

TRUE HEROISM is not sectional or local; it is a National possession; an international asset. It doesn't involve success or failure; sometimes there's more heroism in losing than in winning . . . . .

There's not much that's heroic about the clothing business; it's a matter-of-fact, hum-drum sort of a proposition. But it is possible to do business in a spirit of service; to see that the man who pays his money for merchandise shall get all that it's possible to give in value.

WOULD DISCOURAGE SPORTS ON SUNDAY

The Sabbath Observance Society of Parkdale has in circulation a petition soliciting the signatures of those who are in sympathy with the movement to create a half holiday on the first and third Saturdays of each month during June, July, August and September. The object of this movement is to obliterate Sunday amusements and instead to observe Saturday as the day of recreation.

WILL GIVE PLAY AT CHAUTAUQUA

Owing to the inclement weather on Saturday, "A Box of Monkeys," with vocal and instrumental trimmings, was held on Monday evening before a large audience. Rea Babson, who enacts the leading role, received numerous curtain calls. The cast was the same as at the last presentation and will be the same at the coming Chautauqua this summer unless Babson accepts Charles Frohman's tempting offer to head a road company on the Polar circuit. Miss Catherine Brothers sang a soprano solo, assisted at the piano by A. C. Boswell. Harry Fry and A. C. Boswell, the two musicians of note, rendered several classical selections on the piano and harinet. The evening's entertainment closed with selections by the Parkdale Quartette. R. Fairbairn, the local Harry Lauder, was unable to appear owing to illness.

UPPER VALLEY NOTES

Mrs. Edgar Shockley (Miss Elsie Simmons) who has been living in Eugene since her marriage, has returned to Parkdale and will spend the summer with her parents. Mr. Shockley, who is an instructor in the University of Oregon, Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, is expected home next week.

The Parkdale school closed last Friday with a picnic given by teachers for the enjoyment of the youngsters. Alda Puddy and L. J. Crisp assisted Miss Clarke in serving the "cats," while Mr. Purcell took charge of the games for the children. We regret that neither Miss Clark nor Mr. Purcell will be with us next year.

The dance which was given in Isaac's Hall on Friday evening by Vogel's Orchestra was a hawling success due, mainly, to Eric Gordon's efficient management.

A farewell party in the form of a surprise was given Mr. Purcell by his pupils and the Young People's Endeavor Society Friday evening at the home of Rev. W. L. Van Noy. The young people thoroughly enjoyed themselves and left at a late hour wishing Mr. Purcell all sorts of good luck in his future work.

Miss Hart of Hood River has been engaged as primary teacher for Parkdale during the coming school year. Miss Bailey and Miss Emerson have been re-elected as teachers for the school at Mt. Hood.

We sympathize with Mr. Myers in the loss of his best horse. It was killed in a runaway while working at Kelley's mill. Since the accident Mr. Myers has purchased a team of Mr. Kite.

Mrs. Homer Kruse of Wilsonville and Miss Hedwig Killers of Portland were visiting Mrs. John Cooper Tuesday and Wednesday.

We are awaiting with interest the result of Mr. Keating's treatment of his ailing chickens. Like Dr. Friedman, Mr. Keating is loathe to give out his formula.

Mrs. Lucy Dimmick of Starbuck, Wash., is here visiting her brother, M. D. Odell, and other relatives and friends here and at Mt. Hood. She expects to be here over next Sunday. Mrs. Moore, who has taken Mrs. Gould's class of boys and girls, gave them a campfire supper on the hill back of the rock crusher. Fifteen attende and all had an enjoyable time.

The principal of Odell school, Miss Della Rush, took the botany class to the Punch Bowl in the interests of the study.

J. M. Shelley's large class of boys have their lesson out behind the church these warm days and come marching in for the general exercises.

Superintendent Odell gave an excellent address after Sunday School. This is the first of a series planned by the Guild. Mr. Meyers accompanied the organ with his violin, which was greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Guy Smith went to Portland Saturday.

The Hicks mill on Sherrard and Chapman's place began running Monday. Their specialty is sawing and shipping fir railroad ties but they also saw other lumber on demand. They have built three houses and a stable and with two houses for their Japanese help it makes quite a village.

OAK GROVE

About twenty ladies of Oak Grove met in the schoolhouse Tuesday afternoon, May 20, and organized the Patron-Teachers' Club. Plans were discussed for carrying on the work of the club next year and much interest was manifested by all present. Regular meetings will not be held until next Fall. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Harry M. Francis; vice-president, Mrs. George C. Gladen; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. James Wickham.

Miss Hilma Anderson, teacher of the intermediate grades, left Saturday for Monmouth to complete her Normal course and graduate in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Wickham of Hood River spent Friday at Oak Grove and took in the school program.

The library in the schoolhouse will be open every Wednesday afternoon from two until four o'clock all summer, as has been the case this Spring. A good lot of books is always at hand for the people of Oak Grove.

The Misses Gertrude and Mary L. Irwin left Tuesday for Portland, and will probably remain until after the Rose Festival.

The celebration of the last day of school, which was Friday, was begun by a picnic dinner served on the grounds across from the school building. A large number of parents and friends were present to enjoy the fun. After dinner the school children formed a parade from the schoolhouse to a platform near the picnic grounds, the young people being attired in costumes as follows: the Goddess of Liberty, Alberta Sutton; May Queen, Marion Crapper; Flowers, the Primary girls; Fairies, the Intermediate girls; Goddesses, the older girls; Indians, some on horseback; boys of the school.
