Chester C. Locke arrived Sunday from Winchester, Mass., and is planning to purchase a place in the Upper Valley.
 C. C. Walton of the Upper Valley went to Portland the last of the week to meet Mrs. Walton, who returned from California.
 Another excursion will be run to The Dalles next Friday evening for the benefit of those who wish to hear Dr. Bulgin.
 Miss Hazel Smith and Miss Pearl Bradley came home the last of the week from Willamette University for a short vacation.
 Rev. R. G. Sumnerlin of Vancouver, Wash., will preach at both morning and evening services next Sunday at the U. B. Church.
 Jonas Parker arrived Saturday from Custer county, Montana, to spend a few days with his two nephews, J. W. and Frank Parker.
 Mrs. W. H. Schmick arrived the last of the week from the East to spend the summer with her husband on their ranch at Willow Flat.
 E. Burnell of Columbia, South Carolina, arrived the last of the week to join the corps of engineers employed at the Pacific Company's plant.
 Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wilder of Chicago stopped here last week to visit Colonel and Mrs. W. F. Tucker. Mr. Wilder is an engineer and has been employed on the Panama Canal, being now on his way home.
 True-to-Name Nursery has opened an office in town on corner opposite from Oregon Hotel and samples of trees can be seen in tree yard adjoining office. Mr. Galligan will be at the office Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.
 Miss Benson and Miss Allen entertained the Tuesday Evening Club very pleasantly last week at Miss Allen's home. Current events were reviewed and also some periodicals. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. Campbell, Miss Neda Carter and Miss Lois Imholz. About 25 club members were present. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Bess Isenberg of Portland visited her parents here over Sunday.
 Mrs. Jesse Edgington returned Monday from a week's visit with friends at Wasco and Moro.
 E. O. Hall has moved to his ranch and rented his home on Columbia street to J. E. Welland.
 Start making money in hay and cows. Camas Prairie offers the opportunity. B. E. Duncan & Co. 13-14c
 Victor Johnson is recovering at the hospital from a serious operation performed last week for acute appendicitis.
 Attorney E. H. Hartwig is remodeling his farmhouse on the May street-Frankton road for a convenient summer home.
 Ten new members joined the M. E. church Sunday. There was a large attendance at the sunrise service held at six in the morning.
 Mrs. G. L. Schelky, accompanied by Miss M. McCall and G. B. Schelky, arrived from Vancouver, B. C., Monday to make their home here.
 Miss Louise Boyden has returned for the summer and is prepared to accept a limited number of pupils in elocution. Address Route No. 3. 1f
 "Bill" Cass, who is known at the U. of O. as the "Sage of Podunk," has been selected to edit the humorous section of the Emerald, the college paper.
 The ladies of the Rebekah Lodge gave Mrs. William Ganger and Mrs. A. Klinger a farewell party last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McCarty.
 Mrs. Mabel Carter, who has been spending the winter in Southern California, is here for a couple of weeks' stay with her parents before returning to the sunny south.
 Roger Moe is a competitor in the contest at the U. of O. for a position on the Editorial staff of the Emerald. At last report he stood third among about a score of candidates.
 Captain Schelky, who has a large circle of friends, celebrated his 86th birthday Saturday and was the recipient of many hearty congratulations. The captain is still hale and hearty and enjoys the zest of living more than many younger men, while he furnishes pleasant entertainment for his friends when he recounts the many interesting experiences of his long life on the high seas. The captain, who is spending the summer on the ranch, took the opportunity while here to attend the Masonic exercises Saturday night and also the Easter services Sunday.

For Sale or Rent—A piano. Phone 2193. 6cfc
 We have some good values in Camas Prairie hay lands. B. E. Duncan & Co. 13-14c
 Sheriff Frank Elkins of Crook county was here on official business Saturday.
 R. B. Bragg has been serving this week on the jury list of the U. S. District Court at Portland.
 L. A. Henderson went to Oregon City Saturday and accompanied his wife upon her return here.
 NOTICE—Before ordering your Burbank and Vermont Gold Coin seed potatoes you had better call the U. C. M. Ranch, Phone Odell 337. 11-18c
 You should protect yourself against burglars. We insure your jewelry and silver against burglary for $19.99 to $15.99 per $1000.00. Reed & Henderson Inc., Agents, U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. 12-15c
 Do you want a band in Hood River? Sure! Well, come along and patronize their entertainment Friday evening, March 21, at the Commercial Club Hall. They do not ask charity but will give value received.
 Work was started the last of the week on opening up a street west of the vinegar factory. Railroad street will be extended about 600 feet from Seventh street west. The purpose is to open up the manufacturing section of the city in order to accommodate present and prospective industries.
 Frank E. Doem has sold his 10-acre bearing orchard at Pine Grove to F. H. Bickford of Portland. It is said that the consideration was $1900 an acre. The place is improved with a house. Mr. Bickford is a retired business man of the Rose City and expects to come here this week with his family to make his home.
 The Mothers' Club met Friday afternoon. A business session was held and the topic for the next meeting assigned. The club proposes to take up helpful studies along the line of child welfare and all women interested in the movement are invited to attend. The next meeting will be held Thursday, April 9, at the Methodist church at three p. m.
 Partially paralyzed from a concussion of the brain sustained when a timber leaped from a flume and struck him on the head, an Italian was brought here from across the river last week. Drs. Waugh and Kanaga performed a delicate operation, removing several pieces of broken skull the size of a half dollar. The man is now recovering.
 Local Knights Templars attended Riverside Congregational church in a body Easter morning, services being appropriate to the occasion. Rev. E. A. Harris delivered an able sermon on "The Victory That Overcomes the World" and there was a program of Easter music by Hans Hoerlein, Mr. and Mrs. Henney, Mrs. P. S. Davidson and George R. Wilbur.

C. O. Huelat left Sunday for a few days business trip to Seattle.
 James Waggener, Jr., spent Saturday and Sunday in Vancouver and Portland.
 Mrs. M. H. Moody is expected Friday from Chicago to visit her son, C. I. Moody, in the Upper Valley.
 William Ganger and Al Klinger left yesterday morning with their families to make their home on their ranches at Bull Run.
 For Sale—Brand new Studebaker inch and a quarter wagon for $10 less than cost. A. B. Fitzpatrick, No. 1 State street or phone 2512. 13-14p
 Miss Helen Davidson has had as her guests during the Easter holidays Miss Mabel Adams of Seattle and Miss Elizabeth Seal of Dungeness, Wash.
 J. G. Vogt has been in The Dalles recently in the interest of the clothing store of his brother, William Vogt, who is unable to conduct the business on account of illness. 7cfc

Mrs. Jennie Brown, who has been spending several months with relatives at North Yakima, returned Saturday.
 Remember the Starrs at the Opera House this evening in the U. B. Lyceum course number. They live up to their name.
 The Starrs appear this evening at the opera house as one of the entertainments on the U. B. Lyceum course. They are most highly recommended.
 Regular Sunday excursion to Parkdale. Pleasant trip for yourself and friends.
NOTICE
 We have a client who desires to secure a loan of $2100.00 on first mortgage on 40 acres of land about three miles south of Hood River. Will pay 8 per cent interest. Phone 3183. 13cfc
STARK & HAZLETT.
 Buy your coal of Taft Transfer Company. 7cfc

FIRE INSURANCE

That Insures

If you wish some insurance on your stock of merchandise, house, barn or furniture, call on or

PHONE 3111, and talk it over with

ROBERTS & SIMMS
 SUCCESSORS TO
G. Y. EDWARDS & CO.
 HOTEL OREGON BUILDING

Watch Repairing

Is a specialty to which we give our Specific Attention. We do...

JEWELRY REPAIRING and Remodeling

Test us with some piece you cannot use.

Arthur Clarke
 Jeweler and Optician
 Opp. Butler's Bank

Insure with Reed & Henderson, Inc.

Fire, Accident, Life, Automobile, Plate Glass, Burglary, Employer's Liability, including FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS.

Also Judicial, Official and Indemnity Bonds

Resident Agent for: U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. Northern Assurance Co., of London Commercial Union Assurance Co., Ltd., of London Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York Pelican Assurance Co. of New York

Real Estate Loans Investments

We Can Sell You Two Good...

DAIRY or STOCK RANCHES

...That Are Real Snaps

B. E. DUNCAN & CO.

MARRIED
 Bradley-Schrum

Arlo Ray Bradley and Miss Vivian Schrum, daughter of W. H. Schrum, were united in marriage Sunday morning. The ceremony was performed at Asbury M. E. church by Rev. W. B. Young immediately after the sunrise service. Only the families were present. Both bride and groom are well known young people of the city and will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for a long and happy life together. They will make their home at 1107 Twelfth street.

Read the News—it tells it all.