HOOD RIVER IN ALABAMA?

Washington, D. C., Vendor Now Famous for His Ignorance

(Kemmerer (Wyo.) Camera)

As an evidence of the reputation the West is gaining in the East, we call to mind an incident noted in Washington, D. C., of where a customer stepped up to a fruit vender and asked for some of his best apples. The tendered fruit was all that was desired, and the question was put to the vender as to what was the name of the apple and where it came from. The vender replied that it was a "Hood River," and he thought it came from Alabama. In the west there is never any question as to where those famous apples come from and it is nice to know that the apples most prized in the East are the product of Oregon, a Western state.

CLEAN UP THIS WEEK

Teams to Begin Collecting Rubbish Tomorrow Morning

All citizens interested are reminded that this is clean up week and that the teams will begin to collect rubbish Thursday morning. Nothing will be hauled that can be burned and all rubbish should be placed in boxes or sacks and convenient to the street that the drivers may see it as they pass along. They will charge a nominal fee, much less than if hauled away upon individual orders. It is hoped that every place needing it will be cleaned up by the end of the week and not necessitate the city taking steps to have it cleaned.

Profiles of the Senior Class and faculty were then guessed. Refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed. OBITUARY

Levi Clarke

The funeral of Levi Clarke, who passed quietly away in his sleep last week, was held Thursday afternoon at St. Mark's church, Rev. B. A. Warren of The Dalles officiating. Mr. Clarke was baptized by Bishop Paddock a few weeks ago and had been confirmed only the Sunday before his death. His wife, before her death, had been one of the most devoted members of St. Mark's church.

Mr. Clarke was born at Rochester, N. Y., October 16, 1836. When hardly more than a boy he left home and went to London, Ont., where he later entered the wholesale cigar business. Afterwards he learned the hardware business and became owner of a store at Ontario. He sold out there and moved to Fort Scott, Kansas, where he again engaged in the hardware business. A few years later he lost most of the money he had accumulated in mining enterprises in which he became interested in New Mexico. After engaging in business again in several cities of the Middle West he came to The Dalles in 1889. He came to Hood River 14 years ago and became interested with his son, Charles, in the drug business. Six years ago his sight failed and he retired from active business.

Mr. Clarke was married to Miss Mary Keys at Woodstock, Ontario, on April 20, 1856. Mrs. Clarke's death last fall came as a severe blow to her husband and he had failed rapidly since that time.

He is survived by five children and 10 grandchildren. The children are Frank Clarke of Portland, F. W. Clarke and Mrs. W. O. Hadley of The Dalles, and Arthur and Charles N. Clarke of this city.
