Con Brio at CEBU Lounge

This week at CEBU Lounge: Friday, Feb. 6 - Groovy Wallpaper, 9:30 p.m. Cello and Percussion Rock Duo. Skip VonKuske (Portland Cello Project) and Don Henson (Steppin' Out) are "something unique and awesome. Watch Don play a djembe, a glockenspiel and a typewriter all at once, while Skip use his cello for unholy purposes!" Saturday, Feb. 7 - Con Brio, 9:30 p.m. San Francisco R&B/Soul. "Known for their fiery live shows, Con Brio is a living, evolving testament to the power of soul. Fronted by 21-year-old phenom Ziek McCarter — a gifted showman whose stage presence calls to mind the magnetism of a young Michael Jackson — the band's sound traces a clear lineage from the dirty funk, blues, and psychedelic legacy of Bay Area legends like Sly and the Family Stone." Best Western Plus Hood River Inn, 1108 E. Marina Way; 541-386-2200.

'Symphony' at Springhouse

Music in the Backroom at Springhouse Cellar continues on Tuesday, Feb. 10 with 10 String Symphony starting at 6 p.m. "10 String Symphony is an arena for mesmerizing acoustic innovation. Although difficult to categorize, their music is instantly recognizable as a blend of two distinct musical voices, encompassing aggressive, almost discordant, Celtic and punky string-chording experimentations. Vocally, Rachel Baiman and Christian Sedelmyer (Jerry Douglas Band) lock in seamlessly, and their vocal duets often take center stage despite the fact that they are self-described 5-string fiddle players." Springhouse Cellar, 13 Railroad Ave, Hood River; 541-308-0700.

'FULL MONTY' STEPS OUT
