

Broadwalk Shoes for Growing Feet

NEW KING WAISTS

for Particular Ladies

Priced . . . $2.00 to $4.50

BOY'S NORFOLK SUITS

are the Proper Style This Year

Our Prices . . . $3.50 to $7.50

The Children's Shoe Problem Solved
The Broadwalk Shoe is here in every good leather. The child's growing feet demand the most scientific shoemaking and fitting. We have both, $1.50 to $2.25

A Bag of Marbles Free with every pair of Shoes

FRANK A. CRAM

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Lime and Spray—Kelly Bros., phone 4443.

Charles Bell was a Portland visitor Monday.

Buy your coal of Taft Transfer Company. 7tc

Mrs. C. R. Bone spent the week end in Portland.

A son was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ireland.

Dr. and Mrs. Kanaga spent a couple of days in Portland the last of the week.

If you want insurance in companies that pay losses promptly and in full call on A. W. Outhank.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Burke of Portland were here over the week end inspecting their ranch near Binns Hill.

G. M. Uptegrove was down from the Upper Valley last week to meet his sister, Mrs. C. W. Holmes, who has been spending some time in California.

Mark Weygant, the popular Mt. Hood guide, returned the last of the week with his family, from Portland, where they have been spending the winter.

The downtown baseball team will play the Walther-Williams team at Columbia Park next Sunday afternoon, the game commencing at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Winchester Noyes and daughter of Brooklyn spent a couple of days here last week looking over the valley and at the Loomis-Woodworth ranch in the Upper Valley.

William Bollons, Jr., with his family, has come from Portland and will spend the summer here. He is employed on the power plant of the Pacific Power & Light Company.

Rev. J. G. Tate expects to leave today for a month's visit in Hastings and other Montana points. Mr. Tate will attend the state convention of a mutual benefit association with which he was formerly prominently connected.

The Franz Hardware Company has secured a handsome silver trophy cup which will be awarded to the team that can win three out of five games played between the Heights and downtown teams. The cup, which is valued at $50, is now on exhibition at the Franz hardware store.

For prompt delivery of coal call Taft Transfer Company. 7tc

H. D. Langille was a visitor from Portland over the week end.

Miss Leah Brawn left Saturday to spend a month at her home at Yoncalla, Oregon.

Mrs. A. P. Sprague, who has been spending the winter in Indianapolis, returned Saturday.

Dr. Gustav Baer of Portland, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook, spent Sunday here.

Miss A. F. Perkins and Miss A. D. Perkins arrived Monday from Salem, Mass., to visit Mr. Emilio at Dea.

A spirited meeting of the Woman's Club is anticipated this afternoon when the annual election of officers takes place.

C. G. Van Tress has sold his public stenographic office to Miss Geraldine L. Eastman, who will continue the business at the same office in the Elliot Block. Mr. Van Tress says he thank his friends for their patronage.

W. A. and F. H. Isenberg have bought of A. M. Boyce his restaurant on Second street between Cascade Avenue and Oak street. They have added a number of improvements and expect to conduct it as a high-class restaurant.

Paul Manning, formerly of this city and now a student at the Willamette University at Salem, was accorded an honor by the student body last week when he was named as manager of the Willamette Collegian for next year. Manning has managed the Collegian for the past semester.

J. W. Simmons, state deputy for the Woodmen of America, returned Saturday from Portland, where he was called in connection with the La France case. He was accompanied on his return by his daughter, Miss Nellie, who has been spending several weeks in the city.

Postmaster Lucas has received from the department directions that the R. F. D. Carriers continue their present schedule throughout the summer. It has been the practice of the carriers to wait for the 10 o'clock train from Portland during the summer months, but with the increased loads it will not be expected of them this year.

Mrs. M. E. Harwood of Portland spent last week here visiting her son, R. E. Duncan.

Miss Mabel Beck, a teacher at Pacific University, was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crites.

Miss Eula McCully went to The Dalles Friday and will be entertained for a week by Miss Blanche Mays.

Eighth grade examinations are to be held in all but two of the schools of the county tomorrow and Friday.

Mrs. L. C. Simms and two children left Thursday for Newberg to spend a week or two with her parents.

Rev. A. B. Warren of The Dalles, accompanied by Miss Corinne Metz, Wasco county librarian, were in the city Thursday on library business.

In response to numerous requests the ladies of St. Mark's Guild have decided to give two more dances. The next one will be given Friday of this week and invitations are now out. The committee in charge is Mrs. W. G. Snow, Mrs. J. W. Crites and Mrs. A. P. Reed.

While C. F. Smith was unloading a team of horses from the boat Thursday one of the animals stepped on his foot and broke the bones of the instep. Mr. Smith had just come from Portland to his ranch here. His brother Elks cared for him and on Friday his son George came up from Portland.

J. W. and Miss Molly Pifer received word last week that the heroism of their brother-in-law, James O. London, late of Mahoning, Pa., has been recognized by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission. Mr. London was drowned on June 20, 1912, while attempting to rescue an 11-year-old boy from the river. He left a wife and four small children. The widow has been awarded a bronze medal, a pension of $55 a month and $5 additional for each of the children until they reach the age of 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moody of the Upper Valley were participants in an exciting runaway Wednesday afternoon and narrowly escaped serious injuries. They were driving to town from their ranch in the Upper Valley. While in front of Mrs. Alma Howe's house one side of the shafts became detached from the body of the wagon and dropped on the horse's heels. The animal took fright and the carriage swerving from one side to the other. It finally upset, throwing Mr. and Mrs. Moody into the road with great force. Mr. Moody sprained one of his legs and Mrs. Moody was severely bruised.

Mrs. W. J. Baker spent yesterday in Portland.

John W. Palmer has been spending several days in Portland.

T. A. Wylie of Goldendale was a week end visitor in the city.

Coal or Wood delivered on short notice. Taft Transfer Company. 7tc

The Kensington of the U. B. church will be held with Mrs. Isaac Ford Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Chester C. Walton of the Upper Valley returned Monday from a visit in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carpenter, who are now living in Portland, spent the week end on their ranch here.

Captain C. P. McCann of Forest Grove, formerly of Hood River, was visiting friends here Thursday.

E. R. Pooley has been entertaining his father from Philadelphia, accompanied by a friend, Mr. Hilyard.

A. L. MacDonald of Chippewa Falls Wis., visited his brother, J. W. MacDonald, at Odell a few days last week.

The Four Leaf Clover Club of Frankton will meet with Mrs. J. R. Nunamaker tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon.

J. A. Kemmler of Portland is spending a few days on his ranch at Summit. He is accompanied by Drs. F. H. and W. S. Knox.

Mrs. Arthur Clarke was called to Portland Tuesday afternoon on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. R. R. Adams.

Mrs. S. E. V. Weber of Underwood was in town the last of the week, having just returned from Salt Lake City, where she spent the winter.

William MacKenzie of Balfour, Guthrie & Company, Portland, spent the week end in the valley, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burns.

Robert Newhall of Portland spent Monday here, accompanying W. R. Burnham of Philadelphia, who contemplates buying a place in the valley.

City Marshal Lewis is now collecting dog licenses, which became due on the first of the month. Licenses must be secured for all dogs kept within the city limits, whether male or female.

George R. Miller, guide at Cloud Cap Inn, arrived on Monday from Portland and will tend to the placing of ropes along the trail up the mountain and in other ways prepare for the tourist season. He was accompanied by his father, George S. Miller, and they are now on their Upper Valley ranch.

Can deliver coal or wood promptly. Taft Transfer Company. 7tc

Regular Sunday excursion to Parkdale. Pleasant trip for yourself and friends.

I wish the public to know that I have reopened my office in the Broslus Bldg., and will resume my practice in Hood River. Dr. F. C. Broslus, Phone 1881. 18tc

Write for our booklet on the cheap irrigated lands ever offered. Grow clover and alfalfa, and make money raising hogs. Pend Oreille County Land Co., Newport, Wash. 17-24p

Thinking that this was The Dalles, a theatrical troupe of 15 persons piled off the train here Sunday noon, registered at Hotel Oregon and then they discovered that they were still 25 miles from their destination. After roundly scolding the member of the party who had called "The Dalles," they packed their baggage back to the station and proceeded on their trip at 6:20.

Every lady in Hood River and vicinity will be interested to know that our representative from the Neelle Craft Shop, Portland, will be at the Oregon hotel from Tuesday to Saturday, May 6 to 10 inclusive, with a large line of beautiful new ideas in stamped and finished art needle work. Free instructions will all pieces. Don't fail to see this exhibit. Itc

Attention B.P.O.E. of Hood River! Kindly send your name, present address and "where you belong" to C. H. Vaughan, Hood River, Oregon. Something doing in the near future that none can afford to miss. Do not delay. Do it now. 18-19c

MRS. HUELAT ENTERTAINS

A smart affair of last week was the large reception on Friday given by Mrs. H. O. Huelat in honor of her aunt from Salem, Mrs. George H. Burnett, wife of Chief Justice Burnett. The Huelat home was artistically decorated with large clusters of dogwood and Oregon grape. Pink and white tulips and maidenhair ferns adorned the tea table in the dining room where Mrs. Truman Butler, Mrs. E. A. Plath and Mrs. G. A. Molden presided. They were assisted by Misses Carlisle, Carter and Dabney.

About one hundred guests called between the hours of 3 and 6. Mrs. H. F. Davidson and Mrs. F. E. Newby assisted Mrs. Huelat in receiving. The hostess was attractively gowned in pastel pink flowered chamoise veiled with chiffon and shadow lace. Her guest wore a handsome gown of royal blue chamoise with Persian trimmings.

Mrs. Burnett left Sunday for Pendleton where her husband presides over court this week.

OBITUARY

Elbert C. Shibley

Elbert C. Shibley died Friday afternoon at his home on Hull street after a lingering illness of several years duration. The funeral was held Sunday from the Bartmess Chapel and was in charge of the Masons, Mr. Shibley having been an active worker in that order. Rev. E. A. Harris of the Congregational church officiated.

Mr. Shibley was born at Aurora, Ill., January 21, 1855. In early manhood he went to St. Paul and was employed there for about 20 years, being an expert bookkeeper. He later spent a few months in Elgin, Ill., and then moved to Hood River about two years ago. He is survived by a widow and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Randall of Rock Falls, Ill., and Mrs. Henry Pease of Apison, Tenn.

WILL REPEAT "MR. BOB"

Two-Act Comedy to be Given at Pine Grove and Parkdale

"Mr. Bob," the laughable two-act comedy, which was given by the Sunflower Class at Pine Grove last winter, is to be repeated on Friday and Saturday at Pine Grove and Parkdale. When given before the weather was unpropitious and many missed the opportunity of spending an enjoyable evening. There is a clever cast of characters composed of Pine Grove young people as follows:

Mr. Brown (who begins to doubt his own identity, but is sure he "came down on business"), Russell McCully Miss Luke (who has cats on the brain) Miss Godbersen Phillip Royson (her nephew, who loses the yacht race, but is not sorry) Arthur Hansen Katherine Rogers (her niece, who admits that she loves Mr. Bob.)

Miss Lula Hunt
Marian Bryant (Katherine's friend, who wins the yacht race)
Miss Evelyn Turney
Patty (Miss Luke's maid, who wishes she had a Romeo)
Miss G. Turney Jenkins (Miss Luke's butler, who "has objections, but objects to a saying of it")
Henry F. Lage
The entertainment is to be given at Pine Grove Grange Hall Friday evening and at McIsaac's Hall, Parkdale, Saturday. Doors will be open at 7:30 and the performances will begin at 8:15.

Christian Science

Christian Science services are held in the Reading Room, Room 2, Davidson Building, Sunday at 11 a. m. Subject, "Adam and Fallen Man." Sunday School will be held as usual at 10 a. m. Wednesday meeting at 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 2 to 5 p. m.

Insure with Reed & Henderson, Inc.

Fire, Accident, Life, Automobile, Plate Glass, Burglary, Employer's Liability, including FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS.

Also Judicial, Official and Indemnity Bonds

Resident Agent for: U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. Northern Assurance Co., of London Commercial Union Assurance Co., Ltd., of London Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York Pelican Assurance Co. of New York

Real Estate Loans Investments

NEW TODAY

30 Acres—Located in Dukes Valley, 4 acres in bearing, 16 acres 2 to 4 years old, 5 acres yearlings. Balance timber and creek. 4-room house; large barn, unlimited free water. Price $15,000.00. Will exchange for small acreage near Hood River.

Lot, 50x100, South Front Street, Portland—Price $25,000—3 buildings, furnished and equipped. Can make this property pay $300 a month net. Will exchange for Hood River Orchard.

10 Acres—3 miles from Hood River, just off the macadam road. Three acres 6-year-old trees, Spitzenburgs and Newtowns; three acres 2-year-old trees, all Newtowns; one acre 1-year-old Commercial pears; one and a half acres in hay. Balance pasture and small creek. New 5-room modern bungalow; small barn. Price $9,000.00. Will exchange for acreage for diversified farming, principally raising hay and stock.

For Reliable Insurance See

ROBERTS & SIMMS

SUCCESSORS TO G. Y. EDWARDS & CO. HOTEL OREGON BUILDING

PHONE 3111

Your Glasses Broken?

If you have the misfortune to break your Glasses, bring them to us. We can duplicate your glasses here in Hood River and save you money. Try Us.

Arthur Clarke
Jeweler and Optician
Opp Butler's Bank

CAMAS PRAIRIE HAY LANDS

There is money in Hay and Cows and this is the correct time to get into the business.

We have some good farms equipped with buildings; the prices are right and the terms will suit your pocketbook.

B. E. DUNCAN & CO.