Three Ways To Buy Clothes

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

You buy your clothes in one of three ways. Which do you think is the best way?

1. You may go to a custom tailor and have them "made to order." You have delays; "try-ons." You don't know what you're going to get; and if he's a cheap tailor you don't get very much.
2. You may pick out a piece of cloth from a book of samples; send your specifications away somewhere and wait. If the suit "makes up" as you expected, if it is trimmed as you hoped, if it fits as you want it to, you are lucky.
3. You may come to us for

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES

See them ready, not merely a piece of cloth; see how they look on you, not in an illustration or on a dummy figure; see the linings and trimmings, not merely words about them; see how the suit fits before you buy, not after; see if it is becoming to you, not just guess at it; and take only a few minutes of your time.

This third way is right; you pay less than in 1; and get more value than in 2. As a demonstration of it let us show you some of our H. S. & M. Suits at

WORK ON THE DAM ORDERED SUSPENDED

Work on the new power plant of the Pacific Power & Light Company was suspended yesterday upon receipt of telegraphic orders from headquarters in New York City. The telegram stated that there was a temporary stringency in the money markets of the East and that it would be necessary to postpone completion of the work until working capital can be secured under more favorable conditions.

There were about 200 men working on the project, about 75 of this number being Hood River residents. Superintendent Pierce began laying the men off yesterday noon and work will be stopped at once.

It is stated that the project is about half done. The excavation for the pipe line is completed and some of the concrete piers are in place.

Although nothing definite is known, it is expected that work will be resumed later in the summer.

Anyone having bills against the company please send them in at once.

Correspondence

ODELL

Notices of several local affairs sent in last week were written on a sheet that was in some manner derailed in the office. Sorry there was no notice of Rev. Troy Shelley's regular First Sunday morning service but a very good audience greeted him and he told them to count on him every First Sunday whether the notice was in the paper or not. Notices are frequently misleading as appointments are changed after the papers are published.

As a supplement to the Fruit Growers' meeting held in the different neighborhoods, Messrs. Sprague and Castner were touring the valley last week persuasively presenting the claims of fruit association.

There will be prayer meeting for men, women and children tonight at the Union church.

Miss Marie Gould went to Portland for a two weeks' visit with relatives.

Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Gould's sister from Alberta, is visiting her.

On May 2 the heat record was broken in New York—87 at 3 p. m. Its dry here but cool and comfortable.

Thursday evening, Mrs. Guy Smith entertained at dinner Miss Evelyn Bell, Miss Love, George Sheppard and Mr. Ainslee. This was preliminary to a surprise bridal shower for Miss Bell. The shower was most enjoyable and successful, being Odell's way of expressing appreciation of Miss Bell and tendering hearty good wishes on the announcement of her engagement to George Sheppard. While the ladies attended the shower a goodly company of men listened to a prohibition speaker at the Union church.

The election of the Ferguson Bible Class officers took place at their social Thursday evening. The following were elected: President, Ole Ensminger; vice president, Miss Alberta Warner; secretary, Miss Nell Shelley; treasurer, George Ogden. George Ogden has been so conspicuously successful as treasurer that the class passed an amendment to permit him to serve another year.

Rev. Van Nuys preached Sunday at 8 p. m. at the Methodist church at Odell. This sermon taken from a portion of John 17 was one never to be forgotten as showing the true reason for Christian unity and the successful way to accomplish it. And who should know better how to bring Christ's true followers into loving harmony than the successful and beloved pastor of the United Church of the Upper Valley. By request Miss Nell Shelley repeated "The Homeland" which she sang at the Union church in the morning. Rev. J. G. Tate did not come to the Union church Sunday night but Mr. Hargreaves preached there to a good audience.

A very successful Guild meeting was held at Mrs. Elmer Chapman's. There was singing by Mrs. Dutro and Mrs. Caughey, instrumental music by Mrs. Guy Smith and a recitation by Miss Shelley, also a social good time.

A party of young folks took advantage of the lovely weather Monday and a needed business trip for a picnic to Mosier.

Mrs. Hawthorne's recent birthday offered occasion to her friends to wish her much joy not alone in having another birthday but on bearing the accumulating years in so lovely a manner as to cause those who, like her, are descending the hill of life to take fresh courage to fill their allotted time.

On Friday night the Parent-Teachers' Circle held the "best meeting yet." Leslie Butler, Mr. McLaughlin and Miss Northey were the scheduled speakers. Mrs. Walter recited and Mrs. Dutro sang. Miss Rush, who has ably filled the office of president, will now be absent. Mrs. J. E. Ferguson was elected president pro tem and there will be a monthly mothers' meeting through the summer. The benefit this association will be to this neighborhood is only just beginning.

Dane Kemp was at church Sunday morning and looked fine. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Linn dined at Mrs. O. L. Walters Sunday.

PINE GROVE

Miss Lizzie Kennedy, who has been spending the last three months visiting relatives, returned to Pine Grove Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Wiley and Miss Barker of Hood River were guests at the Hunt home Sunday. W. B. Scruggs of Tennessee has been visiting his nephew, Arthur Hale of Johnson Bros. & Hale.

Mrs. I. Jeffries met with a painful accident last Thursday. While walking to a neighbor's, her ankle turned, spraining it quite badly.

A letter received from Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Thomsen states that they reached New York safely and were enjoying their trip immensely. They were to sail for the old country April 30.

Taken by mistake at the May Day picnic, a silver teaspoon with a scroll handle. Will whoever has it kindly return to Miss Godbersen at the school, also who ever lost a plain Rodgers Bros. teaspoon let her know as one was found.

A little daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ireland last Tuesday. Congratulations are extended to the proud parents.

Mrs. J. H. Koberg and son Prince attended the May Day picnic at the school last Friday.

The state eighth grade examinations will be held at the school Thursday and Friday, conducted by Mrs. Dragseth.

Miss Alene Clark was brought out to the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Slade last Thursday. She is improving slowly.

A fire of electrical origin which occurred at the home of William Scobee one night last week has been a source of much speculation. On opening the front hall door the next morning the burnt odor coming from upstairs led to an investigation which disclosed the fact that everything in one of the front rooms had been consumed—bedding, mattress and even holes burnt through the matting but the fire had gone entirely out. "How and why" are the questions so far unanswered. The fire was confined entirely to the one room.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Clark came over from White Salmon and spent Sunday with their daughter at the Slade home.

Mothers' Day, the second Sunday in May, will be observed by Pine Groveites at the church Sunday morning, the program beginning at 11 o'clock. Everyone who loves the name "mother" is requested to be present unless you keep the day elsewhere. The floral emblem of the day is the white carnation. Wear one if possible, or if not, some other flower. "Wear it in mother's honor. Pinned to the coat lapel; Wear it in belt and corsage, For her who loved you well."

The social of the Sunflower Class, which is held the first Tuesday of the month, has been postponed this time until the second Tuesday. All Sunflowerers are requested to be present at the Blackman home next Tuesday evening.

A large number of the patrons of the district met at the school grounds last Friday noon to help the school children dispose of one of those basket dinners of the kind that only such cooks as we have in Pine Grove know how to prepare. Professor C. D. Thompson was there to see that all behaved but was so busy satisfying the inner man that he forgot his duty and became a school boy once more with the rest. After dinner the sports began. The procession that burst upon our view was a number of soldiers headed by the drummer boy, after which came the maid of honor, Anna Krussow, then the queen, Florence Clark, looking very beautiful in her flowing white robe trimmed with apple blossoms, then the flower bedecked trainbearers and the little page in his purple velvet suit carrying the crown, then the waiting maids, followed by the rest of the school representing different characters, the clown and negro causing much amusement. After parading around the grounds the queen was conducted to a flower-covered throne and crowned.

Queen of the May. The exercises were very creditably done and closed with a parade forming and conducting the queen back to the school house. Professor McCully, principal, Miss Anderson and wished that more such times could be enjoyed. The teachers deserve much credit for the success of the day.

The members of the Sunflower Class, who gave "Mr. Bob" last February, will give it again at the Pine Grove Grange Hall Friday evening, May 9. The doors will be open at 7:30 and the curtain will raise at 8:15. Admission, adults 35c, children 20c. The cast of characters is given under a separate item.

Percy Laraway is confined to his home by an injury received a few days ago when he was thrown from a wagon.

Teachers at the Pine Grove school have all been re-elected as follows: Professor McCully, principal, Miss Anna Godbersen, teacher of the grammar grade, Miss Evelyn Turney of the intermediate and Miss Grace Turney of the primary grade.
