WIDOWS' PENSIONS IN EFFECT JUNE 3

County Judge Castner has just received from Governor West additional information regarding the widows' pension act, which goes into effect June 3. He also received copies of blanks to be filled out by applicants. The act provides for the assistance and support of women whose husbands are either dead or are inmates of some Oregon State institution or who are physically or mentally unable to work and who have a child or children dependent for support wholly or partly upon their labor. The law is as follows:

Section 1. Every woman, who has one or more children under the age of sixteen years and whose husband is either dead or is an inmate of some Oregon State institution, or by reason of physical or mental disease is wholly unable to work, and whose support and the support of whose child or children is dependent wholly or partly upon her labor, shall be entitled to the assistance as provided for in this act for the support of herself and of her child or children.

Section 2. Subject to subsequent provisions of this act, every woman, as provided in Section 1, who is herself, and all of whose children are wholly dependent upon her labor for support shall receive from the public moneys of the county in which she and her child or children reside the sum of ten dollars per month for one child and if she have more than one residing with her, seven dollars and fifty cents per month for each of such additional children.

Section 3. Subject to subsequent provisions of this act, every woman, as provided by Section 1, who is herself and all of whose children are partly dependent upon her labor for support shall receive from the public moneys of the county in which she and her child or children shall reside, such a sum per month as, added to her other income (other than derived from her labor), shall be equal to the amount which she would receive if she was subject to the provisions of Section 2 of this act.

Section 4. The provision of this act shall not apply to any child which has property of its own sufficient for its support, nor to any child which does not reside with its mother.

Section 5. It is the purpose and intention of this act to keep the children, to which it is applicable together under the guidance and control of their mother, and that the mother shall make a home for the children; and if, in the judgment of the tribunal herein provided, any mother of such children is improvident, careless or negligent in the expenditure of the money received pursuant to this act, such tribunal may direct that such money shall be paid to some person, whom it shall designate, to be used for the support of such mother and children.

Section 6. The Juvenile Court in each county or whatever tribunal is charged by law with the discharge of the duties of such order, the County exclusive jurisdiction in carrying out and administering the provisions of this act.

Section 7. Whenever the tribunal mentioned in Section 6, shall determine that an allowance under this act shall be made, it shall make an order to that effect which order, among other things, shall set out in full the name of the mother, her place of residence, the names and ages of each of the children, and the amount allowed to each child, and upon presentation of such order, the County Court shall direct monthly warrants to be drawn therefor.

Section 8. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, the tribunal, mentioned in Section 6, shall have power to summon witnesses and compel their attendance and pay them the same as witnesses in criminal cases are paid.

Section 9. Whenever any woman on whose account any allowance shall have been made under the provisions of this act, shall marry, such allowance shall cease. No allowance for any child shall continue after such child shall have reached the age of sixteen years.

Section 10. This act shall apply only to women who are residents of this state at the time this act is passed or who were residents of the State at the time of the occurrence of the events which entitle them to the benefits of this act as provided by Section 1.

Unitarian Church

The 11 o'clock service at the Unitarian church will be in keeping with the spirit of Memorial Sunday. At the 6:30 p. m. service an attractive program is offered as follows: Address by Prof. L. B. Gibson on the theme "Eyes Are Made for Seeing," vocal solo by L. H. Stone, instrumental duet, cornet, Ed Wetmore, piano, Mrs. Huxley. All are invited.

Next Sunday morning Rev. H. A. MacDonald will preach at White Salmon, while the Unitarian pulpit will be filled by Rev. H. V. Rominger of Underwood. Many will remember that Mr. Rominger was minister of a Congregational church in Portland for many years, and is a strong man.

It's how little we want instead of how much we want that measures our degree of contentment.

NEWS NOTES FROM AROUND THE STATE

Portland's Annual Rose Festival this year will be bigger than ever and preparations are now in full swing to entertain the thousands of visitors to the city at that time. The dates are June 9 to 14 and during that period Rex Oregonus, the merry monarch who owes allegiance to but one superior, the Oregon rose, will rule the city and its people. Big delegations are coming from other Coast cities. Special trains have been routed here for the week from a number of points and the hospitality of the city will be extended to all visitors. Revels, gorgeous parades, beautiful pageants, races, concerts, electric displays and special entertainments will occupy the week. The best festival in the history of Portland is promised.

Professor Thomas Shaw, agriculturist for the Great Northern Railway, has been engaged by the Hill lines in Oregon to give a series of lectures in the cities and towns along these roads. He will talk to farmers at the different points along the Hill line up the Deschutes River, ending his trip in that section the last of this week.

Cow and Hog Day will be celebrated at Stanfield May 24. Under the auspices of the Commercial Club of that place an enthusiastic rally will be held and dairying and hog raising will be boosted. Many visitors will attend from outside points.

That Oregon should make a strong exhibit not only at the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco in 1915 but at the San Diego exposition of the same year is the belief of people who are studying the benefits to be gained from these two big events. A representative of the San Diego Fair says it will be visited by 15,000,000 people. It will be open the entire year of 1915.

The Pacific International Livestock Exposition, scheduled for Portland next fall, promises to be one of the best stock shows ever held in the West. Great preparations are being made already to secure the entry of a very large number of blooded cattle, sheep and hogs. This is the third annual show and premiums amounting to $10,000 have been arranged.

School children of the state are busy gardening, intent on securing prizes offered at the State Fair next fall. The schools of Portland are teaching gardening just as religiously as they do arithmetic, and 2,700 boys and girls are tilling individual plots and planting vegetables. The same activity is going on throughout the whole state and this year's contest will more generally represent all Oregon than the last.

The American and Pacific Coast Association of nurserymen will meet in Portland June 17-21. A good attendance for both conventions is indicated. Many delegates are coming from the East to the national gathering and the Pacific Coast states will be well represented at the other. Several joint sessions will be held.

NOT A SHOWER; A STORM

Not since the flood at Dayton, O., has there been such a storm as took place last Saturday night near and at the home of Nelson Emery, when about forty invited friends of Miss Blanche Howe gathered to shower her with gifts and good wishes.

The shower equalled or surpassed the downpour at Dayton and the roar of fun far exceeded the roar of water down the Miami River at that time. Departing time came. While Blanche is much loved by her friends, they left her that evening with long faces and sad countenances because she is going from us. But take courage, every rosebud plucked from one community and planted in another will bloom and shed its fragrance to bless and brighten the lives of others. Such is the life of our esteemed friend and surely Blanche will not disappoint us. She will go but not be forgotten.
