BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

Batter's council is proceeding with plans for the establishing of a municipal lighting plant.

Grants Pass city council has named nine women to act as judges and clerks of the city election.

When the next school year opens Myrtle Point will have a fine new schoolhouse, to cost in the neighborhood of $15,000.

George Messinger, who has been on trial in the circuit court of Crook county charged with larceny of cattle, was found guilty by trial jury.

With the arrest of Frank J. Allen, with $540 worth of opium on his person, the Baker police have uncovered a big smuggling business.

The proceeds of Yoncalla's school building bond issue of $20,000 are held up by reason of an injunction suit, filed on the allegation of irregularities in the bonding proceedings.

The trial of Marshfield Socialists who were arrested recently for violating an ordinance prohibiting street speaking was postponed. Meanwhile the accused men are allowed their freedom on their own recognizance.

The Portland city council passed an ordinance appropriating $6102.50 for the payment of the salaries and clerks of the recent election and an additional sum of $600 for meals furnished the County Judge W. S. Worden of Kla math Falls has promised the hardest kind of a fight against the opponents who are seeking his recall. He is so anxious for battle that he has offered to aid them in getting the recall election before the people.

"Guilty" was the verdict brought in by the Marshfield jury in the case of State Representative J. S. Barton, of Coquille, indicted on complaint of Miss Madge Yoakum, an employe in his office. The jury was out only a

The homesteaders and timber claimants at Klamath Falls have been awarded the final decision in the long She grew to womanhood in that coun drawn out 37-10 land case. The timber lands were claimed by A. D. Daniels and associates, who had placed scrip on them, and also by a number of individuals who proved up on the land under the homestead and timber laws. The litigation has been in progress for about 10 years.

Two accidents were caused at The Dalles by the explosion of flashlight powders. One of them may cost Karl Corson, 14 years old, the loss of his eyesight, as he looked directly into the flash while attempting to take a picture at a campfire picnic. The kitchen range of Mrs. E. R. Vickers was wrecked by the explosion of a box which she supposed was empty, but which contained flashlight pow-

From Whitesville, Mo., to Pendleton, a distance of 2000 miles, is the journey completed a few days ago by two pair of homing pigeons. About six weeks ago Mrs. L. G. Pell of Pendleton shipped the four birds to N. G. Roderker in Whitesville. He liberated them with his other pigeons and they immediately disappeared. Upon receiving a letter from him telling of his loss Mrs. Pell went to her pigeon lofts and found the four birds resting on their home roosts. All were in good cendition. It is not known how long they were in covering the distance.
