

HOW TO LIVE

Worry Less
and Work More

Ride Less
and Walk More

Frown Less
and Laugh More

Eat Less
and Chew More

Preach Less
and Practice More

Kick Less
and Buy More

From

Frank A. Cram's

Up-to-Date Store

New Today

Wash Dresses
Athena Underwear
Broadwalk Shoes
Colonial Draperes

LOCAL NEWS

Coal or Wood delivered on short notice. Taft Transfer Company. 7tfc

C. G. Roberts of Tanglewood was a Portland visitor last week.

Mrs. J. C. Moreland of Salem came last week to visit her son, J. I. Moreland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Greenlee of Boyd, Oregon, came recently to visit Mr and Mrs. Purdy at Odell.

A Nibley of Portland, who is interested in the Oregon Lumber Company was a visitor in the valley from Portland over the week end.

Mrs. Brent, who has a homestead near Dee, returned last week from California, where she spent the winter.

Kent Shoemaker and M. F. Slavens went to Prineville the first of the week as delegates to the district convention of the Woodmen of the World.

Edward James and J. D. Abbott, Portland printers, were visiting friends in town Monday. They are members of the James, Kerns & Abbott Company.

Rev. E. A. Harris attended the meeting of the Mid-Columbia Association of Congregational churches at The Dalles yesterday, speaking in the evening on "The Social Opportunities of the Church."

St. Mark's Men's Club was very pleasantly entertained Wednesday evening at the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Clarke. A talk was given by Rev. E. A. McNamara, the new pastor.

Mrs. Edgar W. Shockley came from Eugene last week to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simmons, in the Upper Valley. Professor N. E. Fertag of Astoria visited Mr and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson of Odell last week.

The Fruit Growers' Association has opened offices in the Davidson Block, corner of Cascade Avenue and Third Street. They will occupy the suite of offices downstairs on the North-west corner of the building, but expect later to extend their offices. Mr. Davidson will maintain a private office on the second floor.

Lime and Spray—Kelly Bros. phone 4443.

Buy your coal of Taft Transfer Company. 7tfc

Mrs. D. E. Rand is spending this week in Portland.

Miss Viola Nickelsen, who has been spending several weeks in Portland, has returned for the summer.

Mrs. Amy Gove was re-elected teacher in the eighth grade, but has declined on account of going to Idaho.

Charles Hayward and family have moved to LaFayette, Ore., where they recently bought a general merchandise store.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Sprague, who has been quite ill at the hospital, is now making a nice recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hoag, accompanied by Mr. Mears, were up from Portland over the week end inspecting their property.

Messrs. Sinex and Fisher, the plumbers, have dissolved partnership, Mr. Fisher severing his connection with the firm, which will be continued by Mr. Sinex.

I wish the public to know that I have reopened my office in the Brooks Bldg., and will resume my practice in Hood River. Dr. F. C. Brosius, Phone 1881. 18tfc

The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Brethren Church spent a very pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Jones on Columbia street last Friday, at which time they added several new members to their society.

D. Tomlinson, expert meter inspector, is working for the Hood River Gas & Electric Company and will inspect all meters in both city and county. A report of the inspection is to be made to the State Railroad Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall and Miss Jennie Hall entertained at cards Thursday evening. High scores were made by Miss Frances Bragg and Claude Thompson. At 11 o'clock the young people adjourned to Heilbronner Hall, where dancing was enjoyed for a couple of hours.

For prompt delivery of coal call Taft Transfer Company. 7tfc

Mrs. L. Winans was up from Portland over the week end on business.

W. J. Waldie came from Washouga, Saturday to spend the week end with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Butterfield came from Portland Saturday for a stay on their ranch here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dixon were visitors in town from Parkdale the rest of the week.

A marriage license was issued last week to Marcy Edwin McAllister and Miss Myrtle Doane.

Mrs. W. D. Bannes of Prineville is here this week visiting her sister, Mrs. C. D. Nickelsen.

S. A. Mitchell, a banker of Rock Valley, Iowa, has been the guest for several days of M. M. Hill, an old friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bertrand of Pine Grove are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter Thursday, May 15.

Mrs. R. G. Ames of Estacada visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Jones, last week. She was accompanied by Mrs. W. Underwood, also of Estacada.

On Saturday night a Japanese laborer, employed on the Mt. Hood railroad died suddenly at the Niguma rooming house of acute heart trouble.

Attorney George R. Wilbur has moved his offices from the rear to the front of the Hall Building and now occupies the suite formerly rented by Albert Sutton.

Miss Lucille Johnson, clerk of the city water department, who has not been well for several weeks, went to Portland Friday to spend a week and hopes to be sufficiently recovered on her return to resume her duties.

Trust-to-Name Nursery has opened an office in town on corner opposite from Oregon Hotel and samples of trees can be seen in tree yard adjoining office. Mr. Galligan will be at the office Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

NOTICE

If you want something to rid your chickens of lice try Skookum's Lice Powder. It has been demonstrated and proved successful. For sale at Rexall Drug Store. 19-23p

NOTICE

We have a client who desires to secure a loan of $2100.00 on first mortgage on 40 acres of land about three miles south of Hood River. Will pay 8 per cent interest. Phone 2183. 13tfc STARK & HAZLETT.

High School athletic day Saturday. Can deliver coal or wood promptly. Taft Transfer Company. 7tfc

P. R. Hauck and E. H. Shepard were noted as guests at the Portland Hotel in Portland last week.

Athletic field day by The Dalles, Stevenson and Hood River High School teams next Saturday. Don't miss it.

A reception is to be held this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Bone for the visiting delegates to the Episcopal convocation. Members of the local church will also be present at the reception.

Mrs. Alice Andrews Ham, a singer of note at Spokane, arrived yesterday to spend a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Andrews at Pine Grove. She will then go to Spirit Lake to take part in the Chautauqua there as a soloist.

Lester Perkins was worsted Sunday in an encounter with an improvised coffee pot while on a picnic. A pall with a tight lid was pressed into service. When well heated Lester undertook to grapple with the pot and serve the coffee. Simultaneously the confined steam blew off the lid, burning him quite severely about the head.

Word has been received that Phil Beebe, a popular young West Side rancher, is much improved in health. He is still at Boston, but is now able to take an automobile trip, which it is hoped will complete his recovery. Harvey E. Jones, assistant cashier at the Hood River Banking & Trust Company, left Monday for a two-weeks' trip to Indianapolis.

Miss Maude Carlisle, who has successfully taught piano in Hood River during the past two years, will leave on May 28 for New York City, visiting enroute at Salt Lake, St. Louis, Washington, D. C., and Philadelphia. On June 17 Miss Carlisle will sail for Europe with a party of friends, and will spend the summer touring in eight countries, returning to Hood River about Sept 15 to resume her musical teaching here.

Mrs. John Zolls' fiftieth birthday, which she passed Saturday, was the motive for a serenade given here by the Hood River band, of which her two sons, George and William, are members. The band boys assembled around the house without any warning to Mrs. Zolls and she was delighted as well as surprised at the attention. The band was hospitably invited inside and given a delicious luncheon. All joined in congratulating Mrs. Zolls upon passing another milestone.

A son was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Byrd of Hood River Heights.

Remember the High School field meet next Saturday. There will be tennis, baseball and track events.

Grand Commander W. E. Grace of the Knights Templar is expected here Saturday to inspect the local order.

R. D. Gould has completed his contract on the municipal water system at Grand View, Wash., and has returned here.

H. F. Hauck and wife of Madison, Minn., came Thursday to visit their son, P. R. Hauck, and resumed their journey Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron S. Smith of Underwood came over yesterday to attend the sessions of the Episcopal convocation of Eastern Oregon.

Silas and Charles Soule were up from Portland over Sunday. Silas, who recently underwent an operation for his eyes, is only slightly improved.

The funeral of Dorothy Rush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rush of Pine Grove, was held at the Catholic church Monday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Anna K. Baker returned Sunday from Portland to spend the summer on her ranch in the Upper Valley. Her son, George, had preceded her several days before.

Rev. J. L. Hershner is attending the annual meeting of the Mid-Columbia Association of Congregational churches being held at The Dalles. He gives an address this morning on "The Sunday School and the Rural Community."

An injunction suit was filed Monday by W. L. Clark, C. H. Stranahan and A. Pearson against the Hood River Spray Manufacturing Company, D. A. Pattulo, C. W. Nottingham and James R. Forden to restrain them from appropriating $3500 insurance money due on account of the plant having been burned recently. The defendants claim the money as due them in return for expenditures made in operating the business. The plaintiffs stated that a contract had been made whereby Mr. Pattulo and the others would provide all of the operating expenses.

NEW ADDITION TO HOOD RIVER

E. W. Winans has just filed a plat of Winan's East Addition to the City of Hood River. The land platted lies between Sherman Avenue and Eugene street, on the bluff of Hood River. This addition throws on the market a few beautiful building lots which slope gently to Hood River bluff and toward State st. The soil is entirely free from rock and of good quality for garden. Prices of the lots vary from $250. to $450 with 10 per cent down and $10 a month deferred payments. Reed & Henderson, Inc. are agents. 21-tfc

TWO POSTOFFICE VACANCIES

The U. S. Civil Service Commission announces that a male clerk-carrier examination will be held at Hood River, Oregon, on June 14, 1913, to fill two vacancies in the Hood River postoffice. Age limits are from 18 to 45 years.

The postoffice department has advised that after June 30, 1913, the entrance salary in the postoffice service in the first and second class offices will be $800 per annum and that employees in the $600 grade will be advanced to the $800 grade, July 1, 1913.

Applicants should apply at once to the local secretary, Board of Civil Service Examiners at the Hood River postoffice, or the secretary, Eleventh Civil Service District, Seattle, Wash., for application blank and full information.

Don't miss the day of athletic events to be given by the High School Saturday, beginning at nine in the morning. Teams from The Dalles and Stevenson will compete with Hood River.

Grace U. B. Church

Oak and Sixth streets Sunday School at 10 a. m. Sermon at 11 a. m. subject, "Popular Preaching." C. E. at 7 p. m. "The Hood River Boy" will be the pastor's theme at night.

M. E. Church Services

Sunday School at 10 a. m. Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Themes: morning, "Our Heroes and Our Heritage;" evening, "A Cheap Religion." Epworth League at 7:00 p. m. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock. All are cordially invited. W. B. Young, pastor.

CARD OF THANKS

In behalf of the family, I wish to acknowledge our appreciation of the many acts of kindness during the sickness and expressions of sympathy at the death of our mother.

ERNST HINRICHS.

Busy days for ranchers.

BIDS FOR WOOD

Bids will be received by the clerk of school district No. Four until June 14, 1913, for 25 cords of four-foot slabwood and 20 cords of split four-foot body wood. To be delivered at the Barrett schoolhouse. Also ten ricks of sixteen-inch fir or pine wood delivered in the shed at the East Barrett schoolhouse. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

F. H. MILLER, District Clerk.

21-24c

WANTED—BETTER BABIES

The "Better Baby" show to be held at the State Fair next Fall is already attracting much attention and promises to be the biggest thing of its kind ever attempted in the Northwest. Splendid prizes are offered for the best youngsters shown.

Every Grange, Commercial Club and school in the state is being urged to hold local shows and send their best babies to the State Fair to enter the all-Oregon competition. There are no entry fees, but special blanks must be used for entries. These may be secured without cost from O. M. Plummer, Superintendent Eugenics Department, North Portland, Oregon.

Insure with Reed & Henderson, Inc.

Fire, Accident, Life, Automobile, Plate Glass, Burglary, Employer's Liability, including FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS.

Also Judicial, Official and Indemnity Bonds

Resident Agent for: U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. Northern Assurance Co., of London Commercial Union Assurance Co., Ltd., of London Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York Pelican Assurance Co. of New York

Real Estate Loans Investments

Your Glasses Broken?

If you have the misfortune to break your Glasses, bring them to us. We can duplicate your glasses here in Hood River and save you money. Try Us.

Arthur Clarke

Jeweler and Optician

Opp Butler's Bank

Large Tract of Land Being Developed by

Hood River Green Point Orchard Company

Tracts can be purchased on very reasonable terms. For information consult H. L. DEAN, local superintendent, 1313 Thirteenth St., Hood River, or apply to general offices, 622 Plymouth Building, Minneapolis, Minn.

CAMAS PRAIRIE HAY LANDS

There is money in Hay and Cows and this is the correct time to get into the business.

We have some good farms equipped with buildings; the prices are right and the terms will suit your pocketbook.

B. E. DUNCAN & CO.