

DRUGS

After the Doctor--
THE DRUGGIST

The doctor's work is only half what has to be done for the patient. And if the druggist be lacking in ability and care the prescription might as well have never been written. But we make a special study of each case and our own medical knowledge is thorough enough to be of great use to us in those sometimes occurring cases when the doctor, in his haste, makes a slight error.

LOST LAKE MEASURE IS IN LANE'S HANDS

Portland's bill to extend the Bull Run watershed to Lost Lake, to make unlawful the construction of a road connecting Portland and the Upper Hood River Valley, and to impose a heavy fine upon anybody crossing the reserve has been referred to the committee on forest reservations and protection of game, of which committee Senator Harry Lane is chairman. The bill was introduced in Congress on April 17. Hood River has several times protested against the reserve being so extended as to prevent the construction of an automobile road across the range.

The bill provides that none of the enlarged reserve, as proposed, shall be sold or withdrawn from said reserve, and no railroad or other road shall be constructed therein, and no timber shall be cut or removed, and right acquired for the use of water for power, light, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes, except by said city of Portland.

And furthermore, that it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, except forest rangers and others employed by the United States to protect the forest, and federal and state officers in the discharge of their duties, and the authorized employees of the water board of the city of Portland, state of Oregon, to enter upon or pass through any portion of said reserve; and any person or persons, except those hereinbefore excepted, who shall enter or trespass upon said Bull Run forest reserve, or in any part thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in the district court of the United States for the district of Oregon shall be fined not less than $50 or more than $500 in the discretion of the court.

MARRIED

Mellon-Salquist

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the Church of the Immaculate Conception Wednesday morning when George A. Mellon and Miss Anna Ruth Salquist were united in marriage by Father Victor. Mass was celebrated and the choir rendered appropriate music.

The bride looked very charming in a dress of white embroidered voile over white silk. She wore a white picture hat and carried a bouquet of white lilies and carnations. Miss Betty Salquist, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. She was attractively gowned in pale blue chiffon over silk, wore a picture hat to match and carried pink carnations. Forrest Kingdon acted as best man.

After the ceremony the bridal party partook of a wedding breakfast served at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carmody. Mr. and Mrs. Mellon then left on a wedding trip which will include Portland, Gresham, Salem and other Willamette Valley points. They will be at home after June 1 at Ninth and Taylor streets.

Mr. Mellon has been employed at the Kier & Cass drug store, while Mrs. Mellon has been with the Hood River Abstract Company. Both have made many friends who will unite in wishing them an abundance of happiness.

CONSIGNMENT FIRMS FIGHTING MOVEMENT

H. F. Davidson, who returned the last of the week from a meeting of the board of directors of the North Distributors' Association at Spokane, reported that good progress has been made despite the fact that certain organizations which have been forcing the Northwest to market on the consignment plan are fighting tooth and nail against the new co-operative movement. Mr. Davidson said:

"It is very probable that the tonnage that will pass through the association this year will exceed 10,000 cars of fruit. The policy of the association will be to make f. o. b. sales in every instance at satisfactory prices to buyer and seller. The auction system that led this year to the sacrifice of the goods, together with the consignment method that was so injurious and did more to bear down the market this season than all other influences combined, will be no part or methods that have been the prevailing market plans of other shipping organizations will not be followed by the North Pacific Distributors' Association.

Are Fighting Distributors

It was forcibly brought to the attention of the executive committee of the association at the Spokane meeting held last Tuesday that certain shipping concerns handling fruit on the consignment basis for profit in the Northwest are making almost superhuman efforts to discourage the purposes of the North Pacific Distributors' Association and to continue the demoralizing efforts of the auction and consignment plans that existed so universally during the past season, and a strong effort is being made to prevent the co-operative efforts of the Northwest fruit districts as planned by the distributors' association. However, the growers of the Northwest are so thoroughly conversant with the efforts that such organizations pursued and the ruinous effect they had upon the market and returns to the growers that their disgust has led them to heartily co-operate with the North Pacific Distributors' Association.

Hood River has left the entire arrangements of doing business with the distributors' association with the board of directors of the local fruit association. It has been learned that the majority of the board of directors of the local association are in favor of the larger co-operative effort proposed by the distributors' association. However, Hood River will not join the association unless the other larger districts will unite in the co-operative movement.

Certainly looks like discrimination. A social worker, Mrs. Charlotte Smith, says she has bought babies in Boston for from $2 to $10, depending on whether they were blonde or brunette. Poodle dogs in the fashionable district bring from $100 to $1000, and that in cultured Boston.

WHITE SALMON SHIPPING IN COWS

A car containing 25 thoroughbred Holstein cattle is now in transit from Elgin, Ill., to White Salmon, consigned to Charles R. Spencer, president of the First National Bank. Mr. Spencer purchased the animals in Illinois for distribution among the farmers in that section. It is his plan to sell the cows at actual cost to responsible farmers who have feed, and to allow them practically their own time in which to pay for the animal. Several of the cows will be fresh soon, and each cow will give five gallons of milk each day. Mr. Spencer will give each purchaser every advantage possible and aid him in any manner within reason.

The dairying industry, to which a large portion of the country tributary to White Salmon is particularly well adapted, has always paid well when properly handled. The creamery at Trout Lake, which has been in operation for several years is a well paying proposition, and the one recently started at Camas Prairie promises to be equally successful.

Mr. Spencer has observed that the dairy cow is one of the surest sources of revenue on a farm, and that there is always more ready money in a dairy community, and after considerable thought upon the matter has generously placed before the farmer an opportunity to obtain good dairy stock upon exceptionally easy terms. —Enterprise.
