Blackberry Bushes March 17

Springhouse is staying open later than usual as they celebrate St. Patrick's Day with a Hootenanny from the Blackberry Bushes Stringband (pictured above). All-ages show, 6-10 p.m. Sources say there will be no green wine! Springhouse Cellar, 13 Railroad Ave, Hood River; 541-308-0700.

DoveDriver at River City

"DoveDriver is the brainchild of guitarist/producer Teddy Presberg. It is his go-to group to perform his original, experimental songs that mesh funk, soul, and rock - a blend of sounds described as "instrumental shoegaze jazz." Catch him on Saturday, March 14, at the River City Saloon. Clarke & The Himselves open the show. River City Saloon, 207 Cascade Ave., Hood River; 541-387-2583.

'Rockin' Blues Masters' at The Pines March 28

Three NW blues masters are joining forces for a night of Rockin Blues at The Pines on Saturday, March 28. The show is from 7-10 p.m. Tickets are $15 and limited seating is available. The band will feature slide guitarist Henry Cooper, drummer Boyd Small and bass player Don Campbell — all veteran players from bands like Screamin Jay Hawkins, Paul deLay and DK Stewart. 21 and over only. The Pines Tasting Room, 202 Cascade Ave., Hood River; 541-993-8301.

Barley Draught celebrates

It's the start of the St. Patrick's Day Season and Irish pub band Barley Draught will be featured on Friday, March 13 at Solera Brew Pub in Parkdale starting at 7 p.m. to ring in the green, and on March 17, St. Patrick's Day, they'll be playing at a grand celebration and feast at the Senior Center in The Dalles starting at 7 p.m. with an option of an Irish dinner at 6 p.m. Come join in with singing and smiles.

Ben Bonham at Lyle Hotel

The Lyle Hotel hosts a St. Patrick's bash with Chic Preston & Ben Bonham playing live music on Tuesday, March 17, from 6:30-9:30 p.m. Corned Beef, cabbage and Irish Stew will be served up as well. The Lyle Hotel, 100 7th St., Lyle, Wash., 509-365-5953.

Tillinghast at The Pines

This week at The Pines: Friday, March 13, 6-9 p.m., Richard & Tova Tillinghast from the band OneHum. Enjoy acoustic guitar and cello on songs that "center around the love of rural life in the Pacific Northwest." The Pines Tasting Room, 202 Cascade Ave., Hood River; 541-993-8301.

Trio Subtonic at CEBU

This week at CEBU Lounge: Fri., March 13: Tracy Klas Band, 9:30 p.m. Rock 'n' Roll Sat., March 14: Trio Subtonic, 9:30 p.m. Groove & Funk-based Jazz. "Trio Subtonic has made their mark on the Northwest independent and jazz music scenes, crafting four albums worth of original compositions. In 2009, 'Cave Dweller' received national attention for striking a balance between unique groove and catchy melody. The incorporation of jazz and Brazilian traditions with non-stop funky fervor poses the question to the dance floor: is it better to stop for a moment and listen, or to have never listened at all?" Best Western Plus Hood River Inn, 1108 E. Marina Way; 541-386-2200.

PINE GROVE REFLECTION

Pine Grove Fire Department supporters are reflected in a heavy framed mirror, just one of hundreds of items sold in live auctions inside the fire hall and outside in the yard in the March 7 fundraiser for the department. Donations of farm, household and office goods come from near and far in the 51st annual event, which raises money for training and fire suppression equipment.

'Heroes Not Welcome' exhibit March 14 in TD

Columbia Gorge Discovery Center and Museum presents "What if Heroes Were Not Welcome Home?" Saturday, March 14.

The exhibit opening features a Culture a la Carte evening of dining followed by a presentation by author Linda Tamura. This poignant exhibit examines the experience of American veterans of Japanese descent, upon their return home after serving in World War II. Doors open at 5:30 p.m., dinner served at 6, with the 7 p.m. presentation at the Discovery Center, 5000 Discovery Drive, in The Dalles. Cost for the dinner and presentation is $18; presentation only is $3.

Tickets are available online at www.gorge.discovery.org or by calling 541-296-8600 ext. 201.
