Our friend and long time neighbor, William Ehrck, died at Portland at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Emma Hendon. His other daughters, Mrs. Lizzie Eggert and Mrs. Mary McFarland, were also present and his sons Otto and Will Ehrck. His son Will was supporting him when he died and Mr. Ehrck knew them all to the last. About two years ago an abscess broke on his lung and his faithful wife nursed him back to life. She died a year ago. An abscess on the other lung caused his death. He was fully conscious that he could not recover. Mr. and Mrs. Ehrck were Lutherans and in early days the pastor of that faith held regular services at the Union church of which Mr. Ehrck was one of the frat trustees. His funeral was held at the Pine Grove M. E. church and he was buried at the side of his wife in Pine Grove Cemetery. The church was filled to overflowing, about one fourth of the number being Elks, many of them from The Dalles. Commander E. A. Hudson conducted the service of the order for their dead brother. Rev. Troy Shelley preached the funeral sermon from the text, "If a man die shall he live again?" He was assisted in the services by M. D. Odell. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith sang several beautiful songs. A sharp contrast to the time of our friend's youth when he came here and with his death was noted in the long train of automobiles that came in the pouring rain to do this man honor.
